Mr. Lucas, on commencing his remarks, complimented the Republicans of the Fourth ward on their large and enthusian-tic gathering, and the spirit of activity and energy with which they seemed to be ani-mated. He proposed not to tread over the whole ground of the discussion now en-gaging the attention of the loyal people of the Union, but he wished simply to talk to them a short time on one issue which seemed to be the chief hobby of at least one of the parties asking for the suffrage of the people of our enlightened nation-that was the greenback and bond question. The gentleman then entertained the audi-ence for nearly an hour, in a logical and ence for nearly an hour, in a logical and eloquent discussion of this question show-ing that it was a side issue of he Demo-ing that it was a side issue of he Democratic party. Young Lady Dangerously Injured. The Saengerfest-Illuminate.-Hang out your flags in honor of the opening of the Saengerfest on Monday evening. Pittock, opposite the Postoffice, has an ixexhausti-ble supply of flags and lanterns of all sizes and styles suitable, for house decoration. A young lady named Maria Hogan was dangerously if not fatally injured by being struck on the head with a brick, which was toppled from the wall of Booth's buildings, now in course of erection on the corner of Liberty and Hay streets. The top of the head was laid open in a large gash, large enough to lay a finger in. She was conveyed to her home in Spring alley, Tweifth ward, and Dr. Dickson called in, who after an examination discovered that
