BARN-BURNING CASE.

Jeremiah Stelley, Jr., was arraigned upon an indictment charging him with unlawfully and maliciously burning a barn and stable, the property of Daniel Risher, and partly occupied by Joseph Wilson, on Streets Run, in Baldwin township, on the night of the 18th of March last, between ten night of the 16th of March last, between ten and eleven o'clock. The case was in the Oyer and Terminer, but defendant's counsel waived arraignment in the regular form. The fire took place between nine and ten o'clock, and together with the barn a horse and buggy and other property was

The evidence adduced by the Common-The evidence adduced by the Commonwealth was in substance, that on the night of the 23d of March, one week after the burning, the defendant was discovered in the road, about two hundred yards from the site of the barn, intoxicated, having apparently fallen from his horse. The persons whe discovered him were David Jacobs, John Davis, William Giles and Jas. Brown. The defendant appeared not to know where he was, and made some inquiries. After some conversation, and without the subject having been introduced, defendant remarked that he "had burned Joe Wilson's barn and would do more." The five persons who discovered more." The five persons who discovered him swore positively to his having made this expression. The case of the Commonthis expression. The case of the Common-wealth rested solely on the declaration of defendant.

For the defence Samuel Chamberlain and Joseph Phillips testified they saw defendant about sundown on the evening of the 18th of March, at Gill Hall Postoffice, Jefferson township, going in the direction of his home, about half a mile distant. Gill Hall is about seven miles from the scene of the fire. John Wilson testified he was with defendant at his (defendant's) house on the evening of the leth of March, from after dark until after nine o'clock. Other witnesses testified to the whereabouts of lefendant on the night of the fire, and also to having a good character for peace.

The case occupied the attention of the Court for the entire session. Robt. Woods, Esq., appeared for the prosecution, and A. M. Brown, and J. R. Large, Esqs., for the defense. No verdict at adjournment.

Com. vs. John Showalter, et. al.

" J. B. Poor.
" Jacob Grubs. John Teats. John Fenney. Same. Charles Peacock.

Matthew Keep. J. H. Sanders. Samuel McKain. Knavery.

Ryan's Court, Virgin alley, Third ward, according to the assertions of Mrs. Adelina Nave, has been the scene of some knavish operations within the last few days. Mrs. Nave called on Alderman Strain, vesterday, and naively related the circumstances altending the knavery. From Mrs. Nave's statements and allegations it is to be inferred that she had a slight misunderstanding with her next neighbors, Mr. Edward and Mrs. Joanna Dickey, which caused a slight "unpleasantness" of feeling between them. and finally culminated in a row of sight "unpleasantness" of feeling between them, and finally culminated in a row of pretty fair proportions. It is alleged that Joanna acted in a very disorderly manner, by giving her enemy a pretty severe tongue lashing, and that Mr. Dickey, no doubt in emulation of his wife's zeal, endeavored to manifest his hostile feelings against the present wife's zeal, endeavored to manifest his hostile feelings against the parent by seizing the son of their mutual foe, and indulging in the exhibitant according the little Nave to his heart's content. It is further, alleged that at this juncture another Nave appeared, in the person of Mrs. Nave, who, for some unaccountable reason, took sides against Mrs. Nave and made divers fierce threats against the lady, winding up by drenching her with the contents of a full water bucket. This last flank movement completely routed the contents of a full water bucket. This last flank movement completely routed Mrs. Nave, and she retired discomfited from the field of physical force, but only to try her fortunes in the field of law. In pursuance of this design, she yesterday lodged informations against Mr. and Mrs. Dickey for disorderly conduct, and assault and battery, following these up with two other informations against Mr. Nave for surety of the peace and assault and battery. The Dickeys were arrested and gave bail for a hearing, but Mr. Nave has not yet been discovered. It is hoped, however, that the officers will soon secure the Nave that this naive contest may be decided.

Manufacturers' Convention. A Convention of the Manufacturers of Iren and Nails was held yesterday at their rooms on Water street, for the purpose of establishing prices on the manufactures. The meeting was quite large, the entire manufacturing interest west of the mountains being represented.

The convention, instead of establishing new rates, re-affirmed those established in March last, which are as follows:

Nails per keg $5, card rates, for 10 to 60 pennies. One eighth and three per cent. off for cash if paid within ten days for lots of 100 bearing and within ten days for lots.

The Brutal Outrage. We have been requested by His Honor, Mayor Blackmore, to correct a statement Mrs. Dr. Dake, under that most infamous and unexplainable order relating to the arrest of unoffending females after "certain hours," which he says does him great injustice. Having always entertained the highest regard for Mr. Blackmore as a citizen, we of course can have no hesitancy whatever in making the desired correction, as we have no desire to do him injustice, the opinion of Mr. Showden, Notary Public, Associated Press Agent, Mayor's Clerk and Legal Adviser, to the contrary notwithstanding.

The matter objected to by the Mayor The matter objected to by the Mayor was the statement that a poor, but respectable girl had been arrested under that notorious order and kept in the lock-up all night. His Honor informs us that the girl did not remain there ten minutes, that she was released and sent home in charge of the officer referred to. With all due deference to his official rank, we are compelled to differ with him as to the time the poor to differ with him as to the time the poor friendless girl was kept in "durance vile," as we can fully establish the fact that she was there a much longer time; but it matters not whether she was there ten minutes or ten hours, the fact that she was there, and that the Mayor knew she had been arand that the Mayor knew she had been ar-rested by one of his officers, under an order which he now repudiates, is not denied.

He knew the officer who made the arrest, and he evidently knew that the unprotected girl had committed no offense warranting the arrest, otherwise he would not have ordered her to be released and sent home; yet officer who arrested that girl, who, by the officer who arrested that girl, who, by the way, is one of the most intelligent and reliable man on the force, was not dis-charged but is still doing duty. It is rea-sonable to suppose that Mayor Blackmore would not retain a man on the police force who is violation of all law, and force, who, in violation of all law, and without orders from his superior officer, would arrest an inoffensive, harmless girl, and drag her to the lock-up? And is it at and drag her to the lock-up? And is it at all probable that Captain Reed, or a Lieutenant of the watch, would assume the responsibility of giving such an order as the one under which the arrest was made? We think not. How different was his conduct toward the officer who arrested Mrs. Dake, and toward Williams also, whom the Mayor himself said had done nothing but his duty in rendering assistance to his brother officer who dering assistance to his brother officer when called upon. Both were dismissed from the force. Was not the offense of the one as censurable as the other? or does the fact that one being poor and friendless, and the other wealthy, have any bearing in the matter? We leave these questions for his Honor to answer.

The Industrial Works of Hugh M. Bole & Co., Duquesne Way.

Of the many manufacturing institutions and establishments which Pittsburgh is proud to maintain, none stand higher in the estimation of the business public than the Industrial Works of Hugh M. Bole & Co., corner of Point alley and Duquesne Way, fronting on the Allegheny river. The works are wooden in structure and specially adapted to the business, being supplied with the very best of machinery. The firm have a wide reputation for the quality of the work they turn out. Everywhere their trade mark is recognized as an where their trade mark is recognized as an evidence of superiority. Employing none but the most skillful master mechanics in their various departments, and using nothing but the best and using nothing but the best quality of materials, their success and prosperity is easily accounted for. While they attend to all kinds of work peculiar to engine builders, founders and machinists they make social to the control of the control ists, they make specialties of steam boat and stationary engines of all sizes and power. These are widely known and and in very general use throughout the country. At their Third street foundry they manufacture to order all sorts of castings at the shortest notice. Their new por-table oil well boiler and stationary engine is the best in use and will commend itself to all persons interested in the development of territory. It is of fitteen horse power and of superior construction. They have on thand and make to order rigs for oil wells, shafting, pulleys, hangers, house and tobacco screws, from tobacco presses, &c. From long acquaintance with this firm we are prepared to recommend them in the heartiest terms to our readers, as eminently worthy of confider patronage. Amusements. THE OPERA HOUSE,—Edwin Booth's rendition of Hamlet at the Opera last night was, of course, entirely satisfactory to all who have any appreciation of histrionic talent. 56 FIFTH STREET. CAUTION!

TO BUYERS OF TEA. C. A. BOUCHER.

114 SMITHFIELD ST OPPOSITE POST OFFICE.

Original Red Front Tea Warehous The undersigned would respectfully call the attrition of buyers of Teas to the inconsistent and faltatements made by the BOCUS TEA COMPANIES Of the presnt day, Men with scarcely sufficient knowledge of Tea to distinguish Black from Green are advertising themselves as the Great Tea Copanies of the country, and claim to sell the but Teas at from 80c. to $1.35 per lb. More appare falsehood and misrepresentation was never putshed.

falsehood and misrepresentation was never purished.
To prove the outrageous nature of such claims is only necessary to refer to published reports daily Auction Sales, of Teas, by the cargo, in a great market of New York, at which fine Teas can not be bought for less than from $1.50 to $1.

Another active means of fraud in Tea Stores is giving SHORT WEIGHT instead of 16 OUNCES FOR A POUND.

In this way many buyers are misled into the life that they are purchasing goods at a reasonal cost, when, in fact, they are, by these means, swidled into paying excessive prices.

The undersigned will give a REWARD OF $50, for each and every case of short weight of tex, other goods, as weighed on his testad scales.

A descriptive Catalogue and Price List of Texto be had on application.
