Ankle Sprained.—On Monday evening, two young men, members of the Columbia Fire Company, were wrestling on each other for amusement. One of them, named Walker, was thrown heavily to the ground, spraining his right ankle very badly in the fall. He was shown to the office of Dr. Hazlett, in the vicinity, and the injury attended to, after which he was taken to his residence in the Fourth ward.

Trains Delayed.—The trains on the Pennsylvania Central Railroad were all delayed yesterday on account of the heavy snow which fell along the line of the track. The latest accounts there were twenty-five inches of snow on the mountains and the heavy blizzards still falling. We were informed by one of the officials that eight locomotives were required to haul one of the trains up steep slopes from Altoona. No accident had occurred along the line of the road up to last evening.

Succeeded.—Walter Brown, the barman, notwithstanding his foul, running against the Parkersburg Bridge Pier, succeeded in accomplishing his object, and was reported of rowing from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati in eight days. According to a telegraphic dispatch received in the city yesterday, he was on the designated landing yesterday morning at 2:30, nine hours ahead of time. He suffered severely with sore hands, but was otherwise in good condition. He was to have a public reception at Pike's Music Hall, and was announced to remain in the city for several days.

Sudden Death.—Mr. Samuel O'Brien died suddenly at his residence on Liberty street, last night about eleven o'clock. He was elected Assessor of the Ninth ward at the late election. He leaves a wife and a child. The coroner will hold an inquest on the body this morning.

Any person wishing the GAZETTE or who may have any complaints to make, will please leave a note as above and will be promptly attended to.

Second Avenue Again.—A few days since we stated that the water pipe on Second avenue had burst, injuring the street to such an extent as to obstruct travel upon it, and also stated that the cause of the difficulty was the worn out water pipe. The work referred to at that time was repaired, but as it was done, as on former occasions, by merely replacing the broken joint with a new one, which of course had to be connected with an old worn out pipe at either end, the result was as before. Monday afternoon the pipe burst in another place, a few feet from where it had been repaired, causing the street to cave in for several feet, and again making it necessary to turn travel from that place to the other side of the street, as before. It is too late, we presume, to take up the old pipe and replace it with a new one this season, and the probabilities are that the citizens in that locality will have to carry water from some other point all winter, but the matter should be attended to at the earliest practicable moment.

Latest from Temperanceville.

Temperanceville, across the river, is achieving quite a brilliant reputation in the way of sensations of late. Added to the former elopements, attempted murders, and the like, another development, the victim was a shoemaker, his victimizer an interesting Western gentleman. The Western gentleman had been stopping at the shoemaker's house, and intruded himself into the good opinion of all, especially, as it seems, of the wife. A few days ago the shoemaker had occasion to visit Pittsburgh, to procure a supply of material to carry on his business. He returned late in the evening, but found things somewhat changed, his goods, western gentleman gone, furniture gone, house desolate. The neighbors say the last they saw of the pair was shortly after the Western gentleman left his domicile. They were hurrying along the main thoroughfare of the thriving little town followed by a wagon filled with furniture. The shoemaker bewails the loss of his furniture.

How he Got His Boots.

Thomas Burns was in need of a pair of boots and took a rather dubious but cheap way of getting them. Entering the store of Mr. A. Pfleger he called for a pair and after examining them stated to the storekeeper that the socks were a little dry and wet, and if he was allowed to take them across the street to his boarding house he would try them on over a dry pair of socks and if they suited he would come back and pay for them, the price being six dollars. Under the peculiar circumstances of the case he was allowed to take them away, but up to latest accounts had not finished trying them on, or at least had not returned according to agreement. Mr. Pfleger waited on Alderman McMasters yesterday and made affidavit to the above statement, upon which a warrant was issued for the arrest of Thomas on a charge of larceny as bailie.

New Yorkers in Pittsburgh.

The ridiculous farce, which has engaged the attention of newspaper reporters, sea and land, and other, including His Honor the Mayor, for several days past, has been nearly played out—one more rise and fall of the curtain and the play will end. Enough has already been seen to disclose the plot, and a most shallow, flimsy and disgraceful affair it proves to be. At the time appointed for the hearing yesterday the parties all appeared except the prosecutor, Mr. Bevin, who detained the Court for fully half an hour, after which the counsel for the prosecution stated that he would submit the information against Bevin as an act for obtaining money under false pretense, to His Honor, and declined to offer any evidence in the case.

The Mayor, through the advice of Mr. Magle, having been absent by the prosecutor and discharged the accused. The information against Mr. Fisher was previously withdrawn, that matter was ended. The cases for surety of the peace, were, however, at the request of the prosecutor, postponed to the 10 o'clock to-day. We presume the Mayor postponed the hearing on account of the weather, "as we heard no other reason assigned for the continuance of his absence of the much talked of and long looked for Bevin, which is certainly a very poor reason, as he has been here seven or eight days since. The former cases were postponed twice on account of his absence, and he has not yet arrived in the city. We understand that Mr. Magle is on his way to the city, and that he will appear in person to defend the defendant in this case, we must say that the delay in this respect is most unjustly done in his rights. It had been anything in the case, it was an imposition upon the defendant to hold them in the case for so long a time upon the low cause or pretext. They were ready to and demanded a hearing they were arrested, yet notwithstanding this, their hearing was postponed at the instance of the prosecution three times.

The fact of the cases against Miss Fisher and Mr. Magle having been absent by the prosecution, is evidence that there was nothing in the charge, and proves the correctness of the statement made by her yesterday. The prosecution was a mere act of a malicious one, and has done the defendant a great injury. Miss Fisher, who is a young girl, and who has since her arrival in this city, some three weeks since, has conducted herself as becomes a lady, which is more than we can say for the defendant, who is a woman of ill repute. The two women at the Mayor's office bore a marked contrast.
