

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting.—From 12 m. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

Subiding.—The panic in the meat market is beginning to subside.

The State Central Republican Executive Committee will hold a session at the Monongahela House to-day.

Flourishing.—The bone boiling business in East Liberty, the cattle disease revived it. "It's an ill wind that blows nobody any good."

Meets To-Night.—The Allegheny County Board will hold a regular semi-monthly meeting this evening at seven and a half o'clock in their Chambers, City Building.

Attempted Burglary.—At an early hour yesterday morning a burglar attempted to force an entrance into a house on Rebecca street, Allegheny, but was frightened off.

Improvement.—The fence around the yard of the Pan Handle Railroad on Grant street is receiving a coat of whitewash, which materially improves the appearance of the affair.

In another column will be found grouped together the cards of the various candidates for municipal office, setting forth that they will abide by the nominations to be made next Saturday.

Kicked His Son.—John McDermott made information, yesterday, before Alderman Taylor against William Mason for assault and battery. McDermott alleges that Mason kicked his son, who works with him as helper at McCully's Glass Works. A warrant was issued.

Threatened to Whip Him.—Lucius Zummer fears that N. Keiffer, who has taken a dislike to him, will carry into execution a threat to whip him. Alderman Taylor issued a warrant for the arrest of the threatener, and committed him to a hearing on an information for surety of the peace preferred by Zummer.

Grand Open Air Rally in Allegheny To-Night.—The meeting on the Commons, fronting the City Building, there will be held a grand open air rally, at which all voters are invited to be present. Hon. Galusha A. Crook, H. Knickerbocker and other distinguished speakers will positively be in attendance. Let there be a general turnout.

Run Over.—Ellen Reed, residing near the Point, was run over on Monday afternoon by a market wagon and injured to such an extent as to render her recovery very doubtful. It seems she attempted to cross Marbury street in advance of the wagon, and was knocked down by the horses, and the result as stated, Dr. Hamilton is in attendance upon her.

Man Run Over.—On Monday afternoon a man named Grayson, residing on Virginia street, was run over by a Smithfield street, in front of an express wagon, which knocked down and run over the wheels of the wagon passing over his abdomen. The accident occurred near Seventh street. The injured man was conveyed to his residence and a physician summoned.

Alleged False Pretence.—Andrew Knox made information yesterday before Alderman Taylor against Alexander Taylor for a false pretence. Taylor, residing at No. 35 on the same street, obtained from Taylor by false pretence seven hundred dollars. The accused was arrested and gave bail in the sum of $1,500 for a hearing.

A Tanager Club.—A call will be found elsewhere, addressed to the active young Republicans of this neighborhood for a meeting to-night at City Hall for the purpose of organizing a tanager club. The campaign, such organizations have been formed in all the large cities and Allegheny, and should be in charge of the work. Let every young voter attend and enroll his name.

Commenced.—The first service of the camp meeting at Leasdale took place last evening. Quite a large number of people are in attendance and it promises to be an exceedingly interesting gathering. Arrangements have been made with the railroad company by which all baggage going to the grounds will be transported free of charge. The meeting is in charge of Rev. Dr. Williams and Rev. Joseph Horner, of Sewickley.

Alleged Aggravated Assault.—Andrew Sheehan made information, yesterday, before Alderman Strain against two policemen, Joseph Cripples and W. J. Jordan for aggravated assault and battery. Sheehan alleges that the defendants beat him in the face with maces, and otherwise injured him by placing his hands on his chest. The offense is said to have occurred near the Union Depot. The accused were arrested and gave bail for a hearing.

An Intruder.—A young chap who resides on Second street, has been in the habit of sleeping on the house-top during the heated term. He was indulging in his usual practice on Monday night when the rain came and drove him in doors. In his haste to get into the house he descended the wrong scuttle and found himself in the sleeping apartments of a young lady. The lady screamed and called for help. The young gentleman reconnoitred and quickly vanished.

Forestalling the Market.—Joseph Wrigley made information yesterday before Alderman Humbert against James Freeman for forestalling the market. Wrigley, who is the market contractor, alleged that Freeman from a countryman thirty-seven pairs of chickens for seventy-five cents each, and sold them at a profit of one hour at a considerable advance. The accused was arrested and after a hearing fined twenty dollars and costs, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Serious Accident.—Isaac Printer, a brakeman in the employ of the Pennsylvania railroad, met with a serious accident at the Outer Depot about eight o'clock on Tuesday evening. It seems he was engaged in coupling two cars together, when by some mishap he fell between the bumpers. His right arm was crushed in a shocking manner, and it is probable that amputation will be necessary. He was conveyed to his home in the Fifth ward, where his injuries were attended to by Dr. Hamilton.

Three Times.—Yesterday Arthur Orlikshank was fortunate enough to avoid the fire of a merchant in the pea-nut trade, whose establishment is located on the corner of Penn and Canal streets. Arthur suffered for his temerity, being bruised, according to his own statement, three times by coming in contact with the pedal extremity of the aforesaid merchant. This man insulted his dignity that he only got a throe in an information for assault and battery before Alderman Taylor, who issued a warrant for the arrest of the belligerent tradesman.

An Affectionate Child.—According to an information made before Alderman Taylor, Master's Catherine McKean amused herself and manifested her filial love by whipping her maternal parent the other day. It is perhaps possible that Catherine, who is a married child, was unaware of the fact that this is one of the methods of expressing love for parents which is now prohibited, but she will understand it hereafter, as her father, George Utta, of East Deer township, had her arrested, and after a hearing held for Court in the sum of $500 to answer a charge of assault and battery.

South Pittsburgh.—The South Pittsburgh Grant and Colfax Club held a meeting at the Public School House, Tuesday evening, which was largely attended, and at the opening hour, the President, William H. Barker, ascended the platform, and announced that the Club had, in connection with the Republicans of the Monongahela borough, erected a stand at the south end of the bridge, and that their friends were there waiting on them. He put the question whether the meeting would adjourn to meet with their friends at Monongahela, when the meeting unanimously voted aye, and proceeded by the Washington Common Band, marched to a stand situated near the south end of the Monongahela Bridge, when, after music by the band, and a song by the Glee Club, led by Prof. Jones, A. Jones, the Chair introduced Mr. A. M. Brown, who proceeded to address the meeting in a most able and eloquent manner.

The Band then discoursed some excellent music, which was followed by a song from the Glee Club. E. P. Powers, Esq., followed in an argumentative and telling speech, and concluded in an earnest appeal to all to stand by the Republican cause, and the old flag. John Glenn, of Kentucky, was next introduced. He had been sent to Kentucky on recruiting duty, and because he had enlisted negroes he was ostracized by the rebels there, and forced to leave the State. The rebel sentiment pervaded all parts of Kentucky, and of course the majority were in full sympathy with Seymour and Blair. The meeting was one of the largest ever held in the borough, and the greatest enthusiasm was manifested.

Elizabeth and Vicinity.—The Republicans of Elizabeth and vicinity met on Monday evening at the Harmon hall, prepared for a Grant and Colfax Club, and organized by calling Jas. Maffett, Esq., as temporary Chairman, and W. B. Sprague, Secretary.

A committee was appointed on permanent organization, who reported the following officers: President—Jas. Maffett, Esq. Vice Presidents—Wm. H. Robinson, J. W. Eckley. Secretaries—W. B. Sprague, J. S. Taylor. Treasurer—H. H. McClure.

The question being put on the acceptance of the report and adoption thereof, it was unanimously carried. Captain Sam. Kerr was then called upon for a speech, who responded in a few very appropriate remarks.

Short speeches were made by Captain Houghton and others, after which there were some business committees appointed for the purpose of making a more thorough canvass than has ever been made in Old Elizabeth.

French Corslets, all sizes.—Bates & Bell's. Hempfield Railroad.

The following very sensible paragraph we take from the Monongahela Republican:

We are likely to have this road built at last. Our readers may have noticed that the Monongahela and Ohio Company purchased the right and location of the road some time ago, and measures are now being taken to get the releases between here and there. It is a matter of some importance, and we are informed by a reliable correspondent that the Hempfield will be put under contract at a very early day. Should this be so, a connection be made with the Connellsville near West Newton, Pittsburgh had better wake up to the importance of building the Monongahela Valley road, or their trade will suffer by being diverted to Baltimore via the Hempfield and Connellsville. Pittsburgh has hitherto done but little in the way of building railroads, and if this draining of all the trade of the upper part of this valley in another direction does not rouse them, then we think they would not wink if lightning should strike them. There seems now to be some prospect that our trade will be brought into communication with the outward world, not so much perhaps by our own energies, as by the enterprising foresight of other people. Let us attend the meeting of the friends of the Valley Road on Saturday, August 15th, and give it all the aid in our power.

Linon Shirt Fronts.—Bates & Bell's. Interesting Surgical Operation.

Matilda Crono and Susan Humphreys have had a little misunderstanding, and Matilda alleges in consequence that Susan threatens to remove from the inside to the outside that portion of her internal organs known as the heart. Notwithstanding this interesting surgical operation was to be performed free of charge, Matilda objects, believing it to be altogether unnecessary, and fearing that Susan, in her zeal, might make the attempt, she lodges an information against her for surging the peace before Alderman Taylor. That official dispatched a note asking for the attendance of the would-be female surgeon at his office, where she can learn the state of Susan's mind in regard to the matter.

County Executive Committee.

Large Attendance.—Members Elected.—Mass Meeting.—To-night, 8 o'clock, in Regard to the Death of Hon. Thaddeus Stevens.

At a meeting of the Union Republican County Executive Committee, held yesterday afternoon, Hon. Russell Ertelt, in the chair, and Colonel Stuart, Secretary.

There was a very large attendance, and the reports from all parts of the country were very encouraging. On motion of Colonel Hillands, Colonel Thomas M. Bayne was elected a member of the Committee.

On motion of Colonel Cooper, John A. Myler and John Heath were appointed a Committee of Arrangements for the meeting in their Chambers, City Building. Mr. Joseph Hill, Chairman of the Committee of Germans, to make arrangements for the reception of the German orator, General Cass, who is to speak in this city on the 20th inst., reported progress.

A committee of three, consisting of J. H. Baldwin, Captain W. B. Coon and John Healy were appointed to confer with the above committee. E. Reed, of Millvale borough, in consequence of leaving the county, to reside in Auburn, New York, resigned his position on the committee, and John G. Brown was elected in his stead. A communication was received from Mr. John J. McCormick, presenting two magnificent medals, which he had secured from the path of morality, he would endeavor to conceal the fact instead of seeking to bring it to light, acknowledge it. If these gentlemen desire to be relieved of that character, they are welcome hereafter, so far as we are concerned, they will have no objection to it a rule to publish the names of all young men connected with cases of this character, hereafter.

Nottingham Lace Curtains.—Bates & Bell's. The Rent Case and its Sequel.

In yesterday's GAZETTE we published an account of a case of alleged false pretence, in which Henry Bein was prosecutor, and Louis Segrist was defendant, and stated that the accused had been arrested and held for a hearing. It appears, as stated in our previous notice of the case, that Bein had leased a tavern stand in McClure township, and that subsequently Segrist purchased the property of the party from whom Bein had leased, and the lease was fully transferred to him, as was his right. Segrist called upon Bein and collected the rent, amounting to sixty-five dollars, but after he had received and received for the money, he left the premises, Bein became impressed with the idea that he had been defrauded, and he immediately arrested and held for a hearing. Bein, in company with his lawyer, Mr. Segrist, were in the court, and Segrist, with open lewdness of the consequence seized upon him and conducted him to the Mayor's office, where an information was made against him, charging him with obtaining money under false pretence. The case was called up for a hearing, but the Attorney for the prosecution, finding he had no case, the charge was withdrawn, and the prosecutor hereafter, as Segrist, not being satisfied with the treatment he had received at the hands of his captors, made information, charging that he had been defrauded, and he was arrested and held for a hearing, but the case will probably be compromised.

Linon Table Damasks.—Bates & Bell's. Earnings of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company.

We are indebted to J. P. Farley, Esq., Auditor of the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway Company, for the following statement of the approximate earnings of that Company during the month of July, and of the earnings and expenses for the first seven months of the year, as compared with the same period of the year 1867:

Table with columns for 1867, 1868, and Increase or Decrease. Rows include Gross Receipts, Operating Expenses, and Net Earnings.

They also visited the Schenley estate, lying back of Oakland and the property of Dr. Farley, between Oak and Allegheny, Monongahela river, on Four Mile Run, Linden grove, the property of Jas. S. Craft, all comprising about six hundred acres, owned by the Greenbush and Allegheny Monongahela river. From portions of this site magnificent views of the Monongahela valley, and of the Allegheny river, can be obtained, as well as portions of the old city. The site is undoubtedly well pleased with it.

The entire day was spent by the Committee in the examination of the grounds above mentioned, and an excellent and beautiful site in the neighborhood. They have received an invitation to visit a tract of land in the vicinity of Hartwood, on the Allegheny river, near the Railroad, which will receive their attention soon.

Popular Prices, large stocks and fine goods.—Bates & Bell's. One Evening This Week.

We met twenty-seven ovens and nine pigs on North Avenue, Allegheny. As they were not in droves, but quite undriven and at liberty, we felt that they really took up too much room. The next morning as we were musing over this we met on Market street a pair of swine, and driving to the right and left and covering with mud and grease the simple people who had found it impossible to get the releases between here and there. It is a matter of some importance, and we are informed by a reliable correspondent that the Hempfield will be put under contract at a very early day. Should this be so, a connection be made with the Connellsville near West Newton, Pittsburgh had better wake up to the importance of building the Monongahela Valley road, or their trade will suffer by being diverted to Baltimore via the Hempfield and Connellsville. Mantles, very cheap, to close out.—Bates & Bell's. A Question.

John McGrath on the 10th instant made information before the Mayor, charging Richard Best with keeping a ferocious dog, and at the hearing which took place last evening, a legal question was raised, that will probably have to be decided in the Court. Mr. Best disclaims any knowledge of the dog, and says that the dog is not his, and further alleges that the dog does not belong to him, and never did. The prosecutor alleges that the accused harbored the dog, and kept it in his house, and that he appears, however, that the dog is claimed by a brother-in-law of Mr. Best, who resides in the same house with him. The prosecutor simply denies that the dog is his, and insists that the defendant shall keep him. The question then is whether a man is responsible for the action of a dog upon which he has no claim. His Honor would not take the responsibility of deciding the point, and held the case for Court.

The Sinclair Bawdy House Case.

Several prosecutions have originated out of the Sinclair bawdy house case, an account of which we published yesterday, and the interest manifested in them by men with pretensions to respectability is fully remarkable.

Yesterday morning a hearing took place in the surety case against William Hartz, in which Maggie McClaren, one of the inmates of Mrs. Sinclair's establishment, was prosecutrix, and Hartz was held to bail in the sum of three hundred dollars for his appearance at Court. Hartz then made information charging Maggie McClaren with fornication, and Maggie waiting a hearing given bail for her appearance at Court. The fair trial fell creature had not the slightest difficulty in procuring good and sufficient bail. Several men who aspire to the position of gentlemen were present, all anxiously desiring the honor of serving her in that capacity.

In many instances prosecutions of this character are instituted through purely selfish motives, either for the sake of gain or of gratifying some personal feeling of revenge and for such we know this may have been the case in the present case, but it does not follow that gentlemen should be so galled as to deem it an honor to aid the persecuted, in their hour of trouble. Such however, it appears to be the case. The time has been in this city as in many others, that a man making any pretensions to respectability, will scarcely visit a house of prostitution, and will not be seen from the path of morality, he would endeavor to conceal the fact instead of seeking to bring it to light, acknowledge it. If these gentlemen desire to be relieved of that character, they are welcome hereafter, so far as we are concerned, they will have no objection to it a rule to publish the names of all young men connected with cases of this character, hereafter.

A Smart Boy.—A small but in one sense a smart boy entered the confectionery establishment of Mr. Gotham, on Ohio street, Allegheny, yesterday evening, and asked the lady attendant, if she could give him a change for a five dollar bill, putting his hand into his pocket at the same time as if to draw out the bill. The lady attendant, however, was not so easily deceived, and he was asked to return down a two dollar bill on the counter when the smart boy seized it and made off. The Allegheny police were not long in occurring, and they commenced to search for the chap, but have not succeeded in capturing him yet. He is a very smart boy, and if he is not continued, he has begun, he stands a remarkably favorable chance to exhibit his smartness in the Penitentiary before he dies.

A Woman Missing.—Foul Play Suspected.—The Matter to be Investigated.

Some six or seven weeks since Catharine Hoon, a weak minded girl, residing at Glendale station with Mr. C. Ritt, her brother-in-law, disappeared from her home, and her friends have been unable to obtain any trace of her. It is alleged by the brother-in-law that an undue intimacy existed between her and John Bernhardt, that about the time of her departure he (Bernhardt) had promised to procure her a situation in the city. Bernhardt, it is alleged, disappeared from the neighborhood about the time the girl did, and although her friends have made inquiry, were unable to obtain information of either of them until yesterday morning, when Mr. Ritt met Bernhardt on Fifth street near the old theatre. He at once accosted him, and inquired as to the whereabouts of the girl. Bernhardt denied any knowledge of her, whereupon Mr. Ritt called upon an officer to arrest him. As the officer approached Bernhardt retreated and ran up Fifth street, with the officer in pursuit. He turned down Smithfield street but had proceeded but a short distance when he was met by two gentlemen in blue coats, who stopped his wild career. He was taken to the lockup and furnished with quarters, but he still yesterday afternoon he did not know anything about the girl. An information was made against him by Mr. Ritt, charging him with adultery, upon which he was held to bail, and he was committed to jail for a hearing.

Petroleum Items.—The Titusville Standard has the following: A new well was struck on the Wood Farm on Saturday last, and yesterday it was producing at the rate of ninety barrels per day. It is owned by Messrs. M. Stewart and Irwin.

A new well is being tested on Charley Run, near Oil City. Up to yesterday afternoon the prospect of its being a medium producing well was slight.

The shipments by the Allegheny Valley Railroad, from Venango City, Franklin and Scrubb Grass, from August 1st to August 10th, were 25,089 barrels; the shipments from Titusville by the Empire Line for the same time, were 4,877 barrels, and from that place to Oil City by local lines, 2,400 barrels.

The Rapes Case.—A hearing took place yesterday in the case of John Hinz, charged with rape on Simon Schock, before the Mayor, with S. Simpson acting as counsel for the defendant to commit a rape. The principal witness was the daughter of the prosecutor, a little girl about thirteen years of age. It did not appear, however, that she had been defrauded, and the charge of attempted rape could not be maintained.

Another information was made against John Robinson, charging him with defrauding Alderman Strain yesterday, against Enos Crow for fraud. Robinson says the defendant obtained groceries from him to the amount of thirty-seven dollars, and that he is about to remove from the State, and has also sold a portion of his personal property in pursuance of his design of removing. The accused was arrested and committed to jail for a hearing. George has not been arrested yet.

Freight Cars Wrecked.—A slight accident occurred at Saltburg on the Pittsburgh & Connellsville railroad on Tuesday evening, by which three cars were badly damaged. The cars were being shifted to a siding at the Salt Works, when the wheels of the second car struck the ground. The forward car was precipitated over an embankment and broken to pieces. The trucks of the second car fell on the top of the first car, and the rear car, which was filled with stone, came against it with such a force as to throw it up on its end. The middle car was constructed of iron, but it was damaged to a considerable extent.
