OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, WEDNESDAY, December 29, 1868. The general markets are more active, and it begins to look as if there would be an improvement in business with the openit of the New Year. The arrivals of Flour and Grain have been quite large for some days past and the same is true of many other articles, and with a steady local demand for all of the leading commod-ides, there is a fair volume of business in the aggregate. In regard to values, there are no important changes.

APPLE BUTTER-70 to 80 cents. APPLES-Steady with regular sales at $3,50 to $4, for fair to good, and $4,50 to $5 for superfine State and western; $6,00a8,50 for prime to choice.

BUTTER-The supply continues to accumulate, and with only a moderate demand, prices are barely sustained; 35 to 40 cents.
