OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 11, 1868. Money being exceedingly scarce, and seven per cent. and a commission on call loans at New York, the entire market has suffered a heavy decline in bonds and stocks. The former hyaing sold at threefourths per cent. off from the early quotations, and three-fourths per cent. since last Saturday. The decline was most marked in the new issues of 1865, 1867, 1868, and eighty-one's, whilst the old bonds stood comparatively firm. The firm on the bear side of the bond market having succeeded prior to this date to unload their dear gold on the public, have had an opportunity press bonds by their large gold sales. The gold market was excited during yesterday and Wednesday by two prominent houses, the leaders in the gold soon declare the legal tender act as unconstitutional, and, consequently, greenbacks are not legal tender, and the uneasy feelthe efforts of a weak stock clique to keep stricted, and little is done except in the fancies which are daily changing hands with a little profit there and a small loss èlsewhere. Express shares are very strong, and if money was not so very scarce we might see a sharp upward movement in them. Money is absolutely tight here, the banks limiting their discounts to favors of their best customers. Business continues rather iuli. In local securities but little is doing; the market is quiet, on Allegheny Valley bonds, and the buyers are scarce at the advance.

—The Chicago Republican, of Wednessvance.

The Chicago Republican, of Wednesday, says: The weather is clear and cold, and out-door movements are generally more lively. Business is without decided animation in any department, and com-plaints are still to be heard of the backwardness of trade. At the banks the dewardness of trade. At the banks the demand for loans is more than equal to the supply, and the money market is uniformly quoted close. Packing is being carried on an extensive scale, and the cali for accommodation from this branch of trade is very large, but is generally met, inasmuch as packers only want money during the winter months. Our goods merchants are quite urgent in their demands, as it is almost impossible for them to make interior collections. Speculators are numerous and want money bad enough, but this class of dealers are invariably refused accommodations, and have to seek the open accommodations, and have to seek the open market. Rates of interest remain as previously noted, 10 per cent. per annum.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTARITECH GAZETTE FRIDAY, December 11, 1868. The change in the weather appears to have imparted a stronger tone to the gen. eral markets, as many articles are in very limited supply, and with an improved demand, prices are higher. The demand, however is entirely local, being restricted almost entirely to supplying immediate wants, and there is an almost entire absence of anything like a speculative feeling. OFFICE OF THE PITTBURGH GAZETTE, FRIDAY, December 11, 1868. As the oil market is in a very interesting condition just now, a little history may not be out of place. This day one year Refined at 2512 to 26c for December, and 31c, buver's option, all 1868.
