The Nittsburgh Guzette.

LOVE'S QUEEN. He loves not well whose love is bold:
I would not have thee come too nigh:
The sun's gold would not seem pure gold
Unless the sun were in the sky.
To take him thence and chain him near,
Would make his beauty disappear.

He keeps his state; do thou keep thine,
And shine upon him from afar;
So shall I bask in light divine
That falls from love's own guiding star.
So shall thy eminence be high,
And so my passion shall not die.

But all my life shall reach its hands
Of lofty long! g toward thy face,
And he as one who sheetchless stands
In ripture at some perfect grace.
My love, my hope, my all shall be
To look to heaven and look to thee.

But thou the self shall not come down
From that pure region far above:
But keep thy throne and wear thy crown,—
Que n of my heart and queen of love!
A monarch in thy realin complete,
And I a monarch—at thy feet.
