—The dentists of Boston are puzzled over the best way to extract the cube root of a given tooth. "Many are called but few are chosen"

—In Riverside, Mass., some excitement has been occasioned by the poisoning of cats and hens by eating clams. School boards, as a general thing, wooden men, joined together without regard to the interests of little shavers.

—Boston manufactures two thousand barrels of sugar daily. There is a good demand from the West, and three thousand barrels were shipped last week.

—A promising young student in Paris, while recently dissecting a diseased corpse, thoughtlessly applied his hand to an abrasure on his lip. Perceiving the consequences he quietly retired to his room and died without uttering one word of regret or telling any one of his inadvertence.

—Among the banners carried at the great Republican rally at Rock Island was one having the following arcaic: U Good Radicals Are Never Traitors
