The Pittsburgh Gazette.

LETTER FROM OMAHA.

The following extracts we take from a private letter written by a former Pittsburger, now in Omaha, Nebraska:

OMAHA, August 28, 1868.

I have been placed under many obligations to friends for the receipt of several copies of your valuable and interesting paper, for which I desire to return my thanks. Did you know with what satisfaction it is read by the representatives of the Smoky City in Omaha, I am sure it would give you equal pleasure. Of another fact let me speak. We take pleasure in noting that since your visit to our city your paper appears more frequently, and is quoted considerably more by our Republican papers. I have recently noticed quite a number of extracts, and good sound Republican arguments, which are greatly helping the cause with us. When you passed through here the campaign had scarcely opened; but now we are red hot, and the fires are burning brightly all over the State. Not a day passes but what we have a demonstration somewhere in the county, and scarcely a week but we have a grand torchlight procession of the Tanners of Omaha, of which we have six companies, numbering about one thousand strong. This, of course, does not include the half or yet one-third of the Republican voters of the city. Our Tanners have made several excursions recently to Council Bluffs, Florence and Belleview, all of which, need I say, were successes. To-morrow night we have the demonstration of the campaign, and will give such a show as will show these Copperheads who claim the State how much they are mistaken. Every man is wide awake, and as Nebraska casts her maiden vote for Presidential candidates, everybody will be out and not a vote will be lost. From all parts of the State, which is being rapidly filled up by a foreign people, come the glad tidings that a majority of them are falling into the ranks of the Republican party. We will carry the State for Grant and Colfax by at least two thousand majority; this is reliable. One beautiful feature of the campaign in Nebraska is the fact that the young men are the most active and forward. As they were in 1861, so they are in 1868, true to the Union, and will have no other leaders but Grant and Colfax. With them there is no such word as fail; the Union must and shall be preserved.

Of other matters in our State I would say but little. The Union Pacific Railroad is marching with rapid strides towards the setting sun, and if "Old Sol" don't look out, Casement and his crew will be ahead of him and have to do their work by moonlight. I am reliably informed that the track is laid over eight hundred miles west of this place and still advancing at the rate of two and one half to three miles per diem.

Business in our city is very lively at present. Buildings are going up rapidly all over the city, and the inaction of a hot summer is being succeeded by a lively fall. Harvesting is over, and the plentiful crops have made glad the hearts of many farmers. The grasshopper pestilence, which has been doing so much damage in different sections of the West, did not reach Nebraska in time to do any great hurt, although they appeared in such numbers as to be beyond description, so I will not attempt it. In connection with the improvements going forward in this locality, I desire to say that the Government is about building barracks and quarters for a regiment of soldiers to be stationed at this point. The buildings and improvements are estimated to cost about two hundred thousand dollars. The citizens, with their usual generosity, have presented the United States with fifty acres of land for the purpose, and the work is to commence immediately.

There are many rumors on the streets to day of more Indian troubles, and from Cheyenne and Denver the reports come that they are again on the war path. I trust it is not so bad as reported, yet there seems to be but little doubt that these demons in human shape have again broken their faith with the Government and are at their barbarous work. Great excitement prevails and I should not be surprised at any moment to hear that some of the frontier settlements were sacked and burnt. There have been some changes of railroad officials on the Union Pacific recently. Among the appointments I notice that of J. N. Campbell, Esq., as Superintendent of the Laramie Division. He is an old Pittsburgher, and his many friends will be pleased to hear of his success.

A party of gentlemen from your city passed through here a day or two ago on a pleasure trip to the mountains. It consisted of Dr. Baelz, J. P. Henderson, Esq., of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, Hon. J. H. Hopkins, R. M. Cust, Esq., and Prof. Gilson. They did not remain in Omaha long, but in all probability will on their return.

Well, I guess I have about tired you out, and so will close. Yours, &c.,

C. F. H.

A Fearful Scene.

Mr. Robert Heath, one of the principal coal and iron masters in North Staffordshire, lately celebrated the coming of age of his eldest son, by giving an entertainment to between 4000 and 5000 persons, at which nine hundred bottles of wine and 2,340 gallons of ale were consumed. The drunken orgies which marked the affair were most disgraceful. One reverend gentleman, noisy, wandering he knew not whither, hatless, and fighting with his friend and neighbor, was tumbled out of the pavilion. A gentleman of the press was discovered among the helpless at five in the morning in a field. Fights took place without number, and many men, women, boys and girls were seen helpless through drink, others reeling home, and numbers lying in the fields and lanes, dead drunk. Sixteen men, felled by drink, helpless and prostate, were counted within a radius of twenty yards, and scores scattered about, many bleeding, hatless, shoeless and coatless, incapable of movement or speech.

An Intrepid Fireman.

A compositor, his wife and three children were burned alive one Saturday night, in Rue Saint Antoine, the most populous district in Paris, and in presence of thousands of excited people. The fire originated from the sparks of a candle, setting fire to a basket filled with straw and eggs. All the lodgers to the fourth story were saved, and by the superhuman efforts of a fireman—Thibault—ten occupants of the other stories were rescued. He performed feats that put Leotard and Blondin into the shade. He rushed into a room almost in flames, strapped an old woman aged eighty on his back, climbed by hands and feet from window sill to window sill, till his frail ladder was reached. On reaching the humble abode of the compositor—there lay the infant a carbonized mass in its little metal cradle—a brother and sister in each other's arms beside the half consumed remains of their parents.

SARATOGA.

Extraordinary Revelations—An Inside View of a Fashionable Belle—How the Grecian Bend is Produced.

* * * The nights are, more absolutely than they ever were, devoted to follies the most fascinating, and exhibitions of fashionable manners and attire so absurd, that it would seem as if the tailors and modistes had conspired together this season to play a monstrous joke upon their patrons. Perhaps the dandies are worth less notice than ever. The difference between a fop and a gentleman in the United States is happily wide enough to render it impossible that any sane person should ever confound the two. But the difference between a female popinjay and a lady is here defined by such a curious and vulgar set of peculiarities appertaining to the former person, that I cannot forbear to describe them. In the first place, a toilet is affected, which of itself suffices to turn a woman in full dress into a caricature. The body and waist of the dress are remarkable in only one respect—the last is exceedingly tight, and the former rather loose at the top and exceedingly low. It is below the waist that what is monstrous in the costume first attracts and then repels the eyes of man. A hoop of moderate dimensions, overspread with an underskirt or two, and a dress of whatever fabric are worn. Underneath the rear of this hoop, just below the waist of the person designated, is bound a coil of wire from two to three inches in diameter, which "throws out" and elevates the upper portion of the dress behind, and forms the foundation, so to speak, of an exterior protuberance called the panier. The panier is a bustle, more or less enormous, upon which, in successive folds or layers gathered up, or confined by a band encircling the dress from the stomach of the wearer around and beneath, an extra skirt, reaching just below the posterior, hangs, or rather "wobbles" to and fro. The dress has a train from four to six feet in length.

The posture affected in order to set off this attire is called the "Grecian Bend," a contortion of the body which, as it is highly improper in itself, I find it difficult to prescribe with propriety. High-heeled shoes dispose the wearer to incline forward, and high-heeled gaiters are therefore adopted by the "belle of the season." She is thus the more readily enabled to elevate her hips unnaturally behind, enhancing the aspect of the panier, to contract her stomach, and to form an S-like curvature of her upper shape by thrusting out her chest, drawing back her shoulders and bending forward her head. The latter is crowned by a hideous chignon, surpassing, by several inches, the thickness of the shallow pether brain. So bent and deformed, the belle constrains her elbows against her sides, and, with horizontal forearms and little gloved hands dangling from limp wrists, tilts painfully along. The profile of such a figure, and its ungraceful gait, are irresistibly suggestive of a lame kangaroo. When it is whirled and tossed about in a dance, one of the fashionable jumping-jacks in black broadcloth who are here so numerous, and so much alike that you can hardly tell one from another, the sight—what with the bobbing up and down of the woman's panier, and the agile sidelong leaps of the jumping-jack across the immense trail piled on the floor—is too exasperatingly ridiculous for laughter.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE APPETITE FOR

Tobacco Destroyed!

Leave off Chewing and Smoking the Poisonous Weed, Tobacco.

One box of ORTON'S PREPARATION IS WARRANTED to destroy the appetite for tobacco in any person, no matter how strong the habit may be, or IF IT FAILS IN ANY CASE THE MONEY WILL BE REFUNDED. It is almost impossible to break off from the use of tobacco by the mere exercise of the will. Something is needed to assist nature in overcoming a habit so firmly rooted; with the help of the preparation there is not the least trouble. Hundreds have used it who are willing to bear witness to the fact that ORTON'S PREPARATION completely destroys the appetite for tobacco and leaves the person as free from any desire for it as before he commenced its use. It is perfectly safe and harmless in all cases. The Preparation acts directly upon the same glands and secretions affected by tobacco, and through these upon the blood, thoroughly cleansing the poison of tobacco from the system, and thus allaying the unnatural cravings of tobacco.

NO MORE HANKERING FOR TOBACCO AFTER USING ORTON'S PREPARATION! RECOLLECT IT IS WARRANTED. BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS!

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

(From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.)

BANGOR, Me., April 26, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

(From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.)

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation, having it to be all that it is recommended, and I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

(From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.)

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not have the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

This Company, National in its character, offers by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life yet presented to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which are not only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income, equivalent in ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par amount of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

Circulars, Pamphlets and full particulars given on application to the Branch Office of the Company in Philadelphia, or its General Agents.
