NATIONAL President—ULYSSES S. GRANT. Vice President—SCHUYLER COLFAK.

At Large: G. MORRISON COATES, of Philadelphia.

District: W. H. BARNES, of Philadelphia.

State: Auditor General—J. F. HARTMAN.

District: Congress, 22d Dist.—JAS. S. NEGLLEY.

County: State Senate—JAMES L. GRAHAM.

City: Mayor—JARED M. BRUSH.

Headquarters Republican County Committee.

We print on the inside pages of this morning's Gazette—Second Page: The Gannett's Wife and Other Choice Reading Matter.

East of the Alleghenies the Republicans are doing yeoman service in the cause, and everything looks hopeful.

GENERAL ROSECRANS must feel heartily ashamed of himself for the part he played in the late rebel conclave at White Sulphur Springs, Virginia.

MUCH DISSATISFACTION exists amongst the subjects of BARRAGAN, YORVO, and deersons are quite frequent.

WHEAT the government proposed ornamenting the currency of the country with the medallion portraits of living public men.

THE MEMPHIS Post, announcing the death of a man who "made the first speech in Memphis made by a pretended colored Democrat," states that in his last hours he admitted to his clerical man that "he was always Radical at heart; always secretly voted that no colored man who loved his people could be anything else, and that he only pretended his Democracy to save himself from punishment."

BIRMINGHAM TO-NIGHT.

There will be a grand rally of the friends of GRANT and COLFAK, at the Market Square, in Birmingham, to-night.

HON. JOHN SHERMAN.

This distinguished Senator will speak on Monday, September 8th, either in Pittsburgh or Allegheny City, as may hereafter be determined.

SEYMOUR, BLAIR AND BLACKMORE?

"Why don't you arrest that man who is attempting to provoke a breach of the peace?" asked a citizen of a policeman, when, last Monday afternoon, an intoxicated man was parading up and down Fifth street.

Stones were thrown at several points, on our torchlight processions the same evening, and all over the city there were indications of a riotous disposition to interrupt the Republican proceedings.

When Republicans are invited to sign a "call" upon the Mayor to be a candidate for re-election in this Republican and Union-loving city, we suggest to them to consider that it is an invitation to a political partnership with the black-guards who are allowed to disturb the Republican meetings.

Who are the bondholders? MR. JAY COOKE, who had charge of the sales of bonds, says:

Number of bonds of $100,000,000, 1,743,300. Number of bonds of $50,000,000, 250,000. Number of bonds of $25,000,000, 100,000.

Among the very useful documents which have been circulated by the Republican Congressional Committee, since the opening of the canvass, none is found to be more effective than their "Life and Services of General Grant."

THE MEMPHIS Post, announcing the death of a man who "made the first speech in Memphis made by a pretended colored Democrat," states that in his last hours he admitted to his clerical man that "he was always Radical at heart; always secretly voted that no colored man who loved his people could be anything else, and that he only pretended his Democracy to save himself from punishment."

THE DISTURBANCE OF MEETINGS.

The recent and systematic insults and outrages perpetrated upon Republican meetings, in the city and suburban boroughs, demand the careful consideration of good citizens of both parties.

The Universer of Philadelphia, said to be the oldest Catholic paper in the United States, unlike the dignified Catholic of this city, devotes considerable space to advocating the Democratic ticket in a style of extravagant language which surely cannot be palatable to Republican members of the Church.

Our neighbor of the Post desires to know that the President and Secretary of the Treasury (both of whom support SEYMOUR and BLAIR) are doing for the six per cent of 1848, now matured. The Post should apply to its friends at Washington for the official information.

Religious Intelligence. We glean from the statistical report of the condition of the United Presbyterian Church for the year ending May, 1868, that the aggregate membership of the Church is sixty-five thousand six hundred and twelve.

Editors GAZETTE.—The editor of the Post says that "we can solemnly promise (Grow) that no man who votes for Seymour will make war if Seymour is elected, and that the colored Democrats of the South who vote for Seymour will, we have no doubt, sign a paper promising to make no war whether they elect their candidate or not."

The Roman Catholic Church in the Archdiocese of New York has recently contributed for the Pope, twenty-seven thousand three hundred and sixty-one dollars thirty cents.

The Allegheny Theological Seminary (O. S.) will open on September 14th. The opening address will be delivered by Prof. Wilson.

The next session of the Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist (Protestant) Church, will be held at New Brighton, Pa., on the 2d day of September.

Bishop Tuttle, of Montana, assigns as a reason for declining the Episcopate of the Missouri Diocese, that his youth and inexperience warns him against assuming the responsibility of a field so great and so ripe upon the harvest, and that he believes it his duty to remain where the Church has called him.

In view of the time for taking up in the various Presbyterian Churches, the collection for the support of disabled ministers of that Church, best Fund has published some interesting facts in regard to the workings of the Society, from which we learn that in 1857, when the first records were made, there were only applications for aid, during that year from two ministers and six widows.
