RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The late commencement at the Theological Seminary at Andover, Massachusetts, was an occasion of much interest. Forty young men graduated. In connection with these exercises, the Alumni held their usual annual meeting. Instead of a special address or sermon, as customary in former years, questions were discussed that are addressing themselves with great force to the Christian thought of the world. We gather some thoughts from the Congregationalist on the topics discussed. The first was upon "Popular Amusements." Rev. Mr. Mead protested, in an essay of great power, against the idea that more abundant amusements are necessary. He assumed 1. Christians must assert the essential wickedness of all amusements which are enjoyed only by depraved taste. 2. They must caution against amusements which, if innocent possibly in themselves, are of evil from their associations and concomitants. 3. They must studiously avoid denouncing as wicked those which are neither right or wrong, while, 4th, they must take care to assert the truth that needless and excessive devotion to amusements in themselves innocent is wrong. Dr. E. Beecher, when the question was thrown open for general discussion, thought there existed necessity for meeting this question of amusement. He favored the idea of an ideal character, until enthusiasm is awakened. Its pursuit will thus be the highest pleasure and sensual pleasures will be abandoned. The next topic was, "Is it desirable for pastors to preach more than one sermon on a Sunday." An essay in the affirmative was read by Rev. Mr. Rankin in which he brought forward and answered the following objections: 1. "The unity of the impression is destroyed by two sermons." 2. "Two sermons a Sunday will kill the minister." 3. "The people have not strength to hear two sermons a day and profit by them." 4. "With one sermon there will be more and better Bible study." Having disposed of these various objections, he argued in favor of two sermons: 1. It will secure the better observance of the Lord's day. 2. More hearers will be accommodated. Some cannot attend if there is only one sermon. 3. It is the only way of maintaining our denominational position. Other churches will be open and we shall gradually lose our congregations. 4. Two sermons a day are essential to preserve the pre-eminence of the New England pulpit. Rev. Mr. Barbour then read an essay in favor of one sermon on Sunday, arguing: 1. In order to give proper time for pastoral duties he should be spared the second sermon. The making of one is a full week's work. 2. It is due also to the people. They need something good. They have not time to hear and digest more than one. 3. The truth itself demands but one discourse of a Sunday. It will prove more effective if compacted and sharpened by a week's labor on each sermon, than if two verbose and emasculated discourses are preached.

A correspondent of the Liberal Christian giving an account of his trip West to New England, in passing through New Jersey, utters a doleful complaint of the state of religion "down in Jersey." He represents the land wholly given over to idolatry, because not a single Unitarian Church or minister is to be found between Philadelphia and New York, and but one or two feeble Universalist ceniers. He thinks a terrible weight of superstition rests upon the land; the old bitter metaphisics of Princeton oppresses the heart, blunts the conscience, or provokes the contempt of the people. The New York Christian Advocate suggests that the Unitarians should support one home missionary in New Jersey in addition to the (only one,) Foreign Missionary, Rev. Mr. Dall, in India.

Hon. N. B. Judd, the distinguished Republican Representative in Congress for the Chicago district, has given Rev. F. S. De Hass, pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist Episcopal Church, Washington City, D. C., one thousand dollars in order to secure a "Chicago Memorial Window" in that elegant structure.

During the late camp meeting at Sing Sing, New York, from two hundred and fifty to three hundred professed conversion. At the love feast, on Thursday morning week, the day the meeting closed, three hundred and eighty persons spoke within the space of an hour and a half.

The Richmond Dispatch represents the ministry of the Northern Methodist Church as no better than horse thieves or bounty jumpers, and that this is the verdict of nine-tenths of the people of Virginia. "The people," it says, "cordially detest the whole concern—Bishops, preachers and horse stealers, (if this class does not include the other classes). Yet these Radical parsons force themselves upon an unwilling people for political purposes, and not only steal the livery of the court of heaven to serve the devil in, but would, if they could, steal the churches themselves." No better evidence could be given of the necessity of sending missionaries to this benighted land than the foregoing. No wonder poor, blighted Virginia is behind the other recently reconstructed States of the South.

Rev. A. M. Stewart, formerly, we believe, pastor of a United or Reformed Presbyterian Church in this city, and Chaplain of Gen. Rowley's regiment, reports in the American Presbyterian, a Sacramental meeting at Austin, Nevada, at which Presbyterians, Methodists, Lutherans, Episcopalians and Baptists sat down together at the table of the Lord. The service was conducted in the Methodist Episcopal Church, the only one in the place. It was a delightful scene of Christian union.

The American Congregational Union during the last year has done more to assist feeble churches to obtain places of worship than any year preceding. Grants of money have been paid, the past year, to seventy churches, and pledged to thirty-eight more; while a long list of additional applicants were laid over to the beginning of the present year.

The Protestant Churchman requests its correspondents to refrain from using the phrase "the Church," as it is a "part of the numerous progeny of High Church Popery." The editors desire that "Evangelical men will cease to use it in their writings," and use instead "our Church," or "the Episcopal Church."

That notorious character Henry Clay Dean has written a book upon the "Crimes of the War." The Baltimore Christian Advocate (Southern Methodist) gives it three columns of laudation. But that Advocate eschews politics!

Twenty-five new churches will be commenced or completed this year in Chicago, at a cost of a million of dollars. The Detroit Tribune says: "We know of no place on the continent that needs them more." To which the Christian Advocate retorts, "Chicago has the grace to feel the need of them. Her rapid immigration warrants the need and the supply."

The corner stone of the Chapel of the Divinity School of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Massachusetts, was laid in Cambridge, with impressive ceremonies by Bishop Eastburn, recently. The building will be the gift of Robert Mason, Esq., of Boston. It will be of the Gothic order of architecture, cruciform in shape, and with tower, spire, and east and west porches. The capacity of the building will reach nearly five hundred sittings.

A new Baptist Church, composed of colored persons, was recently organized in the usual manner, in Adrian, Michigan. It is to be known as the "Second Baptist Church of Adrian."

It is noteworthy, the universal regret expressed by religious journals of the different denominations, at the death of the venerable "Apostle of Temperance," Rev. Dr. John Marsh, recently deceased. The Christian Advocate, of New York, thinks few men have been more respected or more widely known throughout the country than Dr. Marsh. Enthusiastic in his mission, catholic in spirit, welcoming any laborer in the great field, and readily seizing upon any new phase of the temperance reformation, his name will remain inseparably connected with the history of the cause in all future time.

THE SPANISH FEVER, which now prevails so fatally among the cattle brought on to the north from Texas, it is asserted, was observed fourteen years ago. In the spring and summer of 1854, when Texas cattle were first brought into Illinois, it is stated that a disease broke out among the droves, resembling yellow fever in the human race, and proved so contagious that all along the track where they traveled the farmers lost a great portion of their stock in a few days. So serious was the damage that the people of Southwestern Missouri held meetings and took measures to forcibly prevent the passing of any more Texas cattle through the country. It is not stated when or how this particular epidemic of 1854 disappeared, but the circumstances attending it have created a general impression at the West that the existing disease is also imported from Texas.

THE Indian troubles in Western Kansas are becoming terribly serious. They threaten to exterminate the settlements on all the rivers and creeks in that region. Women and children are fleeing to the towns for safety. They are reported to have defeated a detachment of soldiers. Governor Crawford is organizing and despatching militia to the relief of settlers.

THE Southwestern section of Iowa is scourged with the grasshopper plague. They swarm in myriads, literally devouring the young corn crop. At Glenwood and White Cloud the sun was obscured by moving swarms of grasshoppers on the 16th instant, and all the corn fields were alive with them.

PENNSYLVANIA, perhaps it is not generally known even within her own borders, has a greater length of railroad than any other State in the Union. In round numbers, she possesses four thousand miles to New York's three thousand, or one mile of rail to every square mile of her territory.

THE Treasury Department estimates that not more than $31,500,000 of Seven-thirties are outstanding, and that enough of that class will fail to be returned to pay the entire expense of issue.

☞ THE APPETITE FOR
Tobacco Destroyed!
Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.
One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be. ☞ IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.
NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!
RECOMMENDATIONS.
The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:
[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]
BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.
I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.
W. P. HEALD.
[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.
This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.
E. W. ADKINS.
[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]
BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.
This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

Car Heater and Moderator,
For SMOKE AND HOT AIR FLUES, dispensing with the use of Stoves and Fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached.
Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended, it is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues, or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to supply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, steamboats, railroad cars, &c., wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired. I will sell, on application, rights to manufacture or to use the above invention; also, territorial rights, to such as may wish to engage in selling privileges, either by State or county.
