The man-agers had been at considerable expense to prepare a feast of good things, from which they expected to realize enough to hand-somely reimburse them for their trouble to have been received with great favor, and accordingly every train leaving the Allegheny station during the day for the grounds was filled with the friends of the "Greys," which made the attendance unusually large.

All went smoothly enough until towards the dinner hour when some of the "mud large," of the calered freternity varying on larks" of the colored fraternity arrived on the grounds, evidently bent on mischief. They had not been present very long before their spirit of maliciousness manifested itself, and caused a considerable disturbance. During this melee the tables were overturned, and amid the crashing of dishes, the destruction of dainty articles of food and refreshment, and the noisy tu mult of angry rowdvism, the managers saw with sad consternation the fading away of all their bright anticipations of financial success. Quiet at length was restored, and the festivities proceeded for some time longer. About three o'clock in the afterlonger. About three o'clock in the alter-noon the disturbers were reinforced by a fresh delegation from the city, which was the signal for the renewal of hostilities. This time the combat became more general, and sticks, stones, clods, razors, bayonets and pistols played a prominen

During this second melee the colored barber, Samuel Bell, received a severe gash in the abdomen with a razor, wielded by another member of the tonsorial profession named Johnson, who, in return, was wounded and pretty badly bruised by his opponent, who carried a sword. Others of the participants also carried from the grounds sore heads, arms, and bruises in all parts of their bodies, as remembrances of the interesting occasion.

The conflict was brought to a termina tion by mutual consent, all seeming to be satisfied at what had been done, and most of them being too nuch exhausted to continue it further. At the hearing last evening they gathered from all portions of the city and congregated around the Mayor's office, a crowd of excited and very talkative indi-viduals, each of whom seemed to have some particular mark of the conflict to exhibit on his person. Most of them, however, according to their own statements, were peaceful but unfortunate spectators of the Several witnesses were examined, after which the case was postponed for a further hearing this afternoon at two e'clock.

TO BUYERS OF TEA.

C. A. BOUCHER,

Original Red Front Tea Warehouse.

The undersigned would respectfully call the attention of buyers of Tens to the inconsistent and false statements made by the BOCUS TEA COMPANIES of the presnt day. Men with scarcely sufficien knowledge of Tes to distinguish Black from Green are advertising themselve as the Great Tea Companies of the country, and claim to sell the best Teas at from 80c. to $1.25 per ib. More apparentalschood and misrepresentation was never published.

To prove the outrageous nature of such claims it is only necessary to refer to published reports of daily Auction Sales of Teas, by the cargo, in the great market of New York, at which fine Teas cannot be bought for less than from $1.50 to $1.90 per lb.

Another active means of fraud in Tea Stores is in giving SHORT WEIGHT instead of 16 OUNCES FOR A POUND.

In this way many buyers are misled into the be-lief that they are purchasing goods at a reasonable cost, when, in fact, they are, by these means, swin-died into paying excessive prices. The undersigned will give a for each and every care of short weight of tea, or other goods, as weighed on his rested coales.

ASPA descriptive Catalogue and Price List of Teasto be had on application. C. A. BOUCHER.
