

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The "Old Drury" is being renovated.

The sausage business is beginning to revive. Police matters were a little more lively yesterday than for several days past.

The next approach of Thanksgiving day has a tendency to make the poultry market lively.

All the prettiest new styles of winter dresses, coats, jackets and awlays have been received at the dry goods house of Bates & Bell, No. 21 Fifth avenue.

The boatmen of this city are actively engaged in arranging for the complimentary testimonial to be given to Walter Brown, champion oarsman, on Saturday night.

Personal.—We regret to learn that Rev. Joseph King, the beloved pastor of the First Christian Church of Allegheny, is lying ill with the typhoid fever, at his residence.

Sewer Caved In.—A portion of the Second Avenue sewer, between Cherry alley and Grant street, caved in, yesterday morning. It will be repaired immediately.

Abandonment.—Justice Abraham, of Elizabeth township, yesterday committed Isaac Jones to jail for trial, on a charge of abandonment, preferred against him by his wife Rebecca.

Hand Crushed.—Mr. John Long, an employe of the Pennsylvania Railroad, had his hand badly crushed, Monday afternoon, while engaged in coupling freight cars at the outer depot.

Barratry.—B. Gray made information yesterday before Alderman Lindsay, of the third ward, against C. H. Simmons for barratry. The accused was arrested, and in default of bail was committed for trial.

Rare Chance to Buy Real Estate.—On our fifth page will be found an advertisement of an elegant residence for sale. This property can be bought very low. For particulars, see advertisement.

Rev. W. A. Salvetti, formerly of this city, but the present pastor of Christ Church, Cincinnati, conducted the funeral services of the late Hon. James C. Hall, which were held at that church last Sabbath afternoon.

Largely Attended.—The funeral of Dr. Jas. A. Horney, yesterday, was largely attended. The deceased had many warm friends in this community who will long cherish his memory as a friend and citizen worthy of their confidence and esteem.

A. Y. M.—The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania will meet at Masonic Hall at 12 o'clock to-day. We understand there will be two addresses, one at ten and one at the evening. A session will also be held to-morrow (Thursday) at ten o'clock a. m.

Eggs.—Albert Stehle made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Wm. Brown with the larceny of a night gown, valued at two dollars. The parties reside at Water and Ferry streets. Brown was arrested and held for a hearing.

G. A. R. Supper.—This evening at Ebley Hall, Pittsburgh, the members of the Grand Army of the Republic, under the leadership of Commander Ebley, will give a supper for the benefit of Post No. 151, G. A. R. A general invitation is extended to all to be present, and we hope the attendance will be large.

Assault and Battery.—James Barry made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging John Patch with assault and battery; and, at the same time and place, Patch preferred charges against Barry. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the patches.

Charged with Larceny.—Thos. F. Mehan alleges that Geo. Bell stole a valuable set of harness from his stable a few days ago. Alderman Donaldson issued a warrant for the arrest of the thief, who is also charged with stealing a couple of bridles from Tribune's stables, in the rear of the hotel on Penn street.

Assault and Battery.—Phillip Williams made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Henry Titman for assault and battery. The prosecutor alleges that Titman struck his son John on the head, knocked him down and kicked him. The accused was arrested, and the case was finally compromised by the defendant paying the costs of the suit.

Alleged Child Whipper.—Alderman Taylor yesterday morning issued a warrant for the arrest of Arnes Moran, charged on oath of Mrs. Francis Moore, with assault and battery on her child. The case was finally compromised by the defendant paying the costs of the suit.

Compelled to Settle Up.—Frank Mills was brought before Alderman Taylor yesterday, charged, on oath of Mrs. Jane Hancock, with false pretenses. Mills alleged that Frank was indebted to her for board and laundry for the payment of which he left a trunk filled with clothing. Recently, she states, he came to the house and managed to spirit the trunk away without settling the bill. After a hearing Frank acknowledged his error, paid the bill and cost of suit, and was discharged.

Alleged Larceny.—Conrad B. Stein, was arrested yesterday, on a charge of larceny, preferred by Conrad B. Stein, before the Mayor. The prosecutor is an employe on the steamer L. S. Neal, and he alleges that Stein gave him a hearing. The same prosecutor at the same time and place, made information charging Stein with assault and battery. A hearing will take place in both cases to-day, when it is probable the case will be dismissed.

Masonic.—Hon. Richard Vaux and other grand officers of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Pennsylvania will make a visitation to the Lodges in our vicinity to-day and to-morrow. A general meeting will be held in their Hall on Fifth avenue, and to-morrow a daylight meeting will convene in the same place at the new Hall of the Hallam Lodge, No. 321, at East Liberty, will be dedicated with the usual Masonic ceremonies, on Thursday evening. A general invitation has been extended to the members of the fraternity to be present on the occasion.

Alleged Larceny as Bait.—Felix J. was brought before Alderman Taylor yesterday, charged with larceny as bait. The prosecutor states that in August, 1885, he left Pittsburgh in the lark of a trip, previously leaving in the lark of a trip, a number of articles of wearing apparel as security for the payment of a bill for boarding. He further alleges that he came back a few days ago and paid the bill and demanded the articles, which were not permitted to do so. Millan alleges that he never received the articles. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing.

The case of the United States vs. one boiler, et al., owned by Charles Red, was next taken up. The District Attorney having declined to press a conviction, the jury found a verdict in favor of the claimant.

A number of cases were continued until the following morning at ten o'clock.

Oyer and Terminer—Judge Sterrett.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Ephraim Kent, indicted for the murder of Robert Calhoun, was taken up. Our readers will remember that Calhoun was killed at Etina on the evening of the 8th of September last, under the following circumstances:

Four young men from Allegheny were out riding in buck wagons, the deceased and Charles Murphy occupying one of the wagons. They visited the tavern of Mrs. Hannah's. Having failed to get in at the latter place, Calhoun and Murphy drove back to Matter's tavern, where they were jumped on and latched the horse in front of the house. Several residents of Etina were standing in front of the house when the parties drove by. Evans being among the number. A quarrel arose between Evans and Murphy, and during the fight which ensued, Evans struck Calhoun in the chest with a pistol, causing instant death. Murphy was charged with having fired the shot, and was committed to jail. Some time after and before the coroner's investigation had been concluded, information was received which seemed to point to the fact that the son who fired the shot. He was arrested and Murphy was released.

The defendant was arraigned in the usual manner, and pled not guilty. District Attorney Duff appeared on behalf of the prosecution, and Gen. F. H. Collier and A. M. Brown, Esq., on behalf of the defense. The following jurors were sworn in the case: John McMillan, Robert Hall, James McKinnon, Walter C. Brown, James Henderson, John Dunbar, John Zeh, W. D. Bels, Henry Zessler, Washington Jarvis, Richard Bowen. Before the jury was sworn, the case was explained to them, and the prosecution proceeded to call witnesses, when the following testimony was elicited:
