PITTSBURGH MARKETS. OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,

MONDAY, September, 14, 1868. There is a decidedly better feeling in ommercial circles, and strong hopes are now entertained that a permanent and decided improvement in business is near at hand. The recent rains have been of incalculable benefit to the Winter Wheat which has but recently been sown, besides, which our rivers are now in excellent navigable condition, and for the next three months we may look for large shipments of Coal and Iron, and Pittsburgh manufactures, generally.

RIVER NEWS.

The river was again rising at this point last evening with eight and a half feet in the channel. We should not be surprised to find ten feet this morning, as the Monongahela was reported rising above with Leave Company's Wharf Boat, foot of Wood street, fifteen feet at Geneva. The Allegheny does not seem to be doing much good, only twenty-six inches reported at Oil City. The weather yesterday, especially in the afternoon, was clear and pleasant, indicating that the rain is over for the present. There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report. The J. N. McCullough, from Cincinnati, was due last night, and will doubtless be found in port this The Bayard departed for Parkersburg on time with a good freight list, and quite a number of passengers. The Grey Eagle, in command of Capt. C. L. Brennan, is the regular Wednesday packet for Parkersburg leaving promptly at noon.

The Armadillo, Capt. D. H. Swaney, will positively leave for St. Louis and Missouri River to-day, and passengers and shippers should bear this in mind.

The Mary Dayage was due from St. The Mary Davage was due from St. Louis last night, and will commence loading at once for a return trip. Capt. Hugh Campbell still retains command, with Mr.

Campoell stall retains command, with Mr. B. F. Whiling in the office.
Capt. A. H. Shaw, who is having a new boat built here under the superintendance of Capt. D. S. H. Filmore, is expected here from the West within a few days.

Tow boats continue to arrive and depart, and the fact that the river is again swelling. nd the fact that the river is again swelling will be good news for our coal men- The amount of coal that will get out will be much larger than was at first expected.

The Messenger Capt. Dean, will commence loading for St. Louis this morning, and will soon be ready to take her de ture: She is one of the finest beats in the trade, and as a consequence offers superior inducements to passengers. Mr. James Russell has charge of the office. Capts. Sam. Shuman, John Conway, and Ed. Evans, arrived at Cincinnation Satur-The Bellevernon is enroute from St.

Louis to Pittsburgh.
Capt. Geo. D. Moore went out in charge of the Bayard yesterday. Capt. Shepard will probably assume command next trip. In was reported vesterday that the tow-oat Leader had her wheel knocked into a cocked hat" near Wellsville, on Sunday ight, liaving been run, into by the An-Business was moderately active at the nding yesterday, and, apparently, improving.
-Capt. Wash Kerr, of the Robt. Moore, is on the look out for another boat to take the place of the Moore in the Pittsburgh and
