couzt of being a match patr. Caught.-We noticed a few days since that James Reedy had been charged with stealing, some clothing and other things from Wm. Kelly, a fellow boarder. The case was just the reverse, Reedy being the prosecutor and Kelly the defendant. Kelly was caught on board of a boat st Wheeling and delivered up the articles to Mr. Ecedy, who, overcome by the fellow a earnest pleadings to be let off, after some deliberation concluded to let him go.

Assault and Battery.—A. H. Dany made information before the Mayor yearerday, charging H. Gouchey with assault and bat-tery. It appears that Gouchey is the pro-prietor of a tabacco store, and Thursday evening Dany entered the store about the time the proprietor was closing it. He re-quested Dany to go out, but he refused to do so, and his refusal resulted in a fight; in which thank was somewhat brailsed.

Harge Sunk -- Between two and three o'clock yestarday afternoon a coal boat, con-taining twenty thousand bushels of coal, wascunk at the Monongahels Suspension Bridge. The boat was owned by Jacob Mezner and was in tow by the the tow boat "Little Jim." In passing under the bridge the bast struck the third pier from the south c and and went down immediately. The loss will be about $2,400. A great per tion of the or at will probably be saved, as the water is shallow where the boat sunk.

Warket Cases. J. D. Owens, Pittsburgh Market Constable, made information yes-ter (ay before Alderman Humbert, against Aus the Resel and Austin Gang, hucksters, for a reating a nuisance by throwing into the street garbage from their stands, and for oi wanoting the markets by crowding basket and barrels upon other stands, to the great inconvenience of the proper oc-cupants. The accused were arrested, and charged upon payment of costs. Wedding, Mr. Stephen G. Walker, mailing clark of the GAZETTE, was married on Thank wiving a fight of the abdo-in St. Paul's Cathedral. Between eleven and twelve o'clock, Thursday night, an affray occurred at Turner Hall at a ball given by the Nonpariel Jocial Club, which will probably result in he death of one of the participants. George the death of one of the participants. George Hail and James Sims, who have heretofore been on friendly terms, attended the ball, Sime having in his charge two little girls. During the early part of the evening the parties met several times and were as usual very friendly. Later in the evening it seems that Hail remarked to some one in the Hall that them girls Sims had with Daring Robbery.

Thursday evening last, one of the most daring and impudent robberies was perpetrated, taking into consideration the our and the locality in which it occurred, hour and the locality in which it occurred, we have heard of for some time past. A Mr. Leonard, a German, having been to visit a friend in the Twelfth ward, was re-turning about eight o'clock in the evening. Coming down Penn street, at the corner of Penn and Wayne, he was joined by a Ger-man who he did not know, but who struck up a conversation with him in his native tongue and walked with him to Merdock's tongue and walked with him to merdock's alley, when he selsed him by the throat, and was immediately joined by two other men, who, by direction of the one who had hold of him, took his watch and a pocket book containing fourteen dollars, and then fied. No the to the guilty parties.

Married.

On Thursday evening, November 26th, at the residence of the bride's parents, by the Rev. R. T. Miller, assisted by Rev W. H. Locke, Mr. C. E. Locke, of the Pittsburgh Chromicle, and Miss Lizzle M. Wood, daughter of Captain B. L. Wood, of Port Perry. On Tuesday, November 24th, at South

Florence, Colbert county, Alabama, by Rev. Joel Whitten, James Mills, Editor of the Pittsburgh Leader, to Miss A. E. Alexander, of South Florence. Thus it will be observed that two mem-

Our read-ers are generally aware that the prices asked for goods at this house is a liberal per centage less than asked for the same goods by many other houses in the trade, in consequence of which Gardner's place of business is always thronged with customers when other houses complain of dull times. New fresh goods, in the best makes and styles, and the extraordinary low and styles, and the extraordinary low prices asked, is the sequel of busy times with this house, but next week much more liberal inducements are to be offered in the way of low prices, and those in want of dress goods, poplins, repps, merinces, plaids, empress repps, chincilla cloths, vel-veteens, blankets, Paislep shawls and furs should positively visit the west corner of Market street and Fourth avenue, at E. In a New Role.

The inevitable George Thompson has turned up in a new role-that of a one armed soldier. Yesterday as officer Nixon was walking along Ridge street, he dis-covered George begging from door to door, gaining sympathy by representing himself as a one armed soldier, and exhibiting an empty sleave as corroboration of his story. He really had but one arm—at the time—the other being snugly laid down along his side and enclosed by his underclothing and vest: The officer, however, was not to be imposed upon, and he arrested George. armed soldier. Yesterday as officer Nixon imposed upon, and he arrested George. The Mayor fined him five dollars, but his begging trip had not yielded him much of a return as he was unable to pay the fine. Two fiddles which he had in his possesion were accepted as security, and he was al-lowed to depart.

mouth open during sleep; latterly the discharges became solidified and impacted in my nose to such an extent that it required the greatest exertion to tr pel them. Sometimes these hardened lumps would get in my throat cauting me to hawk and sorape even by the honr to relieve myself. My breath was offensive; my memory became impaired. Dissiness and light headiness made their appearance, and of late symptoms of paralysis stepped in, and when I placed myself under your care one side of my face was badly affected by this dread disease. My general health suffered alike, there was a constant tired. drowsy and debilitated feeling, with no energy to move or act; I felt as tired on rising in the morn ing as I did on going to my bed, my appetite was caprisions and my disposition morose. In that condition I placed myself under your care, and am happy to state that all those disagreeable and dangerous symptoms have entirely left me, and I once more en joy the benefits of good health.

By giving this publicity you will benefit others sime ilarly affected and oblige me. | Yours truly,
