Last Moments of Thaddeus Stevens.

About midday two colored clergymen, the Rev. H. Hall and the Rev. Mr. Reed, both of the Israel Methodist Church, arrived, and requested permission to see Mr. Stevens and pray with him. It is a curious coincidence...

Bursting of a Glacier.

A correspondent of the London papers gives the following account of an singular occurrence at Chamounix, Savoy, on July 28: "At ten minutes to five a dark cloud overclouded the valley of Chamounix, a peal of thunder was heard, and then a continuous roar that awakened every soul in the village, caused every eye to strain itself in the direction of the Aiguille Blaitiere."

Soldier of a Brilliant Frenchman.

Much interest is being manifested among the students in regard to the recent and strange case of the Governor of Louisiana. It is a case which has attracted the attention of the world...

A Letter From Daniel Webster to His Son.

A correspondent of the Boston Traveler gives extracts from a letter written by Daniel Webster to his son Edward, about the time the latter commenced his studies at Phillips' Exeter Academy, which school he himself at one time attended.

Edward Webster, Danl. Webster.

Sherman and the Mormons. Lieutenant General Sherman is reported as characterizing the Mormons as a set of religious fanatics. He asserts that what they have accomplished in Utah, in a great measure, overlooked thousands of acres of a salt lake, in the distant interior of a vast and almost trackless continent.
