THE COPPERHEAD.

Of all the factions men we've seen,
Existing now or long since dead.
No one was ever known so mean
As him we cail n Copperhead—
A draft-evading Coppernead;
A rebol-aiding copperhead;
A growling, slandering,
Scowling, pandering,
Victous, States' rights Copperhead.

From him the decencies of life,
And all its courtesies, have fied.
He lives in fretful, factions strife—
A testy, touchy Copperhead—
A negro fearing Copperhead;
An unlearned, unlicked,
Oft-spurned, of

When 'Save the Union' was the cry,
And thousands for the Union bled,
The Nation's right he did deny
To save itselt;—this Copperhead—
A Son of Liberty Copperhead;
A Golden Circle Copperhead;
A scheming, 19;ing,
Bereaming, 19;ing,
Mean, Canadian Copperhead.

When Southern miscreants designed
Their helpless prisoners' blood to shed,
And Libby prison undermined,
Who then approved? The Copperhead—
The soldier-shooting Copperhead;
The patriot-hooting Copperhead;
The war-abusing,
Ald-refusing.

The war-abusing,
Ald-refusing,
Crimes excusing Copperhead. Who scoffed at Pillow's bloody fray,

And Andersonville's murdered dead?
Who victory's hour did long delay?
The traisprons, treacherous Copperhead—
The drime-creating Copperhead;
Assashating Copperhead;
Wrath-inditing,
Death-delighting Copperhead.

When widows mourned their lonely lot,
And orphan children wept their dead.
Who said: "Their just descrist they got?"
The Northern rebel Copperhead—
The widow-libelling Copperhead;
The grier-deriding Copperhead;
The false, conspiring,
City-dring,
Booth-admitting Copperhead.

Nor woman's grief, nor orphan's tears,
Nor e'en a nation's honored dead,
Are sacred from the libes and sneers
Of every brutal Copperhead—
Each church-aspersing Copperhead;
Each preacher-cursing Copperhead;
Each Union-hating,
War-creating,

ar-creating, Repudiating Copperhead. Crawl to your dunghill, viper, crawl!
For U. S. Grant, with conquering tread
Marches to crush the thing men call
In politics, a Copperhend—
A Democratic Copperhead;
A wile-fansitic Copperhead;
A murder-jeethus. nurder-jeering, dow-sneering, Assassin-cheering Copperhead

Curious Feats.

It would appear that the Chinese jugglers really do swallow swords, and that there is made with hands and decorated—like St. no deception in this and other of their feats. The sword, for instance, does not slide into itself. A famous French physician lately experimented upon a Chinese conjurer, long, and permitted an examination of his body while the blade was in its living sheath. Dr. Fournie, such was the anatomist's name, and those who were with him, were thoroughly satisfied with the honesty of the operation. They traced the point along its downward course, and felt it in the liliac regions, thirty inches from the swallower's mouth. So we may set sword and poker swallowing down as genuine feats of gymnastics. Ling Long afterwards took an egg into his mouth and appeared to swallow it. His gorge was, searched, and his aeck probed, but the egg could not be found. The Chinamen swallowed a puff of tobacco smoke, and the egg came forth again. There was much discussion as to how it was disposed of. Dr Fournie thought that the act of swallowing was not completely performed; so, in a second experiment, he produced a laryngoscope and directed a powerful beam of magnesium light down the patient's throat, when, sure enough, the egg was discovered in a cavity or nest, which Ling Long had habituated himself by long practice to form, below the tongue in the laryngean regions. body while the blade was in its living
