The World and other Democratic journals at the East are giving a rumor that Judge MELLON, of this city, will vote for SEYMOUR and BLAIR.

The Hon. JOHN SEYMOUR will speak in Pennsylvania as follows: Sept. 8 " Blairsville.

That unimpeachable Democrat, Hon. S. E. COX—sometimes known as SURESET COX—writes from Maine that the Republicans will carry the State "by a reduced majority."

The apparent increase in the public debt for the past month, as shown by the official statement this morning, is $12,079,465.

Wanting in capacity to perform aright the duties of the office he holds, the Mayor is constrained to lean upon others.

When such things happen, it is useless to say the Mayor is honest, and amiable, and all that.

The entire real and personal property of the Empire State of New York has just been valued for taxation; the totals are respectively, real estate, $41,327,407,870; personal property, $498,695,258; aggregate, $41,776,680,140.

The attention of the Mayor has been called, on three or four occasions, to assaults made by his political friends upon Republican meetings and processions.

The game has been shrewdly played by the rebels, but there is reason to believe that it may yet be defeated.

LAST NIGHT.

Pittsburgh honored herself last night by the manner in which she put honor upon Mr. JOHN SEYMOUR and the Republican cause.

The orator labored under considerable hoarseness, the result of much speaking; but he handled every topic on which he touched admirably, eliciting the warmest applause from an audience which was fully in sympathy with the drift of his argumentation and appeals.

It is true he found the Republican warm-fires well lighted and brilliantly burning when he came here. He has the satisfaction of knowing, as he departs this morning, for further labors in this State, that he has added to the intensity of the glow and the purity of the light given forth from this Republican stronghold.

If there has been solicitude beyond the borders of this Commonwealth as to the result of our October election, there is none here. We shall beat the Democrats handsomely. We do not say this, as an intimation to Pennsylvania Republicans that they have no further work to do.

In venturing our prediction we count on their doing it. Our confidence should therefore be taken by them not as a license to repose, but as an incentive to increased vigilance and energy.

Exculation of the Mayor. It was our purpose, until full official investigation should be had, to make no further comments upon the arrest of Mrs. DARE; but the systematic attempt made by the friends of Mayor BLACKMORE to lift the responsibility from his shoulders, and place it upon those of officer RAUBER, constrain us to relinquish that determination.

The arrest was unquestionably made under general orders issued by the Mayor, applicable to particular portions of the city, and to those only.

The Mayor has stated on several occasions, within four weeks, to persons connected with this journal, that he had given such orders, and meant they should be enforced.

But there is another side to this case. We have been informed by gentlemen entitled to the utmost credit, that while the Mayor was enforcing this unwarrantably stringent rule in certain wards or squares of the city, he was allowing shameless women the most disreputable impunity in other localities; that when citizens had compelled arrests to be made of the offenders, they were back to their accustomed haunts, resuming their traffic before the complainants could get from the Mayor's office back to their own neighborhoods.

Now, we have never failed to give the Mayor credit for being a well-intentioned gentleman. His fault is not to be found in that direction. The fact is, his capacities are not up to the level of the position he occupies.

Meaning to do right, he has not the grasp of mind to enable him to determine what the right is, or how to get at it. He surely ought to comprehend that females have just as clear a right to be in the streets as men, and that any man who endeavors to prevent their using that liberty, is an offender, no matter whether he acts under the color of the law or not, provided always the persons interfered with are minding their own proper business.

Wanting in capacity to perform aright the duties of the office he holds, the Mayor is constrained to lean upon others.

When such things happen, it is useless to say the Mayor is honest, and amiable, and all that. If, superadded to those qualities, he had administrative abilities adequate to the place he is in, he would get along with greater credit to himself, and larger advantages to the city.

THE REBEL BLUNDER IN GEORGIA. When the rebels claimed a majority of the members elect of the Georgia Legislature, the claim was disputed, our friends relying more on the argument drawn from the decisive majority given for Gov. BULLOCK than from any exact knowledge of the facts as to the Legislative body.

The subsequent choice by this new Legislature of United States Senators, one of whom is known to be a supporter of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, afforded to our disappointed friends a partial revelation of the true state of things. The late action of the same body leaves no doubt that the rebel claim is fully substantiated, in their entire control of both branches.

We learn, therefore, without surprise, that, notwithstanding the tenor of the Reconstruction and Enabling Acts of Congress, and in violation of the new State Constitution itself, the rebel majority have commenced the work of purging each House of the colored members lawfully elected thereto.

All such members were expelled from the lower house last week, and the Senate will follow with similar action.

The game has been shrewdly played by the rebels, but there is reason to believe that it may yet be defeated.

FROM EUROPE.

English Press and the New American Minister—Dr. Bellows on the Irish Church Disestablishment—Rioters Arrested in Manchester, England.

LONDON, September 7.—The Daily News, in commenting on the mission of the new American Minister, Johnson, says: "Difficult questions are to be treated, but England has given ample proof of her good faith. In sending Mr. Johnson to this country the United States Government shows its desire to settle pending disputes, and such disposition is the best guarantee that negotiations will be brought to a satisfactory conclusion."

Rev. Mr. Bellows, of New York, has written a letter to the London Times on the Irish Church Question. He says the disestablishment of the Irish Church is a measure of even more importance to the foreign relations than to internal interests of Great Britain.

The accomplishment of this reform would be a great step toward the removal of those grievances which serve so powerfully to inflame the feelings of the Irish people against the British government, and which, while they continue to exist, make war, provoked by the persistent efforts of Irish leaders, at any time possible between England and America.

MANCHESTER, September 7.—Thirty-seven persons were arrested for taking part on both sides in the riots of Sunday, and brought before the police magistrates to-day, and after a short preliminary investigation, were remanded for further examination. The excitement still runs high and a renewal of the disturbance is feared.

ITALY. FLORENCE, Sept. 7.—Minister Cadorna has resigned his position in the Government on account of ill health, and his duties are performed by Count Contoli, Minister of Public Works.

IS YOUR DISEASE RHEUMATISM? Many persons, supposing they are suffering from the disease, have applied liniments, Plasters and other Remedies without obtaining any relief, when in fact the cause of pain is a derangement of the Kidneys. These are small organs, but very important, and any obstruction or interference with their functions are indicated by pain in the back and loins, languor and weakness, difficulty in voiding, and unusual heat of the urine. A Diuretic should thus be resorted to.

DR. SARGENT'S. Lucretia or Backache Pills. Can be relied on for these purposes: they have a direct influence on the cells of the kidneys, assist in relieving them of any foreign particles, and induce them to a healthy and vigorous action.

DR. SARGENT'S Backache Pills. Contains nothing injurious, being composed of entirely vegetable remedies, they do not sicken nor grip—the contrary they act as a gentle tonic and restorer to the system. They are recommended by all who have tried them.

FOR SALE BY DRUGGISTS. Sole proprietor, GEORGE A. KELLY, Wholesale Druggist, 37 WOOD STREET, PITTSBURGH.

MEDICAL HINTS FOR THE FALL. The semi-annual shaking in the fever and ague districts has begun. The fogs of these autumn nights and mornings are saturated with the elements of malarial and miasmatic fevers, and, unfortunately, two-thirds of the community are just in the condition to be disastrously affected by them.

CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE EAR. In observations and notes taken by Dr. KEYSER, of this city, on the various diseases of the ear, he says that nine out of ten cases could be cured, and their infidelity if application were made to some responsible and competent nasal surgeon.
