The Nittsburgh Gazette.

ON THE OTHER SIDE. BY A. A. HOPKINS. We go our way in life too much alone;
We hold ourselves too far from all our kind;
Too often are we deaf to sigh and moan;
Too often to the weak and helpless blind;
Too often, where distress and want ablde,
We turn and pass upon the other side.

The other side is trodden smooth; and worn
By footsteps passing idly all the day;
Where lie the bruised ones who faint and mourn
Is seldom more than an untrodden way.
Our selfish hearts are for our feet the guide;
They lead us by upon the other side.

It should be ours the oil and wine to pour into the bleeding wounds of stricken enesy. To take the smitten, and the sick and sore. And bear them where astreum of blessing runs; Instead, we look about—the way is wide, And so we pass upon the other side.

And so we pass upon the sener side.

O. friends and brethers, gliding down the years, Humanity is calling each and all in tender accents, born of grief and tears! I pray you listen to the thrilling call. You cannot, in your selfishness and pride, Pass guiltless by upon the other side!

Pass guiltless by upon the other side!

-Nantucket, being regular Yankee land, knows how to keep cool under all circumstances. During the whole of this remarkably torrid season the thermometer has but twice marked above 80 degrees.

-Harner's Bazar was an immense success from the beginning, the secret of which of perfidious Albion.

is that the public have found out that the Harpers have too much self respect to allow anything to come from their house which is TEPTH EXTRACTED not at least respectable.

-The fat larva of cock chafers are now eaten with gusto and catsup, when done up into a pate, by the gourmands of Paris. They are said to be exceedingly delicious until one knows what he is eating.

-The Menken-as we all call her for want of a better name—smokes twenty-five cigarettes a day, and her fingers are all henna-colored at the tips, like a Pole's, from rolling these little paper cigars.

-Terese, the noterious, is making as much sensation in Brussels, as she did two or three years ago, in Berlin, although, as yet, she has not brought any of the cabinet ministers of Belgium before the public, as she did the unfortunate Prussian Count.

-Baron von Beust, has abandoned the defensive and assumed the offensive; having carried his reforms so brilliantly thus far, he now declares to the Bishops and Priests that if they do not conform to the laws they will be subject to fine and imprisonment like anybody else.

-The combination lock of the safe of the First National Bank of Girard, Pa., got out of order recently, and the officers, after working a couple of days in trying to get the doors open, were compelled to send for a lock manufacturer. He found it necessary to blow the safe open from top to bottom. -Two Mormon preachers were mobbed at Liverpool the other day. It seems that the reason that so many young women become converts to this heresy is that the missionaries assert that they never practice polygamy at Utah, and that the Gentiles only say so to hinder them in their good work. -In Third Lake, Madison, Wis., the fish are dying off in large numbers. The supposed cause of this unusual mortality is an epidemic brought on by the great heat of the past few weeks. This will be unpleasant news to those of our cittzens who enjoy so much their annual trip to Madison, armed with the rod.

-A large number of well-to-do-Swiss citizens have purchased, through their agent, Captain Plumacher, forty thousand acres of land near McMinnville, Tennessee. The horse car won, arriving at Toulouse at six o'clock, -Prof. Gurney, of Harvard, has accepted | But the race was close for one so long, as the position of associate editor of the North the velocipede came in only twenty-five minutes afterwards. -One of the favorite means of commiting suicide in Paris, has been to ascend the Vendome column and plunge from the summit to the ground below. This little amusement became so common that the government has closed the doors of the monument and allows no one to ascend. All the suiciders in Paris are outraged at this new piece of Napoleon's tyranny. -We had hoped some time ago that Olive ogan had exhausted her little stock of egotistical anecdotes of Paris, and her own unexampled opportunities for toadying the Emperor and sobility, but it seems that our hopes were in vain, as Olive has announced that she is preparing a new lecture entitled "Paris-City of Luxury,"-which she means to inflict upon the poor public. -Here is a specimen of a Democratic olitical argument. A Democratic paper published in New England, and as respectable as than class of paper ever is, in endeavoring to prove that the Republicans tell the most outrageous lies to the ignorant Southerners, deliberately says the Southern negroes are being taught that Seymour afways dines off roast black baby, mulatto

-J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, the most renowned publishers of miscellaneous literature in the State, are about to issue a new novel, called "Tricotrin," by Onida, "The Journey of Her Majesty's ship Galatea round the world, commanded by the Duke of Edinburg," and a translation of a new novel by the author of "The Old Mamselle's Secret." This last will be eagerly looked for by all lovers of spicy

-Our stock of impressarii having dwindled down to a few worthless specimens, we are to receive a valuable addition in the person of Mr. Mapleson, late manager of Her Majesty's Theatre, London, who will bring in his train Madame Tietjens, Miss Kellogg and Santley, an unequalled trio of stars. Meanwhile, it is stated that Patti, Lucca. Nillssen and Schneider are all coming over too. We can't think what is to become of Paris and Berlin. -The victor of Magdala is now called Baron Napier, and to this new Baron was recently presented the freedom of the city of London and a two hundred guinea sword. Meanwhile the English people, through their papers, growl and grumble and throw mud on the Baron's recent achievements. all of which would have been proper enough a little sooner or a good deal later, but coming, as it does, along with the peerage, pension, sword and reception, it may well be looked upon as a piece of cruel bad taste. only possible among the splenetic children
