First Anniversary Meeting-Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer-Addresses by The first anniversary of the Women's

The meeting was called to order at 7% o'clock by Wm. A. Herron, Esq., upon whose motion Dr. Howard was called to the chair and Felix R. Brunot, Esq., ap-after which the annual report of the Secretary, Miss Mattie J. Fowler, was read by Mr. Brunot. From the report, which was a carefully prepared and interesting document, we learn that the Association was or-genized immediately after the first anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association one year ago. The first meeting was held at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, at which $1,640 was subscribed for carrying out the objects of the organization. At the second meeting, held a week later, two hundred ladies were present, and manifested their willingness to engage in the work. The city was subsequently districted, and one hundred and sequently districted, and one initiated and six ladies appointed, two for each district, to canvass florgame and distribute tracts and papers, and read the Scriptures to those whom they found willing to listen.

For five morths the Committees worked faithfully, but subsequent to that time the work had been languishing on account of the want of laborers. Ninety-two reports of the work done show that three thousand three hundred and thirty-eight visits have been made, three thousand and nine eighty-eight papers and a number of small works have been distributed. Of the families visited most of them did not attend religious worship anywhere, none, of the children were attendants of a Sabbath School, and twenty-seven families were found destitute of a Rible. One man was found, who, though living in close proxin ity to three churches, had not been inside of one for seventeen years. Three or fond prayer-mostings have been held, and through their influence some have been converted from the error of their ways. A Committee visited the jail twice a week, and some repentant ones from this institution have been furnished with homes, and give promise of leading a better life henceforth. The Committee appointed to visit the Penitentiary are encouraged to pelieve that their efforts have been productive of good to many of the innuates of that One wanderer was brought institution. One wanderer was brought back and in her late illness gave proof of that inward change which fitted her for death. The efforts of the Association in this respect, impressed its members with the importance of having a temporary Home for destitute women, and after mature deliberation the house No. 45 Chatam street was obtained for this purpose. The house was made ready for occupancy by the first thousand dollars have been already paid on the house, leaving two thousand dollars still due. Up to the present time there have been sixty-six adults and seventeen child-ron furnished with accommodations. Its occupants are variously employed, and every thing done to make it home-like and cheerful. Religious services are held every Sabbath afternoon and weekly prayer-meetings in addition to the regular morndred and lifty dollars per annum. assistant at a salary of one hundred and thirty dollars. Through the efforts of Hons. Geo. R. Riddle and Russell Errett a char-

was thus laboring it became evident that a permauent refuge for this class of persons was needed and they have been making efforts to have one established.

and thus the association was placed on a permanent basis. While the association stitution, which added to the amount al-ready subscribed, amounts to four thous-and two hundred dollars. Mr. Kelly has alse offered a site of five acres for a "Home for Aged Women." can be built. The Association desires to start a boarding house for working women, similar to the one in New York city which gives a home to four hundred women, with all the necessary comforts and conveniences of life. As yet, however, the means for this are not at hand, and until the hearts of the benevolent are opened, it must remain unrealized. Nothing is now being done for the news boys, either temporarily or for the news boys, either temporarily or spiritually, and as winter approaches, they too, will need attention.

The report closed with a fervent exhortation to all christian women to come up and lend of their means and influence to help on the work of the Association.

The report of the Treasurer, Miss Annie from which it appears that the money recoived from all sources during the year, exclusive of that subscribed to the "Home," amounted to $1804,02, and the amount paid out for tracts, papers, &c., was $97,40, leaving a net balance of $1706,62 in the hands of the Treasurer. The reports were adopted and ordered to be filed. The andience then united in singing the 'Coronation" hymn commencing "All hail the power of Jesus name." after which interesting and instructive addresseswere delivered by Rev.A. S. Roe, of New York, and D. L. Moody, Esq., of Chiago, and Dr. Howard, Chairman of the meeting.

A collection was taken up at the conclusion of the addresses for the benefit of the Association, which realized $878.74. Mr. Brunot read the following list of offiers who had served during the past year and had been nominated for re-election: President—Mrs Felix R. Brunot. Vice President—Mrs. W. A. Herron. Treasurer—Miss Annie C. Fowler.

Secretary—Miss Mattie J. Fowler.

On motion, the nominees were declared

On motion, the nominees were declared ected unanimously. The chairman read a note from Bishop Commings, regretting his inability to be present at the anniversary, owing to official engagements. The chairman also stated that any ladies wishing to engage in the work with the Association could make arrangements to that effect by calling at the "Home for the Destitute," in Allegheny

Rev. B. M. Schmuelner remarked on the opic under discussion, that no practice of indiscriminate communion existed among our synods. They had condemned the ask-

A number of other speakers gave expression to their sentiments and the Conention adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION. The Council assembled and opened with eligious services.
It was now agreed that "Interchange of Palpits should be discussed. Rev. S. L. Harpey had some difficulties which he could not harmonize with the po-sitions advocated. It seems as wrong for Lutheran pastor to occupy the pulpit of pits. This cannot harmonize with the word pits. This cannot harmonize with the word of Jesus, "Go preach the Gospe' to all nations." Can it be wrong to preach in a Jewish Syagogue or a Roman Cathedral? Christ's example condemns such a position. He went everywhere and preached to all His pure truths.

Rev. W. A. Passavant regretted that the samurks of brother Erisschel were not emarks of brother Fritschel were not more generally understood. He was of the opinion that a man who had been trained another church could not preach from another pulpit without carrying with him so much of his peculiar confession as would give color to his statements of Truth. If this were so, the position were one that could not be controverted. But is this so? Can we not; do others not lay iside their denominational characteristics?

Lutheran pastors are privileged to preach the Gospel everywhere. It may be in a Mormon or a Budhist Temple, he is not restricted. His commission is to bear the truth of the Gospel to all men. After addresses from others, the Convention adjourned with the usual services.

Disorderly House.

Cynthia Albin was before Mayor Drum, vesterday, charged with keeping a disorderly house. It seems that about eleven o'clock of the evening previous, Mrs. Albin came to the Mayor's office and stated that two men had forced an entrance into her house and were conducting themselves in a very disorderly manner. The police repaired to the place, on the north-east corner of the Diamond Allegheny, but as the officers entered the front door the alleged marauders backed out the back door and escaped. A further investigation of the premises aroused the suspicions of the officers, and led to the arrest of the proprieweek in April and has been in use since that time. After the Ball. August Traverse, of Mount Washington, ittended a young lady to a ball in that place a few evenings since. During the evening the young lady was invited to dance by Henry Flackner, but for some reason she declined. Flackner left aggrieved at the rebutl and after consultation with his friend Chris Wilbert, he concluded to wreak his vengeance on her innocent escort, believng him to have influenced the lady in her decision. Meeting Traverse, who was traversing his way homeward after the ball. Flackner carried his plans into execution and ably assisted by his aforesaid friend, administered a severe castigation to the luckless wight. This is the story which Traverse related to Alderman Mc-Masters yesterday, and which caused that official to arrest Flackner and Wilbert and hold them to bail for trial on a charge of aggrevated assault and battery.

Railroad Accident.

Yesterday evening an accident occurred on the Panhandle railroad near Mansfied, by which a brakeman on a stone train, whose name we were nnable to learn, was instantly killed. The train was coming east, when at the point named the first car, from some cause broke down, and the cars following ran against it, causing a general wreck of the train. The brakeman was caught between two of the cars and crushed to death. Coroner Clawson was notified and proceeded to Mansfield last evening to hold an inquest.
—Since writing the above the Coroner has returned, and from him we learn that the brakeman killed was David B. Jones, a resident of Denniston, Ohio. He was twen ty-two years old. The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Passing Counterfeit Money.

J. V. McCausland was arrested on Wednesday evening and taken before Alderman Johns, charged with passing or attempting to pass counterfeit money. It is alleged that he attempted to pass a ten dollar U.S. note at a store on Liberty street, and that after being told it was a counterfeit he attempted to pass the same bill a second time. accused alleges that he did not know the money was counterfeit. He says he came to the city on Wednesday morning and sold a horse, and received the money alleged to be counterfeit in part payment for the same. He was committed to jail

A popular American writer in a series of articles, relating almost wholly to domestic affairs, dwells at length upon the tranquility, comfort, power and refinement of such a common affair as a house. We have been led to think that the author in question might have parsued the topic still further, and contrasted uninviting, cheerless, ill-constructed, and ill-arranged habitations, with tasteful, roomy, bright, thoroughly ventilated, heartsome homes. We think it would not be difficult to demonstrate that a handsome modern our synods. They had condemned the asking to the Lord's Supper of any who in any shape or form had professed or confessed Christ. Every wildness of belief with respect to Christ and His teachings is not a reason for fellowship at the Lord's "lodge" of an Indian, or a cave. A house "lodge" of an Indian, or a cave. It should contribute to social beauty as well as percontribute to social beauty as went as per-sonal comfort. The exterior architectural beauty should be secondary to the interior appointments. We know Mrs. Petroleum or Mr. Shoddy would pronounce in favor of the magnificent exterior, but we are thinking now of manner ventions which contribute ow of manners and those inso much in an indirect way to awaken the finer faculties. The noticeable improvements in the appointments of our public as well as private aildings show clearly that the majority of the community are of the same way of thinking. This is specially true of Church buildings, while he must be blind indeed who fails to observe the remarkable improvements in our school buildings. In the former the United states bids fair to rival the architectural beauty of the old world. Everything in the way of a decorative form, requiring invention, genius, skill, time and patience, not to mention laborious study, can-has been accomplished by American artizans. In all our large cities, instead of the unbroken white glare which was formerly the rule in our churches, the light is softened or subdued. In the West, where, forty years ago, the trapper and hunter plied their avocations, great cities have sprung up which vie with the East in decorating their public and private buildings. It is this fact that warrants the belief that with a little more time and experience the American artizan will soon take up the gap between himself and the European artizan, despite the experience possessed the latter, an experience embracing the history of many centuries. In the matter of church ornamentation, thanks to the spirit of progress which pervades the country, we have made enormous strides within the last twenty-five years. The taste dis-played in staining and enameling class groceries at those low rates which church glass is in itself remarka-have given the house such a wide-spread played the We no longer depend upon the foreign manufacturer for designs, or a durable article. vices of the practical house and sign painter more required than in Pittsburgh, where the atmosphere is constantly charged with soot and smoke, fucating all with which coming in contact. A coat of paint hides much of our ugliness, and as a general thing our people are not slow to recognize the fact. Like all other branches of trade there are those who hold high position in the painting branch, and none stand higher in the public estimation, than John T. Gray, No. 54 Ninth street, (formerly Hand street.) By close attention to his business, great care, industry, tect and enterprise, Mr. Gray has succeeded in drawing to himself a large share of trade to which he is eminently worthy. Employing only first class and skilled mechanics over who exercises constant supervision, using noth ing but the primest qualities of materials and being extremely careful, that no piece of work is performed that bears his inpress, unless it will sustain the high reputation he has acquired, the success and large share of patronage enjoyed by him is easily to be accounted for. Mr. Gray receives, and executes at shortest notice, and in best of style all orders for signs, window pane lettering, house painting, varnishing; graining, and inside office painting. His prices are as low as the lowest. We cheerfully commend Mr. Gray to the patronage of our readers, knowing him to be fair dealing and honorable, and a workman worthy to be entrusted with all discriptions of work in his line.
