CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Daily Prayer Meeting—From 12 M. to 12:30 o'clock at the Rooms of the Christian Association, No. 23 Fifth street.

The Procession To-Night.—On our fifth page this morning we publish the names of the aids to the officers having charge of the procession to-night and to-morrow, together with the routes of procession. It will prove of general interest to all readers.

All are invited to turn out to-night.

It is estimated that $8,000 will complete the Cathedral tower from the point it has attained.

The Seventh and Eighth Wards Grant and Coltax Club will find a notice of interest on the fifth page of this paper.

The Democrats have as yet found no place to put their pole, and it continues to grace the gutter of Fifth street.

This day and the night following will be of equal length. After this the nights will be lengthening and the days shortening.

Petty Theft.—The chap in the Pittsburgh post-office who stole a bit of wedding cake on Saturday night has not been prosecuted.

Company "A," Grant Hussars, are requested to meet on Liberty street in front of Hare's at 6½ o'clock this evening, fully equipped for parade.

The National Guard, Capt. Schoonmaker, are requested to assemble this evening at half past six o'clock precisely, on Pitt street, corner of Liberty.

Republicans come out in your might to-night.

I. O. of O. F.—McFarl and Lodge, No. 30, will attend in a body the funeral of Past Grand, F. W. Cluley this afternoon. Members of other lodges are respectfully invited to attend.

Grant Hussars.—Company "A," Captain D. Dunseath, will form into line to-night on Liberty street, opposite Hare's Hotel, at half-past six o'clock sharp, fully equipped. Let there be no laggards.

Improvements.—There has been more improvement in the Southside boroughs during the past year than there was for the five preceding years. A larger number and better class of buildings have been erected, and considerably more grading and paving done.

Wilkins Hall, Fourth avenue, the elegant headquarters of the Second Ward Grant Club, will be open all day and night for the accommodation and reception of visitors. The Kittanning Grant Club has been assigned the Second ward as guests during their visit.

Cross Suits.—Ellen Carrol and Margaret Cunningham, whose names are familiar to the readers of police news, are spending their time in making informations against each other. They each made information against the other before the Mayor yesterday for surety of the peace.

Dull.—Police business in both cities and the surrounding boroughs is exceedingly dull at present. The minds of the people are so engrossed with politics that they have no time for litigation. The magistrates deplore this state of affairs, but expect a rich harvest after the election.

No loyal citizen will refuse to join the procession to-night.

Close the Stores.—We would respectfully suggest that the wholesale and retail stores of the city be closed at four o'clock this afternoon in order to give all fair chance for participating in the grand parade to-night. Most of the mills and workshops will quit work at the same hour.

Parade.—The Third ward, Allegheny, Grant and Colfax Club, about one hundred strong, and commanded by Capt. Gang, paraded the streets for drill, in the ward, last evening. They were uniformed with light drab caps and capes and equipped with torches, which made their appearance very creditable.

Assault and Battery.—Robt. Rankin made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Ed, Snowden, N. Wishart, J. Hatfield and F. Smith with assault and battery. Rankin is employed on the steamer "Active" and the defendants are employes on the "Elisha Bennet." Warrants were issued for the arrest of the accused.

Fifth Ward, Allegheny.—All parties in this ward desiring to paticipate in the torchlight procession this evening are desired to report to the Marshal at the Grant and Colfax Headquarters, Beaver avenue, below Ohio avenue, promptly at six o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all Republican citizens of the ward to participate.

The Wharf.—Contractor Flynn has a large number of hands employed in grading the Monongahela wharf, and the work, although progressing comparatively slow, is being prosecuted as rapidly as the circumstances of the case will admit. The recent rise in the river not only damaged the work materially, but has caused considerable delay in the grading.

Every Republican is wanted in line to-night with torch in his hand.

Weather Prognostications.—"G. A." gives the following prognostications of the weather for the ensuing month: From September 16th, to October 15th, there will be twenty-one cloudy and variable days, seventeen of rain, eight sunshine days. There will be damp, rainy weather more than usual for October, and there will be an unusual number of frosts. The indications for the winter are that the weather will be generally cold.

Being Repaired.—Keeling's coal railway on Railroad street, East Birmingham, which for several years past has been out of use in consequence of a suit pending in court relative to the right of way, and had become very much out of repair. The suit having been decided in favor of Mr. Keeling, the road is being repaired and will soon be in operation again. It is one of the longest inclines in this vicinity, being over three miles in length.

Captured.—Officer McCready yesterday captured Sarah Mitchell, a colored woman, charged on oath of S. N. Hall with the larceny of a watch and chain valued at seventy dollars. She had a hearing before the Mayor, at which it was proven she had been seen with a watch answering the description of the one stolen, and that she offered to sell it for three dollars She was locked up for a further hearing this morning but will doubtless be committed to answer the charge at Court.

Let no one be a moment too late for the procession to-night. Let the forces rally promptly and the procession move sharp at the time appointed.

The Marching Phalanx of the old Sixth ward (now Seventh and Eighth) held a business meeting last evening, at which there was a large attendance. Considerable business relative to the grand procession to-night was transacted, after which a resolution of thanks to John W. Pittock, Esq., was passed for the very prompt and satisfactory manner in which he furnished the uniforms, torches, flags and decorations ordered by the Club. The old Sixth ward proposes turning out in all her strength to-night and making a display highly creditable to her long established loyalty and public spirit.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

On the opening of the Court, the motion for a new trial in the case of the United States vs. the Vinnegar Manufactory et. al., of Arthur Ballou, was called up for argument. A. M. Brown, Esq., and Hon. P. C. Shannon, spoke in favor of the motion, and District Attorney Carnahan and General Collier in opposition thereto. The Court took possession of the papers, and will give a decision at a future day.

The bankruptcy list was then taken up. The case of De Pui & Nichols was continued for trial at Williamsport.

The case of John G. Simons vs. Mary Sands was taken up. This was an issue joined on allegations of acts of bankruptcy set forth in the petition of the creditor. Messrs. S. A. and W. S. Purviance appeared for petitioning creditors, and Messrs. Kirker, J. K. Kerr, R. B. Patterson and Gen. A. B. M'Calmont for defendant. The case is still on trial.

In the bankruptcy branch petitions for final discharge were filed by W. H. Wagstaff, Pittsburgh; Elijah F. Parker, Allegheny county; Wm. M. Hunter, Tidiute, Warren county.

A petition for adjudication was filed by E. J. Purple, Tioga county.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

[Before Judge Sterrett.]

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Matthew Keep, indicted for forcible entry and detainer, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and directed that the defendant pay one-half the costs, and the prosecution, Wm. Laughlin, the other half.

The next case called was that of the Commonwealth vs. Teddy McCarthy, indicted on oath of Daniel McMullen for felonious assault and battery. The offense alleged in the indictment was committed on the night of July 27th, 1867. The prosecutor was a Lieutenant on the police force of Mayor McCarthy, and at the time stated he went into Richter's beer saloon, on Penn street, to quell a disturbance. While in there he was struck on the head with a beer glass, alleged to have been in the hands of the defendant. The Commonwealth is represented by Messrs. Kirkpatrick and Linn, and the defense by Messrs. Swartzwelder and Moreland. Mr. Linn opened the case by briefly narrating the circumstances under which the offense was committed, and proceeded to call witnesses as follows:

Daniel McMullen, sworn—On or about the 27th of July, 1867, I was in the Fifth ward, in company with Edward Quinn. I was a Lieutenant of the police under Mayor McCarthy; I was posting the men on their beats; at about ten o'clock on the 27th of July I heard a noise in a saloon on Penn street. I went in and told Richter, the proprietor, he had better shut up his house for about twenty minutes; he said he would, and went out and put up the shutters. Teddy McCarthy then said he did not care a d—m for the Mayor or any of his policemen, and commenced shoving me around. I told him to be quiet, as I did not wish to have any trouble with him. He then wanted me to take a glass of beer; I refused and soon after he struck me on the head with a beer glass: I was rendered insensible for a time, and don't know how often I was struck after the first time. [Mr. McMullen here exhibited to the jury the scar on his head produced by the blow from the beer glass in the hands of McCarthy, showing a fracture of the skull.] I was confined to bed about six weeks after I was hurt, and was attended by Drs. Dickson, Hamilton, McCook and others. My limbs were paralyzed and I lost my speech for some time after I received the injuries, and, I believe from the effects of those injuries. The impediments in my speech at this time were produced by the blow on the head. McCarthy, after he struck me, ran across the street, into a drug store. I had no difficulty with him before this occurrence, but I arrested him about three weeks before. At the time of the difficulty on the night of the 27th of July I did not say or do anything out of the way to McCarthy before he struck me.

On cross-examination the witness said he did not recollect telling the Mayor that he did not know who struck him. In an examination before Judge Stowe, at the time of an application for a reduction of the bail, he did not say that he did not know who struck him. He did not know any one in the house but Teddy McCarthy. As he pulled his mace out Teddy struck him.

Drs. McCook and McDonald were called and testified as to the nature of the injuries inflicted upon McMullen, and his condition at that time and since. Dr. McCook pronounced the opinion that McMullen would never recover from the effects of the blow on his skull. In reply to a question by Mr. Swartzweider, as to whether an injury like that received by McMullen, would impair a man's memory, Dr. McCook stated that after the recovery of his thinking faculties, a man who had received such an injury would be able to remember everything distinctly up to the time at which the injury was inflicted; his mind would be confused as to events occurring subsequently. In this opinion Dr. McDonald concurred.

At three P. M. Court adjourned till ten A. M. to-day.

Advise your neighbors to turn out to-night in the procession.

There were but two bids received, one being as stated and the other $2,75.

Large Republican Meeting at Blairsville Junction—Interesting Speeches.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Republicans of Westmoreland county was held at Blairsville Junction, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, on Saturday evening, the 19th inst. The meeting was organized by selecting the following named officers: President, Israel Gray; Vice President, Col. J. B. Ogden; Secretary, Thomas Estep. The first speaker introduced was H. H. McCormick, Esq., of the Pittsburgh bar, who addressed the meeting in a lengthy and forcible speech. Mr. McCormick argued the recoustruction and the bond question both elaborately, and proved that the policy proposed by the Democratic party would, if adopted and carried result in the disgrace and ruin of the nation.

At the conclusion of Mr. McCormick's address, the Chairman introduced John F. Wentling, Esq., of the Greensburg bar. Mr. Wentling reviewed the record of the Democratic party and exposed its hypocrisy and treachery in the past, and argued therefrom what a stupendous and fatal blunder it would be on the part of the American people to place the control of the Government once more in its hands. He reminded the Democrats of their habit, during the war, of howling at every measure adopted for the suppression of the rebellion as unconstitutional, and predicted that in a few years hence they would be as heartily ashamed of their conduct as were the Tories of the Revolution; Mr. Wentling concluded with an appeal to all present to turn out at the October election and vote to secure the State for Grant and Colfax and the return of Hon. John Covode to Congress. The meeting then adjourned with three cheers for the Republican ticket. The speakers were very handsomely entertained by Col. J. B. Ogden, the Vice President of the meeting.

Say by your appearance in procession to-night that Allegheny county will give ten thousand majority for Grant and Colfax.

Allegheny Bridge Navigation.

According to published call, a meeting of Lumber men, Steamboatmen Oil men and others interested in the navigation of the Allegheny river was held yesterday afternoon, at three o'clock, in the rooms of the Petroleum Association, Dalzells's building, corner Duquense Way and Irwin streets.

Capt. Geo. W. Cochran was called to the Chair, and Capt. J. T. Stockdale chosen Secretary.

The Chairman stated the object of the meeting to be, to take some action in regard to the obstruction of navigation on the river by the pier now being built in the channel at Brady's Bend.

It seems that a company has been incorporated to build a bridge across the river at the point named, and in the progress of the work a pier has been partially completed which, it is claimed, is a very great obstruction to the navigation of the stream. Considerable discussion took place in regard to the matter, participated in by a number of those conversant with the situation of the obstruction, all of whom agreed that if it be allowed to remain, navigation of the river must be suspended.

It was finally concluded to consult legal counsel in the matter, and for this purpose a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Frederick Fisher, Thomas Jackson and Captain Ferguson, was appointed and empowered to act in accordance with legal advice.

The meeting then adjourned to convene at the call of the committee.

Every Republican is wanted in the line of procession to-night.

What Ward will to-night earn the proud title of banner district?

Honor Where Honor is Due.

In our notice yesterday of the beautiful silk flag presented to the Eleventh Ward Grant Club, we failed to award the proper credit due Miss Lide C. Hays and the Misses Clara and Ada McCutcheon, through whose patriotic efforts and liberality the magnificent national emblem was purchased. The flag is of the very best quality of silk, of exquisite workmanship, and on its blue field has emblazoned bright gold stars. It cost in the neighborhood of one hundred and fifty dollars, and the Club, as well as all Republican voters of the ward, are duly proud and grateful. The young ladies have set a worthy example which we trust will be followed by those of other neighborhoods.

What Republican will not be in the ranks to-night?

Who Is He?

Mayor Drum yesterday received a telegraphic dispatch from Cleveland, which read as follows: "Has any reward been offered for the arrest of Harvey, a confidence man. He can be had." As neither the Mayor nor his officers knew anything about Harvey, or his operations, they were unable to give any information in regard to him—perhaps some of the victims in the confidence transactions, which have occurred hereabouts lately, might be able to say something regarding Harvey's case.

Meeting at New Texas.—The meeting at New Texas, Plum township, yesterday, was a complete success, notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The farmers for miles around came in their wagons, and a large delegation from this city accompanied by a brass band were in attendance. The meeting was organized by calling Mr. W. A. Tomlinson to the chair, and appointing a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. Gen. J. B. Sweitzer and other able speakers addressed the meeting, and notwithstanding the rain fell incessantly, the vast audience were enthusiastic and attentive.

Pittsburgh Boat Sunk.—The steamer "Silver Cloud" No 2, Capt. Jno. B. Conway, sank on the bar below the Belmont coal works Monday morning. She had just taken a coal barge in tow, and shortly after rounding out struck a rock, sinking in seven feet of water. Her cargo was principally pig iron. She was insured in the Commercial, Queen City, Crescent, America, and Ohio Valley Companies of Cincinnati.

The Demonstration.

The Republican demonstration which takes place in this city to-night and to-morrow bids fair to be a complete success, notwithstanding the unfavorable aspect of the weather. The call for campaign goods, such as caps, capes, belts, leggings, torches, flags, lanterns, &c., has exceeded the expectation of all the dealers, and had it not been for the shrewdness and foresight of one of them—Pittock, opposite the Postoffice—the supply would have been inadequate to meet the demand. To Pittock's enterprise we are therefore indebted, as it will enable many to make a fine display this evening and to-morrow, who would otherwise have been unable to do so. Notwithstanding the demand for all the above named campaign goods of all descriptions has been unprecedented, Pittock has been able to meet it. He has filled all his numerous orders with promptness and dispatch, and has still a supply of goods on hand for the accomodation of those who have been unable to obtain them from other sources. His goods are of the very best quality, and can be purchased at the most reasonable prices. Persons coming from the country who are in want of anything in that line should not fail to call at Pittock's early in order to have their orders filled promptly. His stock of flags is the most extensive brought to this city and comprises all sizes, from the regulation flag down to the smallest, and up to the largest garrison flags, ranging in quality from the most common material to the finest silk, so that the purchaser cannot fail to be suited in price, quality and quantity. His stock of badges is also very large, and includes all styles manufactured. Send in your orders for anything you want in the way of campaign goods, from a ten cent badge to a two hundred dollar flag, and Pittock will fill it on the most reasonable terms and with all possible dispatch. Remember the place to get campaign goods is John W. Pittock's, corner Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, opposite the Postoffice.

Let no Republican stay in doors to-night.

Amusements.

OHERA HOUSE.—The great spectacular drama of the "White Fawn," which had such an unprecedented run in all the Eastern cities, is now the attraction at the Opera House in this city. Its principal feature—like other spectacular drama, is the ballet, and the troupe now at the Opera House is a most excellent one. Morlacchi, the primo ballorino, is truly an artisie, and fully deserving of the world-wide reputation she enjoys. Her dancing is the poetry of motion, every movement is full of grace and skill; she glides over the stage so light and fairy like as to lead the observer to believe her a moving shadow. She has attained a position in her profession seldom reached by any one, and with all her fame, is as modest as she is brilliant. The lesser lights in the troupe are, many of them, fine artis es, and were highly applauded by the audience during the entertainment. The audience, notwithstanding the rain, was quite large, and from the manner in which they expressed their approval of the entertainment, it is quite evident that "spectacular" is not yet void of attraction in Pittsburgh.

Ladies' Furs.

We frequently hear the question asked, "How is it that ladies's furs are sold at less prices at the great and popular fur establishment of William Fleming, No. 139 Wood street, than at any other house in the city?" The great secret in the case is this, that the business is so systematized in all branches that in purchasing and selling Mr. Fleming has many decided advantages, so that he is enabled to sell goods at the lowest possible profit that business can be transacted upon—in fact, in many cases this extensive house is able to sell its goods to retail patrons at much less than smaller or old fogy houses have to pay for their stocks.

Having laid in the largest and finest assortment of furs ever brought to this city, Mr. Fleming is prepared to offer unprecedented bargains to his numerous patrons. Readers should by all means call and look through the immense stock before purchasing elsewhere. Great pleasure is taken in showing goods to all who call.

Republicans turn out to-night.

Christian Advocate.

The annual meeting of the Publishing Committee of this paper was held yesterday at their office in Singerly's building, Third avenue. The Committee consists of Rev. W. B. Watkins, A. M., of Steubenville, Ohio; Rev. D. L. Dempsy, D.D., of Beaver, Pa.; Rev. R. H. Hurlburt, of Newcastle, Pa.; Rev. J. Tribby, of Geneva, Ohio, and Rev. G. Martin and Rev. A. J. Lyda, of Wheeling, West Virginia. The report of the Committee shows the paper to be in a most prosperous condition, the receipts being largely in advance of any previous year. The Committee deemed it advisable on account of the great increase of editorial labor consequent upon the enlargement of the paper, which took place some time ago, to appoint an assistant editor whose time should be wholly devoted to the duties of the office; and it being considered expedient to elect a Minister of one of the patronizing conferences, the choice fell upon Rev. E. A. Johnson, of Jamestown, New York, who is said to be eminently qualified to fill the position.

The Committee cordially endorse the editorial management of Rev. S. H. Nesbit, D.D., and tendering thanks to Rev. W. H. Kinkaid for valuable editorial assistance, which will doubtless still be continued, and to J. A. Moore, Esq., business manager, for capable and laborious service.

Centre Avenue Property, Minersville.

The handsomely situated and very desirable property of W. M. Gormly, Esq., on Centre avenue, Minersville, now city of Pittsburgh, is advertised in our columns, under auction head, for sale. This fine homestead has been sub-divided into seven large lots; on one of which is the excellent brick double mansion, and on another is a two-story frame dwelling. The improvements are complete in every comfort and convenience. This opportunity is very inviting to purchasers. For particulars, see McIlwaine's auction advertisement.

Malicious Mischief.—W. J. McFetridge made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging David Jones with malicious mischief. It appears that Jones assaulted a small boy, and abused him for marching in a Republican procession, and the boy to get away from him ran into the prosecutor's store, 480 Penn street. Jones followed him, but the boy was protected by Mr. McFetridge, whereupon Jones went out and maliciously broke the glass in the window. He will have a hearing this morning.

Large Castings.—Two large castings have just been successfully completed at the Fort Pitt Foundry, being a part of the machinery for the new St. Louis Water Works, the owners of the Fort Pitt Foundry having the contract for supplying the same. The castings just completed consist of a "walking beam," weighing twenty-six tons, and is thirty feet long and seven feet wide, and a monster cylinder, weighing thirteen tons, and is fourteen feet long and seven feet in diameter.

To Epicures.—To all that class of persons called epicures who know how to enjoy the good things of this life, the arrival of the oyster season is hailed with delight, and we would take occasion to say to all who are fond of the bivalves, and desire to partake of them where they are prepared in the most palatable manner possible, to call at Holtzheimer's dining rooms. Fifth avenue, next door to the Postoffice. You can get them there in every conceivable style, and can also get anything else usually found in a first class restaurant.

Fall and Winter Dry Goods.—New fall and winter goods in endless variety are now arriving at Bates & Bell's, No. 21 Fifth street. Ladies will find many new novelties to please and delight them in the way of dress goods, shawls and sacques. Call in and see for yourselves. The entire stock of summer goods is being closed out at most reasonable prices.

Illuminate.—Republicans residing on the line of the procession to-night should illuminate their dwellings, put off fire works and hang out flags and transparencies. W. P. Hunker & Co., Nos. 222 and 224 Liberty street, have on hand a splendid lot of fireworks suitable for the demonstration to-night.

Twenty-first Ward.—The Assessor of the Twenty-first ward will be at Huber's store, on the Frankstown road, in said ward, Wednesday, between 6 and 7 o'clock p. m. All those not having been assessed should call upon him at that time and place.

The construction of the Nicolson pavement does not prevent the ladies from attending the great sale of dry goods and trimmings at W. W. Morehead's, No. 81 Market, where goods are being sold at unusually low rates.

81 Market Street is the place the ladies go to purchase dry goods and trimmings. The immense stock of fall and winter goods now being opened at this establishment offers superior advantages to purchasers.

New Treatment.—For chronic diseases of the eye, ear, head, throat, lungs, heart, stomach, liver, &c., at Dr. Aborn's Medical and Surgical Rooms, 134 Smithfield street, half a square from the Postoffice. No charge for consultation. tf
