NATIONAL UNION REPUBLICAN TICKET. President—JULIUS S. GRANT. Vice-President—SCHUYLER COLFAK. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

ATOR General—J. F. HARTRANET. Auditor General—J. M. CAMPBELL. DISTRICT. Congress, 2d Dist.—JAS. S. NEGLY.

State Senator—JAMES L. GRAHAM. GEORGE WILSON, M. S. HUMPHREYS, GEO. F. MORGAN, VINCENT MILLER, JAMES TAYLOR, SAMUEL KERR.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA REBELS, more bold and straightforward than their Mississippi brethren, have no hesitation in officially declaring their intention to vote in November.

IN NOWHERE IN THE UNION may be found a clearer example of a purely Democratic administration of a public trust than in their government of the city of New York.

THE OFFICIAL RETURNS FROM VERMONT show a Republican majority of over 27,000, which is the largest majority ever given at a mere State election.

WHAT was the Union majority on each vote? Take time, and let us know next week. If that sum should be too hard, we can give you another, thus: If the Copperheads found it necessary to murder one Irishman in Clearfield, in order to secure one State Senatorial district in '67, how many good Union men would they assassinate in order to carry the whole State of Pennsylvania?

THE SOLDIERS' CONVENTION TO-NIGHT. To-night, at City Hall, the brave soldiers and sailors of Allegheny county who are favorable to the election of the Great Captain of the Union Army, General U. S. GRANT,

TWO CREDIBLE WITNESSES. EX-GOVERNOR PERRY and General WADE HAMPTON, both of South Carolina, and both delegates to the New York Convention, on their return made their report to their constituents.

LABOR AND ITS DEMOCRATIC FRIENDS. Said that eminent Democrat, TOOMBS, of Georgia, at Atlanta, the other day, in a speech ratifying the Democratic nominations.

DEMOCRACY IN THE SOUTH. Terrible State of Affairs—Society Controlled by Robbers and a Seditious, Bloody Electioneering for Seymour and Blair, Tennessee.

"There was no difference of opinion on any subject between the northern and southern delegates." Of course not. As the leaders of the Democracy north sympathized with the leaders of the same party south while the latter were fighting with all their might against the Government, why should they not fraternize now?

"We [that is the rebels] were met with extreme cordiality. They [that is the northern democrats] said they were willing to give us everything we desired; but we of the South must remember that they had a great fight to make, and it would not be policy to place upon the platform that which would excite prejudice at the North."

We can use no epithet strong enough to characterize all this. It was in effect saying—"We are willing to give you everything you desire; but don't tell the people how much we are ready to do for you; for even in our own party there is some lingering prejudice in favor of the old flag."

"I said I would take the resolutions if they would allow me to add but three words, which you will find embodied in the platform as added: 'And we declare that the Reconstruction Acts are revolutionary, unconstitutional and void.'"

"What then? Of course those States, when the laws restoring them to the Union are declared to be void and are trumped into the dust, will be again thrown out of the Union, their governments abolished, and a State of absolute anarchy must necessarily follow. Then, indeed, it is all for the Union which the South fought to win."

COLONIZING COMMENCED. The Democrats will resort to all sorts of fraud and villainy to secure the October election in Pennsylvania. They are already at work colonizing votes in doubtful districts.

THE SOUTH CAROLINA FREEDMEN have the manhood, when threatened with proscription, starvation, and every violent outrage, to declare boldly to their would-be masters, that they will not surrender the ballot for any consideration whatever; that, if they are to be massacred because they refuse to vote the Democratic ticket, they can die but once, and let it come."

THE following letter from the chairman of the Republican State Committee of Georgia explains itself. It will be noted that many of the predictions made in it have already been fulfilled. It was written previous to the expulsion of the colored members from the legislature. It is the sworn duty of the Governor to see that the laws are faithfully executed, and for that purpose ample means should be placed at his disposal.

"The number of outrages which have been perpetrated in many counties of Middle and West Tennessee, during the past few months, has been so numerous, and of such an aggravated character, as almost baffles investigation. In these counties a reign of terror exists, which is so absolute in its nature, that the best of citizens are unable or unwilling to give free expression to their opinions. The terror inspired by the secret organization known as the Ku-Klux-Klan is so great that the officers of the law are powerless to execute its provisions, to discharge their duties, or to bring the guilty perpetrators of these outrages to punishment. They are generally made under cover of the night, and under masks or disguises which render identification difficult if not impossible."

Pickens was and is a leading Democrat. Gov. Hammond, another good South Carolina Democrat, when in Congress in '52 denounced Northern mechanics as "manu-sellers." He too wanted slavery to be restored for the use of "a glorious aristocracy."

"The existence of (white) laborers and mechanics in organized societies was the result of the partial and progressive emancipation of slaves." Democratic societies in the South have systematically denounced free society as "a monstrous abortion." Read a few samples of their opinion of labor, whether white or black, as follows:

"Free society, as at present organized, is radically wrong and rotten to the core. Slavery is not only natural and original, but is essential to Republicanism."

"Slavery is a moral, religious, and natural institution. The laws of all the Southern States justify the holding of white men in slavery." "The principle of slavery is in itself right, and does not depend on differences of complexion and color."

Senator MASON, of Virginia, said the free States were really "the sterile States." The same HAMPTON declared the only difference between the white and black laborers to be that "the negro is hired for hire, and well compensated, and the white slave is hired by the day, and not cared for, and scantily compensated."

"The object sought to be obtained by the establishment of government is the peace of society. Individuals surrender a portion of their liberty and submit to the restraints of legal enactments for the general good of the community, and in return receive a measure of safety and protection from the depredations of criminals." "If civil law and civil authority are not sufficient for the accomplishment of the purpose intended, military force must be called for to their assistance."

"In the present efforts to revive slavery again?" THE SOUTH CAROLINA FREEDMEN have the manhood, when threatened with proscription, starvation, and every violent outrage, to declare boldly to their would-be masters, that they will not surrender the ballot for any consideration whatever; that, if they are to be massacred because they refuse to vote the Democratic ticket, they can die but once, and let it come."

control of the government and give it to the General Assembly. The patronage of the State roads is immense, and with it in their hands they expect to control the Assembly. They then intend to impeach the Governor and to make a pro-slavery administration what they will do."

After appealing to Congress to prevent the expulsion of the colored members, the letter continues: "Our voters will have no protection at the polls, and there is great danger of bloodshed, but I do not know that Congress can do anything for us. We are not in as good condition as other Southern States, for they have Republican Legislatures, but the Democrats control ours. They can pass laws to protect voters, but we cannot."

On Saturday night, they entered the house of Glasgow Williams, formerly a Union soldier in Franklin county, and shot him dead, scattering his brains over his wife, who was present for his life."

The following is an extract from a letter dated Little Rock, Arkansas, September 1: "Murder, riot and intimidation are boldly advocated and practiced in many portions of the State, fully equal to the terrorism of 1861. It is not political excitement; it is a hellish rebellion in its worst form. The Democrats have their secret Ku-Klux organizations in every town, and are making every possible effort to arm their men."
