The religious ex-erclases were under the immediate direction of Rev. Dr. Dempsey, within whose district the ground is located. The Doctor brought into reputsition big entered coversions to the nation's hero and saviour, U.S. Grant. This election was as important as was the fight between rebels and loyal men in for-mer days. The present contest was samply a continuation of the same fight. If to days you find a man whose record shows him to have been a 'febel,' a man who march, ed. in the 'ranks. of those who en-deavored to destroy 'on 'government,' a man who was engaged in shooting down our friends and bothers, you will find that same man encolled in the ranks of those who now them londing the Sawpoon the nation's hero and saviour, U.S. Grant. the ground is located. The Doctor brought into regulation his enlarged experience in such matters, and everything passed off, quite successfully. Dr. Dempsey is now in his fourth term of office, of four years each, consecutively, and is regarded a fine pre-isiding officer. Christ Church is the leading congregation in his district. There were about sixty tents occupied. Being nuusa-ally large, they afforded accommodations for a great many persons. The meeting was favored with fine weather, and good order generally prevailed. those who now cheer loudly for Seymour and Blair. But their cheers are, all in vain. The lovers of their country, those who perilled their lives in its defence, those who gave up their treasures to support it. will see to it that the banner of loyalty and human rights—the banner borne by Grant and Colfax—is carried forward too glorious victory. On motion of Mr. Eggers, the thanks of the meeting were tendered to the speaker for his able and eloquent address.

A Veteran. Mr. SIMON DUNN, of Erie, Pennsyivania summoned hither as a juryman in the U. S.

District Court, called at our office on Wednesday. Mr. Dunn is 87 years old. He emigrated from New Jersey to Meadville in Crawford county, in 1797. In June of that year, he passed through what was a mere of a text book for politicians of both schools, the leading articles having been prepared with much care and research, and with a view to accuracy and reliability. This edition is thoroughly political in its both an attic. vast extent and wealth of this city, reached in his own life time. Such enor ous 'results from beginnings so small and in a per riod so brief are peculiar to America. Mr. Dunn remembers that he was ferried across the Allegheny by James Robinson, father of of the late General William Robinson, reported to be the first white native of the territory north of the Allegheny. Mr. Dunn removed to Erie in 1810, where we made is acquaintance about ten years afterwards. In the frontier troubles of 1812, 18 Mr. D. was frequently employed as scout or mes.

senger. In this capacity he was useful to Commodore Perry while his fleet was being prepared at Presque Isle. In the fall of 1818; after the memorable naval engagement on the lake, Mr. Dunn with a select crew of seven men went off in a row boat and captured the British schooner Phoenix with hirteen men, and brought the prize into edge that Mr. Dunn was for all the years of his middle life a man of remarkable in dustry and energy. We hope his present health and vigor of mind and body may be vouchsafed to the end of the century? Mr. Dunn is, as such men necessarily area good Republican.

Arrest of an Alleged Thief.

A Good Idea.—We noticed yesterday hand-bills posted on some of the mail boxes requesting correspondents to use stamper envelopes and have their mail matter di rected to the number and places of res dence. This, if carried out, would save the Postoffice clerks considerable labor, besides ensuring the safe and prompt delivery of all mail matter throughout the city.

Lawrence Pic Nic.-The first annual pic nic of the Lawrence Fire Company, which takes place at Iron City Park to-day, will, doubtless, be a grand affair. The Lawrence Company is composed of men who are gentiemen in every sense of the word, and from the names published as committee of Arrangements we have not begitting in any arrangemen's we have no hesitancy in saying the affair will be a complete success.

Assault and Battery.-Charles Kochl made information before Justice Ammon, yesterday, charging Henry Gamworth with assault and battery. Kochi alleges that the defendant attacked his son, Charles Kochi, a boy about twelve years of age, and beat and abused him anamefully. The parties, reside in East Birmingham. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused

A Delinquent,-Mrs. Mary Leod made two informations before Alderman Land-may, yesterday, against her husband, James Leod. She alleges that the defendant has abandoned her, refusing to do anything for the sumper and that on "Incedus proving her support, and that on Tuesday he came to her dwelling and made threats against her life. He was arrested and committed to jail on each charge.

Money Lost .-. John Witthauer, a German, who boards at Sweinheart's tavern, in the Ninth ward, lost a pocket book containing $520 Saturday night. He had been sitting on the cellar door in front of the house during the evening, and while there fell ssleep. About ten o'clock he awoke and retired to his bed, but cannot say whether he had his money with him or not. He has heard nothing of it since.

Embezzlement.-F. Kramer made infor-mation before the Mayor yesterday, charg-ing George Carlton with embezzlement. Carlton was at one time an inmate of the "Home for the Friendless," on Penn'stree from whence he was employed by Mr. Kramer, who is in the insurance business. He alleges that Carlton has been collecting premiums due on policies, and appropriat-ing the money to his own use.

An 'Establishment' Broken up.

The residents of First alley in the Third ward, Allegheny have been very much samoyed of late by the carouasis and shines of a party of colored males and females, who have made the house of a sable child of Africa, named Mrs. Williams, a readeryous. It seems that several days since the propri-etess was sent to fall for some offence. In the meantime, it's said that her friends, not all mournful as her unfortunate, position, have been faving "a good time." as one of them expressed if. A Severe Fall-A Boy Injured. A boy named Hamill, son of Mr. Hamill, residing on the Beaver Road, Allegheny. met with a serious accident on Tuesday afternoon, the consequences of which may be fatal. Some men were engaged in sink-ing a well on the premises and young Hamill was assisting them. While work-ing around the opening he lost his balance and fell in, striking with terrible force the ground at the bottom of the well, which was thirty feet deep. He was removed as speedily as possible and Dr. Herron called Ju; His injuries are of a severe character, and he lies at his home in a very precarious condition.
