THE HIDDEN HAND.

BY MRS. S. W. WORTH. Author of "The Bride of an Evening," "The Deserted Wife," &c., &c. CHAPTER I. THE FUGITIVE MARRIAGE. Colonel Gabrielle Le Noir, a Virginia noble...

already rolling on the turnpike between Tip Top and Stanton. "But you, my generous deliverer!" "Well, then, I believe you must be anxious to marry Craven Le Noir."

"I will kill and eat you, Cap, without any salt, or they may look you up in the hereafter!" "Hush! here comes Dorcas Knight! Now I must make her believe I'm Clara, and do the sentimental up-brown!"

CHAPTER II. COLONEL LE NOIR'S REVENGE. When Colonel Le Noir left the chapel, his heart was torn with rage and shame...

law was been made: Black Donald was to marry and kill Capitoia, as soon as possible, for which service Colonel Le Noir was to pay him $5,000 in gold.
