RIVER NEWS. The river is about stationary at this point, while the weather is warm and pleasant through the day, and cool at night. The Argosy, Capt. Lew, Vandergrift, left Cincinnation Monday morning for Kana-wha river, with two model barges in tow, o bring out 500 tuns railroad iron for the Henderson and Edgefield road. In charging the Grand Jury in the United States District Court, yesterday morning, Judge McCandless stated that he had received a communication from the Board of Local Inspectors of this port, complaining of the manner in which the boats of the rival lines of Monongahela river packets were run, and the obstructions c to navigation thereby. The Inspectors re-ferred to the fact that on one occasion the locks at Dam No. 1 were obstructed for several hours, and stated that such proceedings were not uncommon. They also seedings were not uncommon. They also stated that passengers were placed in im minent danger in consequence of the prac-tice of racing which was daily indulged in. Judge McCandless read the letter of the Judge siccardiess read the letter of the Instectors, and commented at some length. He referred to the laws governing the naviagtion of the rivers, and also to the risks which passengers were forced to assume by the officers of the boats in the efforts to break down competing lines. He instructed the Grand Jury to make a careful insurer that make a careful insurer than the state and to make ful inquiry into the matter, and to make the law, they might deem proper to remove the cause of complaint. -The Edinburg has laid up at Marietta on account of low water. -Capt. Anawalt, of the Wild Duck Barges, is at Cincinnati having repairs made. -Captain W. D. Phillips left Louisville Upper Mississippi above the Sycamore chain of the coffer dam at Rock Island, be cause the pilots fear they cannot get them through the raft channel. The Davenport Gazette save the steamer Enterprise makes the channel every day "with tons of freight.

—Capt. Henry Shillito, formerly of the Alabama River packet Jewess, has contracted with Madison builders for a steamer for the Alabama River. She will be 170 feet long, 33 feet beam, 30 feet floor, 5½ feet hold. She will have three boilers and two engines, with twenty-inch cylinders. two engines, with twenty-inch cylinders, five and a half feet stroke.

—Captain Asbury of the Andy Johnson was heard to say, at all events John Goll says so, that if the Phil. Sheridan ever sucsays so, that if the Pull. Sheridan ever suc-ceeded in passing his boat under way, he would debase himself by raking coal at Quincy. The aforesaid Go I informs us of the sequel, that the feat of passing under way was done at Rhode's Point, during the last run of the boats, and that Morris, the Quincy coalman, has ready for the delicate hands of Asbury a rake embelished with a white collar .- St. Louis Democrat.
