THE NEW REBELLION IN WEST VIRGINIA The Wheeling Intelligencer speaks of the lawless opposition of the rebel Democracy to the registration system in that State as follows: At Fairmont we learn that a great crowd

If such a thing should happen in Marion, what are we to expect in Barbour, Randolph, Gilmer, Braxton, Hardy, Wayne, Cabelle, etc. We shall not be surprised to hear that in many of the +border and southern counties, attempts have been made, and it may be successfully to break up the boards of registraand responsible Republicans. All you need | tion and destroy the books by force. There is scarcely any doubt that the Democrats of this State are united in a secret organization, either the Ku-Klux-Klan, Knights of the Golden Circle, or some similar conclave. We have positive information that in some counties where the disfranchised rebels outnumber the loyal voters they have resolved to vote by force or prevent an election. There is reason to fear a concealed plot of this kind exists in reference to a large part of the State, and that nnless restrained by fear of superior force they will attempt to execute their purpose.

Rebuke to One of the Seymour Conspirators, Major General Edward M. M'Cook, of Ohio, a brave and gallant officer during the war, and now United States Minister to the Sandwich Islands, in a letter dated Honolulu, Aug. 29, to Senator Conness, writes as follows :

"The news of the Democratic nominations has arrived, and I think they are radically weak-the very weakest combination that could have been made-the War Democrats won't vote for Seymour, because he was a Copperhead, and the Copperheads was a Coppernead, and the Copperneads won't vote for Blair, because he wore a blue instead of a gray uniform. Much to my disgust I saw that a cousin of mine, Geo. W. M'Cook, had proposed the name of Seymour to the Convention, as the man who would drive the Radical cabal at Washington from power, &c. "I am sorry that I cannot be at home this fall, on George's account; he is somewhat powerful on the stump in Ohio, and I would like to follow him around and neutralize the effect of his rhetoric, by stating the fact that he is the only one of all his name who supports Seymour and Blair, and the only male member of the family who was not in the army during the war. I should think the spirits of his dead father and brothers, who laid down their lives in defence of the Union, would haunt him with continual reproaches. I think this a pretty good illustration of the way things will go at the election; the soldiers will vote as they shot-against the rebels-and Copperheads will be Democrats still, as they always have been."

Considering how all his oid comrades now stand on the BLAIN and Revolution question, this is another significant protest from "Little MAC" against the present rebel pattern of Democ-
