

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

For the Pittsburgh Gazette. THAT LINE. 'Twas a dark, dreary line and a line of blood. A line drawn with the pen of a life.

EPHEMERIS. Prince Dolgorouy is dead. Omaha has 1800 inhabitants. St. Louis has a naturalized Chinese.

THE ATLANTIC TELEGRAPH CABLE. At a recent general meeting of the stockholders of the Anglo-American Telegraph Company, held on September 7th, the President, Sir Richard A. Glass, stated that its proportion of the earnings of the cable, from May 1st to July 31st, had averaged $2,482, the minimum tariff during that period being $25.

THE REGULAR fall fashions "open" in New York on the 23d, and the trade are making great preparations accordingly. It is of some importance to be assured that French poplins will be much used for street wear, and that these are chamelion, purple and gold, or red and blue, as well as in plain colors; also, that Scotch plaids, in green, blue and brown, in woolen, will be much used for carriage wraps this season.

Radicals. Two now it has succeeded in misleading the subscribers by false reports purporting to be from Maine, but evidently from somewhere else. The educational charges at Oxford University, England, have been greatly reduced. A student now only pays an entrance fee of twenty-five dollars, and a yearly fee of seventeen and a half dollars.

Democrat roosters don't need coaxing to make them sing as loudly as they know how. They seem to be as blessed with a superabundance of lives as a cat, and every shadow of a ghost of a hope of victory brings them out again. Well, we can't blame them for wanting to crow, but with so many on one post some of them will have to clear out or there will be a row in the hen coop.

THE NEW YORK Sun has at last probed and exposed the great "wickedest man" swindle. It says: "The wickedest man in his trade, for the use of his bar-room for one hour a day for religious meetings, provided the sale of whiskey and the former business of the place are discontinued during that period."
