'istrates.'' An examination of the official record, fice, shows that Mayor Blackmore, up to this date, has returned to Court but one hundred and twenty-nine informations since he came into office on the first of February last. This leaves eight hundred and seventy-one to be accounted for. We learn from good authority that not over five per cent. of the informations received ever come to Court.

Panegyric on Thad. Stevens.

The Lancaster Express says the tribute of Dr. Burrowes to the memory of a valued friend, was such as could be paid only after a long and intimate acquaintance. The life of Mr. Stevens was traced from childhood to manhood, then through fils public career as a lawyer at the bar, a prominent politician, a member of the State Legislamany facts were elicited which are not generally known. The leading features of his character were brought out by apt illustration and anecdote. We hope to see this paper published, as it will do much, we be-lieve, towards giving the public a truerides than is generally entertained, not only of the statesman, but raise of the man Thad-

Secretary. WASHINGTON TOPICS AND GOSSIP.

General Rosecrans has succeeded in his mission to the leading Southern Generals. He has induced them to issue an address to the people setting forth their feelings upon public matters, giving their ideas of the true condition of the South, and advising the people lately in rebellion upon the proper course to persue in the future. General Rosecrans will bring this address with him to Washington, when it will be first read to the President and the Cabinet, and he thinks it will be productive of ex-cellent results, both North and South. He satisfied with the present state of affairs, and entirely anxious for a permanent peace in the future, even at a sacrifice of some of their fundamental rights for the time being.

The President has pardoned a number of soldiers imprisoned a deserter during the found a majority of the Southern Generals soldiers imprisoned as deserters during the war, who have served out a portion of their Commissioner Rolline has partly, agreed to compromise with Secretary McGulloch in regard to the app intment of Superviagra under the new tax law, by naming twelve Democrats and thirteen Republicans twelve Democrats and thirteen Republicans for the positions. This will probably result in the immediate app' it finent of these officers, and them we shall have the new bill in full operation at once. It has been decided that Congress is to meet next month, and the preparations for that event are goin; forward rapidly. The pressure from the South was too heavy for the Northern repre entaities.

It is said Judge 'Advocate General Holt has decided against allowing a court martial in the case of General Dyer, Chief of Ordnance, in consequence of the fact that saye at years have elapsed since the crimes charged against Dyer occurred. The lat-
