The Pittsburgh Gazette.

AFFAIRS IN TENNESSEE.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The Chronicle, of Friday evening last, contains a lengthy letter from Nashville, signed "W. L.," in which the writer, who claims to be a "reliable gentleman," formerly a citizen of Pittsburgh, gives a doleful account of the many grievances which, as it would appear, his oppressed white brethren of Tennessee are compelled to endure at the hands of their cruel (?) black fellow-citizens. As I have but recently returned from a three years' residence in Tennessee and North Alabama, of which one year was spent at Nashville, I claim to be somewhat familiar with the general situation in that section; and, although at a less momentous political crisis, I should feel disinclined to raise a question as to the veracity of "W. L.," I may here say that I have seldom seen a column and a half of a respectable journal prostituted to so base a use as the publication of this miserable batch of slanderous fabrication from the "reliable gentleman" at Nashville. It will be noticed that "W. L." advertises himself as a convert from a Radical to a rebel Democrat, and that he gives us plainly to understand that he wishes now to be regarded as a Northern man with Southern principles; i. e., a willing tool in the hands of the "chivalric master race" of the South. But let us look at the pretended facts contained in the communication.

When "W. L." says "the entire political power" in Tennessee is in the hands of the negroes, he simply does not tell the truth. He either has not read the franchise law, or has made misstatements purposely. By reference to the law as it now stands upon the statute books, it will be seen that, in addition to the 55,000 white men of Tennessee, who are originally Union men, and who voted against the ordinance of secession, several large classes of rebels are allowed to vote; so that of the 150,000 white men who voted in that State before the war, not more than 30,000 are now (temporarily) disfranchised, and they the most malignant and bitter rebels to be found in the whole South. Take, for example, the municipal election at Memphis, the chief city of the State, last fall. If all the political power is in the hands of the negroes will "W. L." please inform us how the white Democrats in that city managed last fall to elect their candidate for Mayor, the negroes voting, almost to a man the Republican ticket, in that election? Then the Democrats of Tennessee were making a square, stand-up-fight, without calling to their aid bands of Ku-Klux cutthroats, as they are doing this fall, and the result in Memphis was that they won by reason of numerical superiority.

The Chronicle correspondent takes the Tennessee legislature in hand and "analyses" it very severely. Still, notwithstanding the searching chemical process to which he has subjected that body, I have great hopes that it will be able to gather together its constituent parts and go on about as usual. The legislature of Tennessee is made up of as able and patriotic men as can be found in any State in the Union. More earnest and wiser statesmen than Hon. W. D. Senter, Colonel Bouson, and General W. J. Smith, who come respectively from East, Middle and West Tennessee, are no often found in our legislative councils. That the members of that body, are to any extent poverty-stricken political aspirants, is not true. Though many have lost heavily by their fidelity to the Union during the war, still I am personally acquainted with several who are worth from one hundred to three hundred thousand dollars, and many of the others I know to be men in comfortable circumstances.

From "W. L."s letter, we see that he has proven himself an apt pupil in the school of slaveholding chivalry, and he gives us fair evidence of the fact in the way in which he pitches into "the nigger;" for already has he learned that it is safest to attack those whom he believes unable to make any resistance, and who are not likely, in turn, to pull his nose or punch his head. To strike a man when he is down is regarded as unfair, but to strike a man whom another has knocked down, is justly considered the very acme of cowardice; and this is exactly what our reliable Pittsburgher has done. But, unfortunately for "W. L.," this time he has missed his reckoning, for there are men, both black and white, in this city as well as in Nashville, who know fuly that in the base slanders which he writes against a long oppressed and deeply injured people, he either knows not whereof he speaks or that he has wilfully and deliberately lied. I proceed to give facts.

First, in regard to Commissioners and taxation. Space will not permit me here to speak at length concerning the financial policy of Tennessee. Doubtless the people of that impoverished State feel the heavy taxation which is imperatively necessary to repair the damages within their borders, caused by the traitors who plunged the State into rebellion, but that the tax commissioners are generally ignorant and irresponsible men, is far from being true. The writer in question especially refers to Davidson county, (of which Nashville is the capital,) and informs us that one of the commissioners for that county is a "black man," and a "very ignorant one too." Now, I am personally acquainted with the man referred to, have known him for years, and I here take the liberty of giving his name and standing in Nashville, and for the truthfulness of my statement I will refer to the rebel General Cheatham, Gov. Brownlow, any of the Zollicoffer family, or to any leading rebel or Union man in Nashville. Mr. James H. Sumner, the "black commissioner," is the son of Wm Sumner, (also black,) who has lived in Nashville for forty years, and pays taxes on seventy-five thousand dollars worth of property; he owns a large livery stable and several fine dwelling houses in Nashville, besides one or two farms in an adjoining county. The son, James, is one of the most intelligent young men in that city, and has studied at Wilberforce University, Ohio, and also at Oberlin College. For clerical ability and general qualifications for the office he holds, I doubt much whether his superior could be found in Nashville. I am quite sure that "W. L." knows little or nothing about the "black Commissioner," or he would never have dared to say that about him, which every old citizen of Nashville knows to be utterly false. Either Jas. H. Sumner or his father could to-day give a check for twenty-thousand dollars, and as I have had business dealings with them, I know whereof I speak. Yet such men are termed by "W. L." "irresponsible and depraved niggers."

Now in regard to Ku-Klux-Klans terrorism and lawlessness. The "reliable gentleman" has not given us any more accurate information upon these than upon other topics. For any man to say that there is no such organization in the South as the Ku-Klux-Klan, is simply to write himself down as a fool or a falsifier; and that, too, when members of that organization have deserted it and published its constitution and by-laws and divulged some of the most important secrets; when their masked horsemen have paraded at midnight through the streets of nearly every village in Middle and West Tennessee, and when the uniform and systematic manner in which they commit their nocturnal depredations upon unoffending persons, has driven hundreds of Union men from the State, or to the larger cities for protection. Let me here give a few instances which I know to be true.

Mr. J. B. Dunlap, of Shelbyville, but a short time ago, was dragged from his bed at midnight, tied upon a horse, taken into the woods and beaten so badly that I have since learned that he died from his wounds. His offense was teaching a freedmen's school. I am personally acquainted with Mr. D., and I can say that a more quiet, modest, and inoffensive man could scarcely be found.

Gen. W. J. Smith, a prominent Union citizen of Memphis, and member of the Tennessee Legislature, has, within a month, been twice mobbed at Brownsville, Tenn., whither he had gone on private business, and barely escaped with his life.

T. J. White, a promising young colored man of Columbia, Tenn., who was educated at the North, and has been engaged in teaching at the above place, has been driven away from his home no less than three times inside of two months, by midnight prowlers who openly avowed themselves members of the Ku-Klux-Klan.

Just across the Tennessee line, in Lauderdale county, Alabama, an acquaintance of mine, Munroe Cain by name, two weeks ago was called to his door at midnight, and upon opening it was completely riddled with bullets by a band of the same ruffians. Cain's offense was voting the Republican ticket and counselling the freedmen to do the same.

Three weeks ago a gang of these masked scoundrels stopped the night train from Nashville near Columbia, Tennessee, and searched every car for Hon. S. M. Arnell, member of Congress from that district, a native Tennesseean, a wealthy planter and a cultivated gentleman.

And so I might go on and give a hundred instances of the same kind, all tending to prove that in many parts of Tennessee, and in the whole South, there is an organization whose aim is to terrify the negroes and, if possible, drive out white Union men, and that said organization is known, not only to its own members but to the people generally, by the name "Ku-Klux Klan."

And now a word in regard to Governor Brownlow and his administration. The only trouble with the "old Parson" is that he is a "hard nut," for the rebels and Copperheads to "crack." He understands better than most men what is necessary to suppress cut-throats and assassins, and, if I am not mistaken, we shall hear from him and his work in that direction ere long. "W. L." informs us that the Governor has lately turned loose from the penitentiary a horde of desperadoes, and that dire results have followed. I have by me some statistics bearing upon that point, and it will not be amiss to give them in this connection. During the last session of the Legislature of that State a committee was appointed to investigate the charges whereupon the inmates of the State prison at that time had been tried and convicted; and here we should remember that most of the prisoners then confined in the penitentiary had been sent there by rebel aourts, since the surrender. The committee faithfully performed their work, and among other cases reported the following:

B. Perry, sentenced for stealing one drink of whisky worth thirty cents; W. Pinn, an old shirt worth one dollar and fifty cents; J. Nash, an axe, two dollars; S. Deadrick, a bowl and butter, forty cents; W. Watts, seven pounds of meat, one dollar and seventy-five cents; T. Aden, one dollar; John Marfield, old pants, one dollar and seventy-five cents; J. Holsaw, two and a half pounds of Butter, seventy-five cents; J. K. Smith, four circus tickets.

The above are some of the cases in which Executive clemency was interposed. Comment is unnecessary.

And now, in conclusion, allow me to say that I firmly believe that "W. L." has been "bought with a price." Do the readers of the GAZETTE know what the rebel Democrats of the South are willing to pay a Northern man for just such letter to a Northern newspaper, and especially to a man having such antecedents as an "emancipationist," a "Unionist," and a "Radical" might be supposed to have? If not, I will tell them, as I have had offers of that kind. They are willing to pay about ten times as much for them as the New York Ledger pays Beecher or Greeley for their contributions, and whisky, oyster suppers and lionizing thrown in. I have been on the ground and "know the ropes." "W. L." only adds one more to the number whom I have seen yield to the persuasive and seductive influence of the almighty dollar and Southern blandishment. O. M. W.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

The following are a few selected from the multitude of recommendations in our possession:

[From W. P. Heald, Esq., Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., April 24, 1868.

I hereby certify that I have used tobacco for thirty years past, and for the last fifteen years I have used two pounds per month. I have made attempts to leave off at different times. I have left off one year at a time, but always continued to hanker for it until I used Orton's Preparation, which has completely cured me of the appetite for tobacco. I would recommend all who are affected with this terrible habit to try the preparation, which will certainly cure it if the directions are followed.

W. P. HEALD.

[From E. W. Adkins, Knoxville, Tenn.]

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., August 5, 1867.

This is to certify that I had used tobacco to such an extent that my health had become greatly impaired, and my whole system deranged and broken down. In June, 1867, I purchased one box of Orton's Preparation, and after using it I found that I was completely cured. I have not had any hankering or desire for tobacco since using the preparation. I believe it to be all that it is recommended, and I would advise all who wish to quit the use of tobacco to try one box of Orton's Preparation.

E. W. ADKINS.

[From John Morrill, Bangor, Me.]

BANGOR, Me., March 24, 1868.

This is to certify that I have used tobacco for eighteen years; have tried many times to leave off, but have suffered so much from a dizziness in my head, and gnawing at my stomach, that I have soon given up the trial. A short time since a friend induced me to try Orton's Preparation (sold by you.) I have done so, and am completely cured. I did not in the least hanker after tobacco, either to smoke or chew, after I began to use the Preparation.

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD.

700 MILES

OF THE

UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD

Are now finished and in operation. 160 miles of track have been laid this spring, and the work along the whole line between the Atlantic and Pacific States is being pushed forward more rapidly than ever before. More than twenty thousand men are employed, and it is not impossible that the entire track, from Omaha to Sacramento, will be finished in 1869 instead of 1870. The means provided are ample, and all that energy, men and money can do to secure the completion of this

GREAT NATIONAL WORK,

At the earliest possible day, will be done.

The UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY receive:

I.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right of way, and all necessary timber and other materials found along the line of its operations.

II.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, taken in alternate sections on each side of its road. This is an absolute donation, and will be a source of large revenue in the future.

III.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of United States Thirty-year Bonds, amounting to from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, according to the difficulties to be surmounted on the various sections to be built. The Government takes a second mortgage as security, and it is expected that not only the interest, but the principal amount may be paid in services rendered by the Company in transporting troops, mails, &c. The interest is now much more than paid in this way, besides securing a great saving in time and money to the Government.

IV.—A GOVERNMENT GRANT of the right to issue its own FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, to aid in building the road, to the same amount as the U. S. Bonds, issued for the same purpose, and no more. The Government permits the Trustees for the First Mortgage Bondholders to deliver the Bonds to the Company only as the road is completed, and after it has been examined by United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first-class Railroad, laid with a heavy T rail, and completely supplied with depots, stations, turnouts, carshops, locomotives, cars, &c.

V.—A CAPITAL STOCK SUBSCRIPTION from the stockholders, of which OVER EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS have been paid in upon the work already done, and which will be increased as the wants of the Company require.

VI.—NET CASH EARNINGS on its Way Business, that already amount to MORE THAN THE INTEREST on the First Mortgage Bonds. These earnings are no indication of the vast through traffic that must follow the opening of the line to the Pacific, but they certainly prove that upon such a property, costing nearly three times their amount, ARE SECURE BEYOND ANY CONTINGENCY.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS

The Union Pacific Bonds run thirty years, are for $1,000 each, and have coupons attached.
