Meets To-Day.-The Petroleum Association meets to-day at ten o'clock.

Resigned.—Henry Ackley, Esq., clerk of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Passenger Railway, has resigned the position.

West Pennsylvania Road .- We call at tention to the change of time on the West Pennsylvania Road in to-day's paper.

Captain J. S. Schoonmaker's company of Grant Hussars will meet at No. 181 Liberty street to-morrow evening for organization.

Third Ward Allegheny Grant Club. The attention of members of this club is called to the notice of a meeting to be held on Wednesday evening at/Col. Gerst's Hall.

Company A, Grant Hussars.-Members of this company can secure equipments at No. 111 Water street, between four and five r. M. to-day. They will muster at 6:45 at foot of Wood street for torchlight procession.

Fell in a Fit.-A man named Harley fell in a fit on Grant street yesterday morning. He was taken into Dr. L. Oldshue's office and the proper remedies applied, which caused his restoration in a short time.

An Exhibition.-The handsome silver horn awarded to the Neptune Fire Company at the Sandusky tournament is on exhibition at Dunseath & Haslett's establishment, Fifth avenue. It is a beautiful affair and a remarkably fine piece of workmanship.

Damaged.-The Monongahela wharf improvements have been damaged very considerably by the rise in the river. The wharf logs are affoat and there is danger of the whole thing rising. The total damage thus far will not fall far short of one thous-

Meeting in the Eighth Ward.—A mass meeting of the Republicans will be held this evening at the corner of Fulton and Seventh and Eighth wards Grand Club. J. M. Kirkpatrick and C. W. Robb, Esqs., will address the meeting.

Assault an i Battery.-Louis Genst made information before the Mayor charging James Simons with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused struck him and knocked him down. He further states that Simmons threatened to kill him. A war-rant was issued for the arrest of the Break Down .- Yesterday afternoon about three o'clock one of the axles of car No. 9, on the Birmingham Passenger Railway broke down on Smithfield street, near The car was filled with passengers at the time, but no one was injured. It was moved to one side of the street, and the accident caused but little irregularity in the running of the other cars.

Cutting Affray at Stewartstown .- Monday night a cutting affray took place in Stewartstown, in which John Gift was seriously stabled. It appears that a party of young men were drinking together, when a diffi-culty arose between Jacob Gift and his consin Jacob Freyer. The latter drew a knife and struck at Gift, inflicting a severe wound on the abdomen. No arrest was

Collision .-- A collision occurred on the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Cresson, Monday night, between two freight trains. The engines of both trains were considerably and sixteen cars were thrown from the track and partially wrecked. It s stated that several persons were injured. but to what extent we have been unable to learn. The accident was caused by the Boy Shot.--On Sunday afternoon two boys, named respectively O'Neill and Col-lins, were playing in a metal yard on Third avenue, near Ferry street, when by some means a pistol in the hands of Collins went off, the ball lodging in the calf of O'Neill's leg. The injured boy is about ten years of age and the son of a widowed mother. Collins is fifteen or sixteen and is said to be demented. It is not known whether the shooting was accidental or intended,

Fatal Result.—We noticed about two weeks ago that Wesley Ringgold, a fireman on the Allegheny Valley Railroad, had one of his legs caught between two passing engines and so badly crushed as to render amputation necessary. Every attention was paid to the unfortunate man, but notwithstanding all that could be done death ensued on Monday afternoon. W. H. Devore, undertaker, took charge of the remains and forwarded them to Altoona, the former home of the deceased.

Larceny of a Pocket-Book .- Mary Vick made information before the Mayor, yester-day, charging Oliver M'Cutcheon with larceny. It appears that the prosecutrix, while in an auction store on Fifth avenue, yesterday, had her pocket picked of a pocket plocket of containing seven dollars and fifty cents, and she alleges that M'Cutcheon was the only person near her after she eutered the store. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused, but it is not probable that a case can be made out against him.

An Unruly Son .-- John Vernon, Sr., made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging his son John Vernon, Jr., with assault and battery. He alleges that the accused threw a stone at him, striking him in the eye and knocking him down, and that he kicked him after he was down. John, Jr., had been properly cared for, and trained in his youthful days, it is not probable that his father would have been un-der the necessity of making the above information. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the accused.

Committed for Trial .- Jane Reamer and Eliza Carlan, the women who were arrested on Monday, charged with picking Mrs. Rolfe's pocket, in Lynch's store, on Market street, had a hearing yesterday, and in default of the required ball for their appearance at Court, were committed to jail. It transpired on the investigation that the women have traveling companions with them, and the supposition is that they were met on the street by the men who were traveling with them and the pocketbook transferred to their keeping.

Died from a Rupture .- J. P. Leslie, of the bied from a Rupture.—J. P. Leslie, of the firm of Hanlon & Leslie, painters, doing business on Market street, came to his death under the following circumstances: Monday afternoon he was engaged wrestling with one of his workmen, and in the struggle ruptured himself, from the effects of which he died yesterday afternoon at three o'clock. Mr. Leslie was well known here and hisuntimely death will be mourned. here, and his untimely death will be mourned by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. His funeral will take place from his late residence on Arthur street. He leaves a wife and four children.

Palse Pretence.-Ludwig Keip made information before Justice Ammon yesterday charging Charles Kimple with obtaining money under false pretence. He alleges that some weeks since the accused came to him and stated that he had purchased a lot him and stated that he had purchased a lot and had not money enough to pay for it. He swanted just fifty dollars, which the prosecutor gave him. A few days after-wards he ascertained that Kimple had ob-tained money in other places on the same ples, and had left for parts unknown. LABOR REFORM CONVENTION. Nominations for Mayor, Controller and Treasurer -- Resolution ance and Lively Time. Pursuant to published notice the delegates to the Labor Reform City Convention assembled last evening in Boilers' Hall.

corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, for the purpose of putting in nomination candidates for city offices at the ensuing municipal election. The Convention was called to order at eight o'clock by Mr. George Baber, Chairman of the Labor Reform Executive Committee, who made a few remarks explanatory of the object of the meeting, and urging upon the delegates the importance of carefully and harmoniously conducting the proceedings that they might result in the selection of men who, if elected, would worthily discharge the duties of the offices which they are called to fill.

On motion of H. G. McCurry, a temporary organization was effected by designating George Baber, Esq., as President, and Samuel A. Steele as Secretary.

On motion of Mr. Matthew Haddock, the Chairman appointed a Committee on Credentials, consisting of Mr. M. Haddock, J. Creaghan and B. A. McGinty. The Committees then retired, and the delegates gave themselves up to recreation, conversation and canvassing for about three-quarters of an hour, when one of them, being tired of doing nothing in particular, arose and asked the Chairman for he report from the Committee on Permanent Organization. The Chairman stated that the report-had The Chairman stated that the report-had been handed in, but that it would not be proper to receive it until the report from the Committee on Credentials had been acted upon. This report having not been presented, the delegates subsided.

Another delegate then moved that the Committee on Credentials be discharged. and a new Committee be appointed. He wanted the Convention to get to business.

That's what he had come for. It was suggested that the Committee should have time to make their report, as it was no small job.

The motion being put it was lost, and delegate No. 2, p aced hors du combat,

A few minutes later another impatient reformer, doubtless thinking the Committee needed reformation, jumped to his feet and moved that a Committee be appointed to wait upon the Committee on Credentials for their report, and if there was any dispute regarding contested seats or anything else, that another Committee be appointed to adjust all difficulties.

This motion, after considerable discussion, was adopted and the Committee ap-pointed. Just as they arrived at the door of the room in which the Committee on Credentials were operating, the door swung on its hinges and that Committee appeared marching up in/procession to a conspicuous position in front of the Chairman and with becoming dignity informed that official that they werere ady to report.

All eyes were turned in the direction of the Chairman of the Committee, as he read their report, prefacing the reading, how-eyer, with the remark, that if the Committee had been let alone, the report would have been given a great deal sooner. The decument accorded seats in the Convention to the following delegates: First Ward-Geo. Baber, P. J. Higgins.

The report was adopted. Mr. H. B. McCarry now thought it was time for the Convention to preceed to nomi-nations, and made a motion to that effect, which received the approbation of the Convention and was carried.

A delegate suggested that it would be proper first to adopt the report of the Committee on permanent organization and ratify the selection of Mr. John Creaghan as one of the Vice Presidents. It was suggested that the report had been adopted with the exception of that portion relating to Mr. Creagnan, which the report of the Committee on contested seats de-cided.

Mr. Creaghan now arose and gracefully, but emphatically declined the very high honor of occupying the position of Vice President of the Convention. Mr. Creaghan's polite resignation was accepted.

Nominations for Mayor were now de-Mr. Haddock nominated James Black-

Mr. McLaughlin said he was authorized o withdraw the name of Mr. Wright. Mr. Creaghan wished to know his auhority.
Mr. McLaughlin referred him to Mr.

marks before this nomination was made. It was the most important one that would be made. If a judicious nomination was made it would help to strengthen the remainder of the ticket. Great caution should be used in the selection of a proper candidate, as it was well known that this was the point on which the ticket was expected to be strong. If it was carried the rest would be much easier.

Mr. M'Grath moved to appoint two tellers to receive the votes of the delegates by marking.

Mr. M'Cauley moved to amend by voting orally.

Mr. M'Grath considered that no amend-

Mr. M'Cauley insisted that it was a proper amendment. Mr. Higgins contended that every man Mr. Higgins contended that every man had a right to vote as he pleased, and ought not to be forced into calling out for a candidate, so that everybody would know for whom he voted. He thought marking was the fairest way and ought to be adop-

A number of the delegates by this time had resolved to go home, and despite the solicitations of the Chairman they would tail and called his attention to a one dollar bill, which we always on the floor near his hill, which we always on the floor near his go we hout hearing the resolutions read. The Committee letired, and after a short absence reported as follows: Resolved, That this Convention, composed of representations of the Labor Reform organization of the city of Pittsburgh, hereby reaffirm the importance to the working-men of this city and county of maintaining the Labor Reform party, without regard to the political issues of either the Republican or Democratic party, but in harmony with and in strict consistency with the great principles of that movement, as set forth in the platform of the National Labor Congress that met in Chicago, August 19th, 1857. Resolved, That the Labor Reform party, composed, as it is, of citizens having oppo-site party ant: cedents, stands, independ-ently, upon its own well defined principles, and, when co operating with either of the old political parties in a local election, does is not thereby to be compromised; and that such co-operation is never to be oncouraged except when the principles of labor retorm and the intere is of the industrial classes can thereby be promoted.

Resolved, That all workingmen in the city of Pittsburgh are horeby earnestly urged to give the ticket nominated by this Convention an undivided support at the coming municipal election.

Mr. Creaghan-Well, then, Mr. President, I resign my position as a member of the City Executive Committee of the Labor Reform Party. I'll not give my support to the whole of that ticket. After some discussion Mr. Creaghan's estimation was accepted. The resolutions were then adopted, and the Convention adjourned.

Alleged Embezziement.

James Graham made information before the Mayor charging Adam Mulligan with embezzlement. The facts in the case, so far as we could ascertain, are as follows: In April last the parties by article of agreement entered into a partnership to conduct a grain and commission business, and have been conducting said business on Canal street until the present time. Recently Graham concluded to dissolve the partnership and go into business with another man. and without consulting Mulligan made arrangements for renting another store in which to conduct the same business with another partner. Mulligan learning his intentions consulted an attorney as to what intentions consulted an attorney as to what he should do in the matter, stating that he believed Graham wanted 10 defraud him. It appears that Mulligan had charge of the books of the firm and attended to the office business, such as drawing checks, &c. He stated that there was not money enough in the bank belonging to the firm to reimburse him for what he had put in, and pay his share of the profits.

had put in, and pay his share of the profits.
His attorney advised h m to draw out what money there was d posited and hold it until such time as he could get a fair settle ment. He acted in accordance with this advice, and Graham, finding that he had checked the money out, made the information as stated.
It seems to us that the prosecutor has not got a very strong case. Being a partner and having charge of the books Mulligan had a perfect right to check money out of the bank, and so long as he did not abscord with it he committed no offense. Whether he has received a greater share of the funds of the

The meeting opened with prayer. The following preamble and resolutions were read: WHEREAS, The great spread of intemperance in Allegheny county calls upon all good men of all political parties and of Christians of all denominations to lay aside their adherence to party and make one united effort to stop the great tide of evil as it exists in our country.

And whereas, A great power is with the clergy of all churches, and the signs of the times demand that they call the attention of the people to the spread of intemperance with all its attendant evils, and that a day be set apart for all the clergy of these cities and throughout Allegheny county to appeal to the people, who have it in their power to give a check to this great evil; i herefore be it

Resolved, By the Allegheny Temperance League, that we respectfully request of the clergy throughout Allegheny county that they preach temperance sermons on or before the 12th day of October next.

Remarks were made by Rev. Bell, Rev. Crowther and Messrs. Warren, Blair and thors on the marits of the resolution when others on the merits of the resolution, when it was passed unanimously.

On motion, the following persons were made Corresponding Secretaries, to correspond with all the leading temperance men throughout the county: Rev. Snyder, Rev. King, Dr. Collier, of Sharpsburg, Rev. Crowthers, of Rebecca Street Church, Rev. A. G. Kirk, Messrs. Freeborn and Crowthers, of Sandusky Street Church, and

Rev. A. Milligan.

Resolved, That the Executive Committee hold out-door meetings as far as practicable, in view of furthering the claims of Mr. Isaac Charles, the Citizens' Temperand candidate for County Commissioner. Pas by Rev. Hickman. Daring Robbery. Notwithstanding the fact that within the last year the police force of the city has been increased to over double its former number, there never was a time when our city was so infested with robbers, burglars and pickpockets as during the last few months. This class of persons appear to have no fears whatever of being arrested brond davlight on our principal business streets. Yesterday we published an account of a lady having her pocket picked, a watch stolen, and this morning we have to record | make their purchases in the way of dry still bolder robbery than either of these. Between ten and eleven o'clock yesterday morning Mr. Robert Surt n, a farmer re siding in Chartiers township, went to the banking house of the National Trust Company, on Penn street, to deposit some money. He was standing at the counter, and had his money spread out in severa niles, counting it. There were several persons in the room at the time, among others two strangers, one of whom was standing at the counter near Mr. S. while the other was just behind him. bill, which was lying on the floor near his feet, and while Mr. S. stooped to pick it up the man who had been standing at his side picked up the $1,150 and both he and his confederate fied. Mr. S. repaired to the Mayor's office and made information, but

The watchman fired two shots at him but owing to his excitement his aim was unsteady and neither shot took effect. The report and neither shot took effect. The report of the pistol attracted the attention of officers M'Donough and M'Ginnis, who hurried to the spot and found the burglar inside of the store. He made a desperate fight to get away, but the officers were too much for him, and put ing the "nippers" on him took, him to the lock-up. He was accepted and a complete set of burglar. searched and a complete set of burglars searched and a complete set of burgiars tools were found on his person. He is about forty-five years of age, a medium sized man and has gray hair and beard. He recuses to give his name.

Frightful Leap. James McElroy, residing in McIntosh's Allegheny, jumped out of the window of ternally. The unfortunate man is unmarried, and resides with his widowed mother. He was a member of the Columbia Hook and Lader Co., and attended the tournament at Sandusky. On his return home he at sandasky. On the return nome he seemed to be suffering from the effects of excessive drinking, but on the evening in question seemed to be better, and retired to bed early. About two o'clock he was found on the payement below by his friends, with the injuries as above stated. He is receiving medical attention, but the physician entertains no hope of his recovery.

Distressing Accident. Yesterday morning, about half-past eight o'clock, three boys, sons of Thomas Neeley, Jacob Schuster and William Pear, living in Birmingham and employed in the box factory attached to Millingar's planing mill, got into a skiff and pushed out into the river for a ride. The river was high and the current strong, and in spite of the efforts of the boys the boat was carried down against some coal barges moored at one of the piers of the bridge, upset, and with the boys sucked under the barges. The boat came out again at the lower end but the bodies of the boys did not, and thus far all efforts to recover them have proved unavailing. The boys ages ranged from twelve to fifteen years.

Public Reading. The Rev. Wm. Evans, one of the most accomplished readers in this country, will give an entertainment in the Academy of Music, on Thursday evening, the 17th, consisting in part of selections from Dickens. It is said that his rendering is equal, if not superior, to that of the author himself. Mr. Evans has a voice of wonderful power and culture, and has attracted crowded houses In the principal cities in this country and in England. He has recently abandoned the Theatre and accepted Christianity, and is now the assistant pastor of the Second Methodist Church, Wylle street. The pro-ceeds of this entertainment are to be applied to fitting up his parsonage in this city. The public should appreciate the cause and improve the opportunity of being pleased and doing good. Admission, 50 cents.

Base Ball .- The match game of Base Ball for the championship, between the Atlantics, of the Twelfth ward, and the Olympics, of Allegheny, took place at Union Park, yesterday afternoon, and was witnessed by yesterday atternoon, and was witnessed by a large concourse of spectators. The game was quite exciting throughout and very close, as is evinced by the score, which stood, at the close of the ninth liming. sighteen for the Olympics and sixteen for the Atlantics. The Atlantic boys, though beaten, intend trying it again, when they expect to reverse the result. FALL GOODS.

Bivalvular. Many weary ones are rejeiced now at the return of the oyster season. Every human being almost is a lover of the delicious bivalve, and is eager for the return of the season which brings the return of the privilege of eating "raws," "stews," &c. The delicousness of them is never so fully appreciated, or appreciated with such unalloyed delicacy of taste as when they are first made available after the dearth of the summer months. Nowhere else can this enjoyment be more fully attained than at the widely known and universally popular dining saloon kept by Holtzheimer, next the Postoffice, on Fifth ayenue. All the other delicacies of the season are to be obtained there at their best estate.
