The Harrison Townip Grant Club was out in full force with ship Grant Chio was out in thir force with torches and banners. The meeting was addressed in English by Hon. George Wilson and Thomas Ewing, Esq., and in German by H. P. Mueller, Esq.

Assault and Battery—Geo, Falmer made information before the Mayor yesterday charging Daniel Ragan and wife with assault and battery. The parties reside at Four Mile Run, where the difficulty occurred. The prosecutor alleges that the accused attacked and beat him in a shameful manner, and threw stones at him, several of which struck him. A warrant was issued for the arrest of the Ragans.

Unprovoked Assault. — James Martin made information, before Mayor Drum, yesterday, charging George Blume with assault and battery. He alleges that on Saturday evening he went into a bar in Allegheny, and just as he was entering the door he was attacked by the accused, who struck him on the head with an iron poker, inflicting a severe and ugly scalp wound. Blume was arrested and after a hearing was held to bail in the sum of $500 to answer at Court.

A Strange Case.—An information was made by Mary Strange, charging James

Mary Strange, charging James Clare with disorderly conduct. The parties are colored, and it is alleged by the prosecutrix that as she was returning from church Sunday evening the accused came up to her on the street, and throwing his arm around on the street he did not like to descend so low as to talk about Burt and Foster, but was necessary. When he started out to hunt deer he did not like to descend so low as to talk about Burt and Foster, but was necessary. When he started out to hunt deer he did not like to descend so low as to talk about Burt and Foster, but was necessary. When he started out to hunt deer he did not like to shoot at skunk." He then appealed to the working men present to know if they would supposed it was necessary. Sunday evening the accused came up to ner on the street, and throwing his arm around her attempted to kiss her. She declares that James is a naughty fellow, or he would not attempt to kiss a strange girl on the street. A warrant was issued for the man of strange tastes.

J. B. Lippincott & Co., of Philadelphia, have sent us a neat inagazine looking pamphlet of about 150 pages, called 'Short stories for Spare Hours,' which are selected from those published in Lippencott's Magazine. They have nearly all a ready received the sanction of the critics, as first rate tales and are equal to similar literature published in any other magazine. We have three young ladies of the ward. Dr. A. G. McCandless presented the flag on behalf of the ladies, and Capt. Ewing responded in a neat and appropriate address. The Seventh and Eighth Ward Club was present, having over one hundred men in the ranks. After the ceremonies were conranks. After the ceremonies were con-cluded both Clubs, headed by a martial band, marched to the meeting at Minersville, making a fine appearance.

Who Stole the Watch! Annie Hall, a colored woman, made in formation before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Annie Skinner, also colored, with the larceny of a watch and two chains, valued at $70. At the same time and place she made information charging George Harris, colored, with receiving stolen goods. Harris, colored, with receiving stolen goods. It appears that the women occupy a tenement house jointly in Kayton's alley, in the Eleventh ward, each having three distinct and separate departments. One day last week the prosecutrix having been sub poened as a witness had to attend Court, and locking up her apartments left the house, and she alleges left her watch locked up in her room. When she returned she found that her room had been broken open and the watch and chains stolen. She tin; Second Lieutenant, C. C. Fawcett; Serstates that when she left the house the accused was there, and that when she returned the house was deserted. She since learned that Annie Skinner was living in Allegheny City with Harris, and baving to believe that he had possession of the watch made information as above. Harris was arrested and held for a hearing, but the alleged larcenist is still at large.

LOCAL POLITICS.

Meeting in Sixth Ward. One of the largest ward meetings we have attended during the campaign was held at the corner of McGee street and Pennsylvania avenue, in the Sixth ward, last evening. The Sixth Ward Tanner Club and the Seventh and Eighth Grant and Colfax Club, fully equipped, with torches, etc., each headed by a band of music, were in attendance. The street in front of the speakers' stand, which was tastefully decospeakers stand, man has uscertainy deco-rated with flags and Chinese lanterns, was a dense mass of people for a full square. The meeting was called to order by Mr. John R. Wilson, who proposed the follow-

GEN. J. BOWMAN SWEITZER. General Sweitzer said he had come to addeneral sweltzer said ne had come to address a ward meeting and was delighted to see as large a crowd as if it was a convention. He was pleased to see that they took so much interest in the present contest, which is one of incalculable importance, one which is to decide for warrs the west which is one of incalculable importance, one which is to decide for years the weal or woe of our country. There is but one issue in the present campaign, and it is, shall we have peace or shall we have war. Democrats have thrown in a plank about greenbacks, but it is not a grop in the ocean, not of the slightest importance in comparison with the great issue. The General had not been an abolitionist, had as an officer of the law supported and enforced officer of the law supported and enforced in by gone times a law, which was repugnant to him, because it was a law, and the reconstruction laws had been once as disagreeable to him, but they were laws and every loyal man must support them.

The Southeners are themselves responsible for the present condition of the South They had, at one time after the war, an opportunity to accept the XIVth amendment ney nad, at one time after the war, an opportunity to accept the XIVth amendment and come in with all the rest of the States together, but they refused. They inaugurated the one-man power, and seek to get back all their old power, and more too in Congress, and to rule the black and white races as before. We oppose Seymour to prevent this great calamity. Who have combined to effect this and raise Seymour, or whoever their candidate might be, to be dictator, law-maker and Executive in one? The soldiers present know. They went out to fight against traitors for the preservation of the country and the flag, and their old enemies have united with the peace Democrats to effect their original object.

General Sweitzer believed at one time that McClellan was a greater. He had stuck to his old friends of the Democratic party as long as he could, but could do so no longer, for here when we have another cricis instead of nominating McClellan, or Hancock or Farracut, they have always and the state of the preserve and they always another cricis instead of nominating McClellan, or donger, for nore when we have another cricis instead of nominating McClellan, or Hanc-eck, or Farragut, they have chosen a Peace Democrat and gotten up a greenback dodge, refused to endorse the soldiers, and nominated a man who did not believe it was right to fight for the flag, and had said that the Confederate robel constitution was better than our own and we could not do better than adopt it. Gen Sweitzer spokestrongly for some time on the reconstruction question and finished with an eloquent enclose which he steled a little talk shows euology which he styled a little talk about General Grant.

support such men, and asked what dlaims they had upon the laboring classes. He closed his remarks with an eloquent peroration, urging upon, the Republicans the necessity of vigilance.

D. H. LYMAN, ESQ. D. H. Lyman, Esq., of the GAZETTE was then introduced, and in a brief address presented the issues in the present contest. He believed in Democracy, when construed in its proper sense; but he was by no means a modern Democrat. In the received from the same firm the October number of their well known excellent monthly.

Fiag Presentation.—The Grant Club of the Eleventh ward was presented with a beautiful silk flag last evening, the gift of three young ladies of the ward. Dr. A. G. McCandless presented the flag on behalf of the same flag on the same that but for the treason of Andrew Johnson, which inspired the Southern Democrats with a hope of regaining the "Lost Cause," the country would have long ere this have been restored to peace and quietness and would have been enjoying a degree of prosperity far greater than it had ever yet attained. ever yet attained.

At the conclusion of Mr. Lyman's remarks the meeting adjourned witimes three for Grant and Colfax.

Still They Come. Organizations for the grand demonstration on the evening of the 23d and 24th inst. are rapidly forming and completing their arrangements. A meeting of the members of Knapp's, Nevins' and Hampton's batteries was held last evening, at City Hall, and was organized by calling Major John M. Knapp to the chair.

On motion, it was resolved to organize two batteries of artillery to participate in the demonstration on the 24th, and the torchlight procession on the evening of the KNAPP'S BATTERY.

The members of Knapp's battery held an election when the following officers were elected: Captain-Wm. R. Stokes.

Lieutenants—Geo. G. Walker, Isaac Jones and Jas. P. Stewart. Sergeants—Ist, Wm. B. Rowland; 2d, David Nichol; 3d, Miles Stetler; 4th, Thomas Jones; 5th, Preston B. Schriver. HAMPTON'S BATTERY.

Captain-Robt. Paul. Captain—Itobt. Faul.

Lieutenants—(None elected.)

B th organizations will meet this Tuesday evening at 7½ o'clock, at City Hall, to receive capes, belts, blooses, &c.

The organization request all the members of Navin's Rattary to join with them bers of Nevin's Battery to join with them.

Braddock's Field Tanners' Club. This Club, organized in Braddock's Field, now numbers over one hundred members, with the following officers: Captain, M. G. Corry; First Lieutenant, Geo. Margeants, S. T. Guthrie, L. C. Frity, J. J. Stephenson, Louis F. Vandergrift, George B. Frity; Corporals, Wm. Berry, George Giles, James Fawcett, Samuel Soles, Robert McCauley, Geo. W. Soles, Robert Holdin, J. N. Baldridge. The Club now numbers one hundred and one, and is nightly adding to its number.

This is a remarkable result in a borough which last year gave the Democratic ticket which last year gave the Democratic licket seventy-one majority, and if it is a fair evidence of the change of sentiment in Allegheny county we may expect in November to roll up the good old fashioned ten thousand majority. There is no district in which more active work is being trict in which more active work is being done than in Braddocks. The young men are renewing the enthusiasm of 1860.

Mass Meeting in Allegheny-Speeches by Messrs. Penniman, Howard and Campbell.

The Republicans of Allegheny assembled n large numbers last evening in front of their Headquarters in the Diamond square, opposite City Hall, to join in another grand ally for Grant and Colfax. The music on the occasion was furnished by the Germania Brass Band. At half past seven o'clock an organiza-tion was effected with the following officers:

President—Henderson E. Davis.
Vice President—Dr. Campbell.
Addresses were made by Messrs. F. B.
Penniman, Thomas Howard and Dr. Camppell, which were received with enthusiastic app ause. The meeting adjourned at ten o'clock with three rousing cheers for Grant and Colfax.

Meeting at Minersville. The Republicans of the Thirteenth ward and vicinity held a mass meeting at Minersville last evening. A stand had been erected near the school house for the accommodation of the speakers, around which over a thousand persons were assembled. The meeting was organized by calling Isa'ah Dickey, E.q., to the Chair, and appointing a number of Vice-Presidents and Secretaries.

Major A. M. Brown was then introduced o the meeting and made an able address.

After the meeting was organized, their numbers were swelled by the arrival of the Grant Clubs from the Seventh, Eighth and Eleventh wards, equipped with torches, &c. Many of the houses along Centre Avenue and in the vicinity of the meeting were brilliantly illuminated.

The meeting was a grand success in every Alleged Larceny.

Michael Herbstoe made information yesterday before Alderman Strain against one Gangwisch, charging him with larceny. Gangwisch keeps a saloon on Penn street, and the defendant alleges that he was in ternate felds of a piece of a Boston newspaper. There were other parties in the saloon at the time, who went away in a short time, followed by Herbstoe, who went into another saloon, and while there discovered that his money was gone. He immediately went back to Gangwisch's saloon and made induiries but nobody know anything about nquiries, but nobody knewanything about it. Just as he was going away he saw the piece of paper in which the money had been wrapped, lying on the counter, and, upon examination, found one hundred dollars to be accounted for, which he charges Gangwisch with having stolen. He also makes another charge against Gangwisch for larange in the counter of the mountains, and that they can purchase from 15 to 25 per cent less at this house than at any cotemporary establishmouse. wisch with having stolen. Attempted Outrage. On Thursday last Mrs. Daughtery, wife of John Daugherty, was assaulted by a villain who attempted to outrage her person, and was only foiled in his hellish purpose by the terrible resistance by the lady. At the time stated she left her home with the intent on of visiting her father, who resides on the hill above T imperanceville. She crosed the river to Temperanceville, and while ascending the hill above that and whils ascending the hill above that town noticed a man following closely behind her. Just as she reached a secluded portion of the road the villian quickened his steps and as soon as he reached her he seized her and threw her to the ground. He place his hards over her mouth, but he seized her and threw her to the ground. He place his hands over her mouth, but she struggled so violently that he was compelled to loose his grasp, and after receiving numerous scratches, and several bites, he relinquished his object and ran away.
