CITY AND SUBURBAN

A Belle of barometer - a worn out razor. Our hotels are doing a thriving business at present.

Mr. Tom McCalland returned to Philadelphia on Saturday evening.

Darkness comes on about five o'clock these days, which makes them very short.

Lecture given by Mark Twain to make the number of his lectures delivered here twain.

Bonnet strings of the largest size will be in fashion this winter. So model milliners tell us.

Senator Trumbull, of Illinois, passed through this city on Saturday, en route for the Capital.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will commence to run its trains by the winter schedule to-day.

Business is moderately active in the city just now. The holiday season has not quite commenced.

Christmas will be along in less than five weeks. Already the stores are beginning to put on a holiday appearance.

Franklin's Birthday - Arrangements are being made to celebrate Franklin's birthday by the members of the Typographical Union of this city.

New Station - "Colfax" is the name of a new station established on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, between Lincoln and Springdale, about ten miles from Allegheny.

Abandonment - Mrs. Mary Conner proffered a charge of abandonment against her husband Thomas Conner before the Mayor, on Saturday morning. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Saturday was very disagreeable to pedestrians. The slight snow, which fell almost all day melted as rapidly as it was reached, and made the thoroughfares wet and muddy.

The Good Will and Friendship Hose Companies, which followed while going to the fire on Friday, were damaged to the amount of one hundred dollars. The injured drivers are recovering.

Assaulted - Caroline Anderson alleges that Michael Hoffman struck her several times with his fist and kicked her. Michael was arrested by Alderman Taylor's police and held for a hearing on this question of assault and battery. The parties reside in the Ninth ward.

More Arrests - The Allegheny Police on Saturday morning arrested eight more employees of the Western Pennsylvania Railroad for digging dirt from the Canal street. Ball in each case was given for $200. The fight between the city and railroad authorities on this question is assuming pretty fair proportions.

Track Removed - The track of the Conneleville Railroad east of the Birmingham bridge, has been removed from the base of the hill, several feet forward toward Second avenue. A portion of ground recently purchased from Messrs. Everson, Preston & Co. There will now be no danger from falling rocks on the hills, as the track is far enough removed to be out of the way.

New Engine House - The new engine house of the Allegheny Hose Company, of Allegheny, was completed during the week, and presents a very fine appearance. The former building was a one story structure and was too small for the needs of the company. The present house is two stories high, and is exceedingly comfortable place. The company was organized in August, 1877, by sixteen men, and now numbers sixty active members.

Alleged False Pretence - Adolph Depp, a resident of Manchester, Pa., was taken into custody on Saturday before Alderman Taylor, on a charge of false pretence. Depp alleges that he was employed by the Allegheny Hose Company, and that he had received $2,000 from the company. He claims that he had used this money to pay for a house, and that he had been employed by the company for several years. The company denies these allegations, and a warrant was issued for Depp's arrest.

Alleged False Pretence - Albert Steel, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, alleged that he was employed by the Allegheny Hose Company, and that he had received $2,000 from the company. He claims that he had used this money to pay for a house, and that he had been employed by the company for several years. The company denies these allegations, and a warrant was issued for Steel's arrest.

Installation of Hon. John M. ... as Judge of the District Court, Judge Hampton presiding.

In the District Court on Saturday morning, Hon. James Vesich presented the commission to Judge Kirkpatrick, accompanying it with the following remarks:

May it please your Honor - I have great pleasure in presenting to your Honor a commission from his Excellency, the Hon. Governor of this Commonwealth, to the Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick, appointing him Assistant Judge of this Court.

It is possible I might have felt greater pleasure in having had presented to your Honor a like commission to another individual - whom I need not name. But that I have been attended by a feeling of distrust, certainly by the individual referred to, and it may be by the Bench and the Bar, from which, happily, this release me.

May I ask now, that your Honor direct the commission to be read by the Prothonotary of this Court, which the Hon. Judge Kirkpatrick has the honor to read, and it may be by the Bench and the Bar, from which, happily, this release me.

The commission was then read by the Prothonotary of the Court, after which the Hon. Judge Kirkpatrick, and he took his seat on the bench.

NEW BRIGHTON, PA. Social Reunion at First Methodist Church - A Good Time.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette. Social Reunion at First Methodist Church - A Good Time.

On last Sabbath the pastor of the above church announced from the pulpit that on Thursday evening a Social Reunion Meeting of the Church members and their friends, would be held in the Lecture room of the Church.

At the appointed time quite a fine company of church members and others came to the meeting, and the room was comfortable, and the service was comfortable, (a matter not to be overlooked) so that all who came felt that they were welcome.

We soon felt that we were a common brotherhood, and sisterhood, met together in our Father's house, in order to help each other.

Rev. Mr. Crowther read the 153d Psalm, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." It was the object of the meeting, as we hoped they would enjoy the meeting. We the smiles and blessing of our heavenly Father that we might find it good and pleasant to dwell together in unity.

It was the object of the meeting, as we hoped they would enjoy the meeting. We the smiles and blessing of our heavenly Father that we might find it good and pleasant to dwell together in unity.
