RIVER NEWS.

Navigation is virtually suspended, notwithstanding the river is not closed as yet: there is less than three feet in the channel. however, and the Ohio is full of heavy floating ice.

The Monongahela packets continue to make regular trips, the ice in that stream not being very heavy. The Aliegheny, it s reported, is closed at Tarentum.

The Bayard was advertised to leave Cin-cinnati for Pittsburgh on Saturday. -The Silver Cloud No. 2 was loading at St. Louis on Saturday last for Memphis, a was also the Silver Lake, for Red River. DILLINGER & STEVENSON, -The Dubuque Times, of the 10th, says

"A telegram just received from St. Louis says the White Collar Line has sent Superintendent Wellington to Cincinnati to put two more new boats under contract These, added to three already under contract, will add five new boats to the Com pany's fleet next spring. With this addi-tion, there will be ten first-class side-wheel "floaters" in the line, besides the present aray of smaller steam crafts."
