The Nobs and Snobs at Sara'oga. The very extreme of the present Paris toilette prevails at Saratoga to-day, or rather an imitation which might be called a burlesque or extravaganza of an antique style.

Not a bell or swell hoop is to be found where once an army of them was in motion. actresses have been puffed off like the beand-ed woman in a country fair, and, upon The chignon is worn on the top of the head, with two inches of hair inserted receiving a fair trial, their deserts were, not about thirty degrees below the key of the arch on each side of the centre, which forms found cqual to the descriptions given of them beforehand. Then the critics began pendants like the horns of a goat, or, to be more precise, like those of a chamois. The dress has a medium waist adapted to a hoop somewhat of the shape of a barrel, large at the centre and small at each end, with a backward swell to assist in forming the train. A large bustle or "pannier" is worn at the top of the hoop, upon which is gathered up five or six yards of material in ed for in a third-rate English actor ? Here is a very eminent Mexican tragedian, with a kind of bundle. testimonials from the cultivated and refined This is called the "blanchiusse" or washer-

Across the lower hips, below this "pannier," a band extends. It will thus be seen that we have the most dously great American trazedian; who will be introduced by a gentleman who prides himself on outdoing Barnum. What they tone of a person's manner. The stately, ought to ask is, Who is it that calls, him patronizing airsassumed by our belles a short great, and where did he perform in America? What was his reputation there? Before time ago, when dressed in the ample dow-ager skirts then in vogue, would hardly be condemning the tastes of a people who first recognized the talent of Md'le Patti, and antong whom Miss Cushman, Mr. Sothern, coming to the wearer of the fashionable garb of the day. As a logical sequence of this, all our belles, when walking or standing, instead of the stately step or the statuesque, assume what is called the "Grecian bend," or the air of diffidence and inquiry, with all the adjuncts. Mr. Forrest, Mr. Owens, Miss Bateman, and

The Grecian bend is performed by pulling the lower hips up to a point even with the lower rips, throwing the pit of the stomach back of in and the shoulders forward, The hands are held in front, pend-ant from the waist, and intended to repre-sent a spray; the gait is of a canter or tilter

It will be seen from the description of the dress that it is peculiarly adapted to effectually allow of a full performance of the "Grecian bend," and when the whole affair is carried out in the dance by a gay and luxuriant youth, with his hair parted in the middle, placing his right arm under the left of the lady, with digitals extended, as in a spasm, resting between the shoulder blade, while with the thumb and second finger he holds her wrist, thus leaving her hand to hang lifelessly pendant, we have an exhibition of snobbishness and cockneyism which must put all sensible Americans to blush - Correspondence New York Tribune.

Petroleum in Europe.

Sources of mineral oils, it appears, are now discovered and worked to a large ex7 tent in Europe. The most important ones have been found in Galicia, adjacent to Hungary. In the western section of this province petroleum abounds, principally in the mountains inclosed by Limanowa, Neusandec, Grybow, Cieskowice, Gorlice and Sbyszyce.
