THE CUT and accompanying matter which we copied, yesterday, literally from the Tuscaloosa (Alabama) Monitor, were disrelished exceedingly by the Democrats. All we have to say is that if the Southern friends of SEYMOUR and BLAIR will put such cuts and such sentiments into their newspapers it is well for Northern people to inspect them.

THE DEMOCRATIC/PLATFORM.

We reprinted yesterday the Scuthern rebel understanding of the New York platform, which the friends of the "lost cause" have saddled upon the broad shoulders of the National Democracy. We copied the arguments used in Alabama to promote the election of SEYMOUR and BLAIR, taking a fac-simile from a Democratic journal in that State, and giving it to our readers, picture, head-lines, display letter, editorials and all, exactly as the Tuscaloosa editor spread the inviting feast before his rebel readers a few days before. Of course, our sole object was to enable the honest and patriotic people of the North to see precisely how and why the rehels support the Democratic ticket. Who can doubt, who remembers all the violent declarations of the Democratic leaders, from BLAIR down to Parson WEEMS, that the Alabama editor has hit the exact idea of the New York platform? He knows that it means, if successful, nothing else but anarchy, civil war, unbridled license and outrage, the proscription and death of all friends of the Union, and the re-establishment of the rebel regime of slavery and the horses purchases direct from France despotism. That Alabama Democrat was and draught horses from England. The agricultural, machine and implement despotism. no fool; he had the correct understanding of the doctrine. In each of the rebel States, except two, there is a large majority of white people and white voters. So much for "negro supremacy"! The present Constitutions of the seven reconstructed States were submitted to and approved by a majority of the people of each State. In all the ten States, the white voters registered but 37,075 less than the aggregate Presidential vote of 1860, and their voice was emphatically in favor of holding Conventions. This meets the demand of the Democratic platform that "the citizens of each State shall regulate its elective franchise." If they wish to amend it still further, they shall do it under the forms of law, and not by the brute force of bayonets, led by Hampton and Blair.

THE precise value of "special telegrams" to the New York World," and of the claims facilities for obtaining accurate intelligence,

The idea of such a shaky concern as the World going to all this expense, is decidedly laughable, to say the least. A sheet which endeavors to make up its weekly defi its by cheating the employes of the es-tablishment out of their wages, which gives the "fat" matter to female type setters, and

THE DEMOCRACY say the public debt mus demanded by the Democracy, will require us to pay $150,000,000 per year for the next sixteen years, in addition to the interest. Pennsylvania's share of this would be at least $20,000,000; quadrupling our present new Democratic doctrine of "equal taxafor that second assault the rebel conspirators tion of all property," by an army of taxsignal from FRANK BLAIR and Fort Pillow nia. How do the people like that prospect? erations shall contribute to the payment of a debt which has earned the preservation of their liberties. SEYMOUR, in his speech of March 11, '68, said: "This debt should fall upon the future." Pay the debt now, and it would take $60.46, per head of the entire population; defer it to A.D. 1900, as we advantageously may, and with our then increased population, it would take only $26 per head. Again, SEYMOUR was right when he said, before the Presidency fatally tempt ed him: "Then, this debt will rest more lightly upon greater numbers and greater wealth than it presses to-day upon depressed industry and the depressed spirits of the people." Thus the absurdities and the wicked fallacies of the New York platform
