THE WELCOME.

Another bairn cam' hame—
Hame to mither and me!—
It was yes reen in the gloamin',
When scarce was light to see
The wee bit bit face o' the darlin',
Thar it; greetin cry was heard,
And our crowded neste made a place
To hold anither bird!

Six little bonnie mouths,
Ah me! tak' minckle to fill,
But to grudge the bit i' the seventh
For mither and me were ill!
Oh! nestle no closer, dearle,
Lie saft on the snowy breast,
Where fart life's fountain floweth
When thy twa warm libs are prest.

The rich man counteth his cares
By the shinin' gowd iti's hand,
By 's harvests that whiten the land.
The pair man counteth his blessings
By the ring o' voices sweet.
By the hope that glints in bairnies' cen,
By the sound o' bairnies' feet.

An' it's welcome hame, my darlin'!
Hame to mither and me!
An' it's never may be find less o' love
Than the love ye frought wil ye!
Cauld are the blasty o' the wild wind,
And rough the warld may be:
But warn's the hame o' the wee one
In the hearts o' mither and me!

CLIPPINGS. PHIEARETE CHASLES, the French author, tries to prove mathematically that female emancipation won't do. "Man," he says, needs woman to multiply/himself. Man is one, add woman to it, you have ten, the mother and her children; but you must not try to place woman above man; for if instead of 10, you prefer 01, you have only onetenth, gq. e. d."

THERE were many instances in Boston at the last election in which persons, who had soled the Democratic ticket for very many years, cast their first Republican ballot. The most notable case was that of an old gentleman nearly ninety years of age, who came up to the polls with the whole Republican ticket, saying that he had all his life voted with the Democratic party.

THE New York Tribune says: The Republicans of this State and of the whole country will gladly learn that the move-ment to detect and expose the gigantic frauds whereby the vote of this City was so monstrously falsified is being prosecuted with vigor and resolution. They may rest assured that it will be pushed on to the end. Particulars will be given in due season.

A CANDIDATE FOR DEATH.—The followdesirous of meeting with an English gentleman who will promise to settle 10,000 francs upon his children. He will then place himself entirely at the disposal of the gentleman, to fight all his duels, mount the summit of a glacier, descend into the crater of Vesuvius, or precipitate himself from a balloon. A rebel paper of New Orleans publishes the returns of twenty-three parishes, which gave an aggregate Democratic majority of 32,032. In eight of these not a solitary Republican vote was cast, and five others gave respectively one, nine, two, one and thirteen Republi-can votes. The freedom which existed may be inferred from the fact that these parishes, for the most part, have a very heavy colored

He refused, and his assailants stripped the flesh from his body, but he refused to recant; they broke his legs, but he declined to fore-swear his honor and his faith; they then hung him by the neck till he died, a martyr to his church and his country. After the horrid murder, the colored people were premitted to take the body of their pastor down, and give it a decent burial.

THE INDIANS.-A gentleman of Cleveland, Ohio, has issued a circular asking aid to assist the Indians in making their own to assist the Indians in making their own blankets. This gentleman has traveled among the Indians and has noticed their among the Indians and has noticed their love for bright colors, and their desire to be taught to weave on hand-looms. A COMING CONSTITUTIONAL AMEND-MENT. - A private letter received at Washington on the 7th from a well known Republican Senator, states that he has prepared and will introduce into the Senate when Congress meets, a constitutional amendment providing for universal man-hood suffrage in all of the States. He says that it can obtain the requisite two thirds vote of each House, and can be submitted to the required three-fourths of the State Legislatures, which convene next winter. It will be recollected that two Senators favor. ed such an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, in open debate in the Senate, last session.

THE American Consul at Larnica, Cyprus, has made, by the aid of a peasant, an immensely valuable discovery of Phoenician and Greek antiquities, in an ancient Greek burial-place at the village of Dali, the site of Indalium, once the capital of the kingdom. The surface of the burial-place is described as from seven to eight acres, the Greek graves being some three feet deep, but having, six or seven feet below them, a stratum of Phonician tombs of stone, and oven shaped. In these were found vases, statuary, jeweiry of gold and silver, precious stones, coins, weapons and armor, household and table utensils, ornaments of

The mines of one district alone are, according to the St. Petersburgh journal Golos, capable of supplying annually 300,000 tons for one hundred and fifty or two hundred years. Since 1864 there have been surveyed in the valley of the Don forty-four beds, the aggregate quantity of which is estimated at more than eighteen billions of tons. The Golos' asserts that the mineral wealth of Russia far exceeds that of England, and at the same rate of production, would last for two centuries after the English mines had been ex-

Vast deposits of ore, hitherto considered useless, it is asserted, can now be manufactured into first class steel.

THE female working classes in Paris, according to official statistics, number 106,810 persons, who are divided into three sections. The first consists of 17,203 women, who are paid from ten to twenty cents per day; the second of 88,340, who earn thirty to eighty cents a day, and the third in a French paper: "A man much discouraged, and who wishes to end his life, is designed of many and who wishes to end his life, is designed of markets and who wishes to end his life, is designed of markets and who wishes to end his life, is are a great many girls under sixteen years of age, most of whom get beside their wages lodging, food and washing free. THE Rutland county (Vt.) Journal says? "The history of the growth of wool is very curious. A REPUBLICAN PROTECTIVE TARIFF. The Republicans, true to the policy that has proved so briliant a success thus far, propose to increase the tariff rather than to reduce it, contending that what we should lose in custom receipts we should more than make up in enhanced internal revenue, in consequence of the multiplication of industrial works, the improved condition of the mass of the people, the increase of capital and the general diffusion of prosperity. THE DAYS OF Dick Turpin and Sixteen String Jack are being revived in this country. The Little Falls (N. Y.) Johnnal states that Mr. John Snyder, a farmer living about three miles from Herkimer, when returning from the village on Wednesday evening, was suddenly attacked by two men, pulled out of the wagon and dragged into the woods, where he was robbed and left for dead.
