The Hardware merchants have agreed close their establishments hereafter at five o'clock P, M., commencing to-day.

The Postoffice will be open this morning from eight to nine: o'clock, remaining closed during the remainder of the day.

A Waif.-An infant was left on the steps of Dr. Bergner's residence, Penn street, on Tuesday evening. It is now comfortably housed at the Poor Farm.

Solld.—Notwithstanding the mild weather of the past few days, very little of the ice new the shores in our rivers has broken up, an avidence that it must be pretty solid. The Grand Jury will meet on Monday.

and prosecutors and witnesses are re-quested to be in attendance, so that the business may be transacted without delay. Acting Coroner. Aiderman William B. Neeper is at present acting in place of Coroner Clawson, who is unable to attend to his official duties on account of sickness in

Committed.—W. C. Armstrong, charged with burglary on eath of Robert Robb, Esq, an account of which we published vesterday, was, after a hearing, committed to jail, in default of bail, for his appearance at

Sent Out.—The Hazelwood Alarm Bell was sent cut yesterday. The connecting apparatus has not been received yet, and mently the work of attaching to the Fire Alarm Telegraph is delayed for the

Time Calendar.-We have received from Mr. James M'Millan, 111 Third avenue, the well known first class book and job printer, an elaborately printed calendar card for 1869. It is a splendid specimen of typo-

Surety of the Peace.—Philip Sullivan made information before Justice Ammon, of East Birmingham, yesterday, against James Mackin for surety of the peace, alleging that Mackin threatened to do him bodily harm. A warrant was issued.

Mr. H. M. Long, of the First ward, Allegheny, is a candidate for the Republican nomination to Common Council. Without disparaging the claims of his worthy competitors, we must say that if elected to fill that position he will fill it with the council of the cou decided ability and with credit to his constituency.

Assault and Battery.—Mrs. G. Och made information before Justice Heisel. of East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Philip Wolf with assault and battery. She Philip Wolf with assault and naturely alleges that the accused beat and abused her son, a lad about twelve, years of age. Wolf was arrested and after a hearing held to ball to answer at Court.

Home for Destitute Women .- The Fair for the benefit of the Home for Destitute Women, which was held in City Hall in the beginning of last month, netted about $7,000, and the probability is that next year the ladies will erect a building on the year the ladies will erect a candian by land so generously donated to them by James Kelly, of Wilkinsburg.

Elected President.-The Trustees of the Alabama University, at Tuscaloosa, at their last meeting unanimously elected Rev. R. D. Harper, D. D., President of the institution. Dr. Harper has a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this locality, who will be pleased to learn of his election to a post of such honor and usefulness.

Slight Fire.-About ten o'clock yesterday morning the roof of a stable, owned by Mr. John Fleming, on Union Alley, caught fire from some unknown cause. An alarm was sounded from box 35, corner of Washington and Wylie streets, nich brought the engines to the spot, and the fire was extinguished before any mate-rial damage was done.

Havana Cigars. To the lovers of tobacco there is no greater luxury than the flavor of a real genuine Havana cigar, such as can be obtained at the establishment of John Megraw, 45 Hand street, where will be found not only the Havana, but the genu-ine Yara, and all other brands known, as well as a large and excellent stock of the best brands of tobacco.

Caved In. Wednesday afternoon a bank of earth caved in at the rear of Painter's or earth caved in at the rear of Painter's mills, almost covering a laborer named William Sherran; who was digging in front of it. Mr. Sherran was extricated from the dirt. and taken to his residence, O'Brien's court, Fourth ward, where his injuries received medical attention. He is thought ceived medical attention. He is thought to be quite seriously injured.

Fined. John Merryman, an inebriated individual, was arrested yesterday aftermon by Mayor Drum's police, while committing a nulsance in the Market House. He was fined five dollars and costs, but became so bolsterous in the office that the Mayor very properly had him locked up until he became sober. He paid the fine in the evening and was discharged.

Wheel Torn Off. The Relief Engine collided with a milk cart while on its way to the fire in State alley, yesterday morning, which resulted in the loss of a wheel by the wagon. The collision was no fault of the driver of the engine, as he called out to the other to clear the way; attempting, at the same time, to turn aside himself. The obstinacy of the driver of the cart was the cause of the accident. No one was injured.

Assault and Hattery.—Mattie McCormick alleges that she was walking along Diamond alley on Tuesday evening, in company with another female, when David Jones stopped them and demanded fifty cants. Upon being refused, Mattie alleges that he dragged her, into an alley near by and attempted to take improper liberties with her, which she prevented by breaking from his grasp and running away. Alderway McMasters issued a warrant for the arrest of Jones. arrest of Jones.

Abandonment.-Elizabeth Stockel appeared before Justice Heisel yesterday, and charged her husband with abandonment. It appears that he has not really abandoned or lett her, but refuses to contribute to her support, and 'compels her to not only support herself but him also. He was held to bail to answer at Court.

Eliza Butler, at the same time and place, made information charging Benjamin But-ler, her bushand, with abandonment. He was arrested and after a hearing held to bail' for his appearance at Court.

Took His Clothes .- Richard Piper alleges as he was meditatively sauntering along Penn street (12th ward,) with a bundle of his best clothing under one arm, the pleas ant current of his thoughts was rudely interrupted by Charles Kearney, who snatched the bundle and made off with it as fast as a nimble and fleet, pair of legs could carry him. OITY AND SUBURBAN, Loung Men's Christian Association Ad.

Christian Association, Rev. Dr. Ec, wards, President of the Washington and Jefferson College, delivered in Christ M. E. Church. Penn street, last evening, an address on the "Work of Young Men's Christian Associations." Owing to the unpropitious weather and the inopportune time, the audience was not so large as could have been wished for such an able and eloquent discussion of the theme.

The preliminary religious exercises hav-ing been conducted by Rev. Dr. Morgan, pastor of the church, the speaker was introduced by Kirke Porter. Esq., President of the Association. Dr. Edwards began by an expression of the deep sympathy with which he had been drawn towards with which he had been drawn towards such Associations, and in which he as a pastor had encouraged their organization and the enlisting of young men in their work, and in keeping with such an interest had ever watched their principles and works with the closest scrutiny. He thought that in general it was inexpedient to treat men in separate classes. and to adopt special in separate classes, and to adopt special methods for the aged and the young, the mechanic and the scholar, or in any way to add to the separation by pews and other necessary and unavoidable distinctions in the Church. But then, in the exigencies of the times and the present condition of the country, since the disbanding of our armies, such Associations were imperative and nesuch Associations were imperative and ne-cessary for the reaching and influencing of young men for good. He proceeded in three divisions to indicate what he thought was included in the title of "Young Men's Christian Association.'

men drawn together by common experiences of danger and deliverance for the joy and strength of a common sympathy.

Second—An Association organized on Christian principles for the rescue of young manheed. This might include as adjuncts manheed. This might include as adjuncts recreations, lectures and other means for the development of muscle, mind and sociality of life. Religion should, however, afford the great test of the propriety and good of all amusements. Games of chance and games of skill, linked with evil associations about the forbidden unless the latations, should be forbidden, unless the latter can be lifted from their degradation to usefulness and innocence. The Cnurch cannot provide these directly, but as it pro-The Cnurch ceeds on its regular work, perpetuating the ordinances of God for the salvation of men, it may well carry in its radiant sweep all such good works.

Third—The speaker looked upon the Association as organized for Christian work. Under this head were grouped the differ-ent methods in which the Pittsburgh Assoent methods in whice the Fitsburgh Asso-ciation have been most efficient; and labort-ous, such as open air meetings, cottage prayer meetings, religious services in the theaters; and every other way of pro-claiming the Gospel to those who have it not; or are not willing to seek its official message. He cautioned the members from message. He cautioned the members from ever being puffed up with spiritual pride in the spiritual success of the work, and from ever thinking the Association superio to or independent of the Church. It was at once its child and servant. The Church was all inclusive and the end of all christian labors. He thought that sect was not schism, and that the divisions of the Church into denominations not an avil, but an aid into denominations not an evil, but an and in the general extension of Christ's cause, analogous in their relation and discipline to the military, organization of an army, and under the great Captain of our Salvation, triumphant in the conquering of Sin. He closed his address by an eloquent appeal to be faithful in working and earnest formed friends, exhorting them, by learning, lessons, of wisdom from enemies and gaming strength from the them. gaining strength from the showledge of our weaknesses, to engage with Christian humility and conrage in new labors, to be constant in more sarnest, and believing prayer, and by both carrying the Cross and being borne on it, to thus seek to do goad to men and to further the cause of the Extensive Larceny. Some few evenings since one of the freight cars of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railway Company, at Manchester, was broken into and tobacco, produce, &c., amounting in value to four hundred dollars, carried off. A detective of this city lars, carried off. A detective of this city was employed to work up the case, and succeeded in finding a portion of the goods in a store in Manchester, the proprietor stating that he had bought them of three men named respectively. Martin Rorick, John Sutton and John Weaver. Rorick was arrested and had a hearing before 'Alderman Habert respective which respected in Humbert yesterday, which resulted in his committal to jail for trial in default of one thousand dollars bail. The other two have not been arrested yet. The dep-redations of thieves in this manner has been quite extensive in the locality named, and it is estimated that over a thousand dollars' worth of merchandize has been dollars' worth of merchandize has been stolen; within a short time. We were in possession of the facts in the case yesterday, but by special request of the prescutor, Mr. Wm. B: Neal, agent for the company, refrained from publishing them, in the hope that the remaining parties implicated might be arrested before any hearing was had in the case before the magistrate. Alleged Coal Thieves. For some time past Messrs. Robson, Campbell & Co., proprietors of the Coke Works near Lock No. 1, on the Monongahela river, have noticed the rapid disappearance of coal and coke from about the pearance of coal and coke from about the premises, in quantities which they were satisfied had not been sold or shipped away with their knowledge. Suspecting that some persons were supplying themselves with household fuel, they kept a strict watch about the place, and at length succeeded in detecting several women, residents of the vicinity, in the act of carrying off in baskets and bags pretty good supplies of both coal and toke? Yesterday information was made against the women by mation was made against the women by one of the firm for larceny. They were ar-rested and gave their names as Biddy Denman, Betsey and Mary Lewis. They acknowledged to having taken the coal at the time they had been arrested, but stoutly maintained their innocence of former depredations. They were each held in the sum of three hundred dollars for a further hearing.

Lecture by a Refugee of the Irish Revolu-

A lecture on the Poets and Poetry of Ireland, with Sketches of Irish History," will be delivered at Philo Hall, this evening, by B. McGuinness, Esq., a gentleman who is well known in many literary circles, both in Treland and this country, and who was obliged to leave his native land in order to clude the vengeance of the British Government. This gentleman has been long associated with the Irish press, and has, in every sense, well attested, even at the risk of his life, his love of country. We believe him well capable of entertaining an audience upon any subject connect ed with Irish nationality. As such we have pleasure in recommending him to the pub-readers know, among the Methodist de bettern the office of Joseph H. Gray, F. sq.,

By special request of the Young Men's nominations as a celebration reculiar to County Register, during the month of Detheir organization, and which they style cember, just closed: "Watch Meeting." Last evening a number of the Methodist Churches in this vicinity held these services according to the usual, custom, all of which we understand were largely attended and seemed to be of more than ordinary interest.  $\int_{-1}^{1}$

The origin of the celebration dates far ack to the times of the great founder of Methodism, in 1742, when the first "Watch: Meeting" was held in London, under the supervision of John Wesley. Mr. Wesley seems heard that a small company of his flock at Kingswood were in the habit of meeting once a month and spending from nine o'clock in the evening until after twelve, in singing, prayer and watching. Struck with the idea he attended one of the meetings and was so impressed with the beauty and appropriateness of the exercises, that "Watch Meetings" were instituted by him throughout his denomination, and soon became among the most popular and instructive observances of the church. At first they were held monthly, but gradually the last evening in the year became set aside and marked as the most appropriate occasion for this ob-servance. In England this celebraservance. In England this celebration is engaged in with much ardor and enthusiasm, and forms one of the greatest events in the dalendar of religious holidays. For weeks before extensive preparations are made. A programme of exercises is prepared, the most popular preachers secured, and in some cases the chapels are beautifully illuminated and trimmed with evergreens, boxwood and flowers, and at the appointed time old and young, all ages, sexes and classes, gather in their respective chapels and engage with a hearty zest in all the exercises of the celebration. Among a great portion of the membership some of the earliest and most pleasant recollections of a religious life are ssociated with remembrances of a "Watch

Meeting. In America, wherever it is observed, several congregations generally gather in one church, and the exercises are under the supervision of the ministers from the dif-ferent bodies thus represented. The first of the programme consists of a sermon, appropriate to the occasion, from the most lar and best minister who may at the time be available. This is followed by a prayer meeting or general class meeting, in which persons so desiring may briefly relate their individual religious experiences of the closing year. The sacrament of the Lord's Supper is then administered, in accordance with the usual custom of all religious de ominations: About three or five minutes before twelve o'clock the entire congrega-tion kneel and engage in silent prayer, thus solemnly and impressively spending the time between the outgoing of the old and the incoming of the new year in adoration and supplication before Him who holds the temporal and eternal destinies of all lives the hollow of His hand.

The hour of twelve having passed, the congregation, still kneeling, unite in singing what is known as the Consecration Hymn, commencing "Come let us use the grace divine And all with one accord. In a perpetual corenant join (urselves to Christ the Lord."

At the conclusion of which they rise, and "Watch Meeting" is over, the audience being dismissed with the Benediction. The time at which it is held, at midnight, at the close of the year, and the varied re-flective exercises of the hour, unite in rendering the occasion one of a deeply impressive and imposingly solemn character, the influence of which rarely fails to have

A girl who gives her name as Lizzie Price was arrested yesterday at Horne's store, Market street, for shoplifting. She was in the store looking at the goods, and while the attention of the clerk who was waiting upon her was called to another part of the store she took six silk handkerchiefs, valued at $4, and concealing them under her shawl started to go out. The proceed-ing was noticed by one of the proprietors, who called to her to stop and demanded the handkerchiefs. She at first denied having them, but finally admitted the theft, gave up the stolen goods and wanted to depart, but was not allowed to do so. She was detained until an officer arrived, who conducted her to the Mayor's office. She there admitted taking the goods, but said it was her first offence and that it would be the last. A search warrant was issued and placed in the hands of the one-cer, who repaired to the nouse where she resided and searched her trunk, but nother than the control and the resided and searched ner trunk, but nothing was found that would indicate hen to be a "professional." Cross Suits. Caroline Stotzer and Bridget McCloy are neighbors, residing at 1,002 Penn street. The relations existing between them, however, are not of the most amicable character, according to all accounts. They got into a little aguabble a day or two since, when Caroline, as is alleged, threw a bucket of water upon Mrs. McCloy, to which that lady replied by emptying the contents of an ash box upon the head of her assailant. The Grand Clearance Sale of Furs. In accordance with his general business tact and shrewdness Mr. Wm. Fleming, to meet the taste of the greatest epicures. proprietor of the extensive and popular Fur House, No. 139 Wood street, has announced, and is now conducting, a grand clearance sale at his establishment in both the wholesale and retail departments, in order to make room for goods for the spring trade. The sale has been in progress for several days, and goods are being disposed several days, and goods are being disposed of very rapidly; yet the immense stock and general assortment this popular house was compelled to carry, affords the purchaser the greatest possible facilities for making their selections. The stock, to be disposed of consists in part of Ladies' and Misses' Furs, Gents' Fur Caps, Collars, Gloves, and Men and Boys' Hats and Caps. During all the season it has been known that he sold from 15 to 25 per cent. less than contemporaries, and now the advantage is made still greater by a reduction on their prices to nearly first cost. The high reputation of Mr. Fleming as a business man in this community is a sufficient guarantee to the pubmunity is a sufficient guarantee to the public that this great closing out sale means just what it is advertised, and that unprecedented bargains in first class goods, will be offered to visitors. The New Year.

To-day we enter upon a new year; the year 1868 has passed and is now among the things that were, and with it has disappeared many things which have gone to return no more forever. Numberless lives have been sacrificed and millions of property destroyed, yet the places of those who, during the year 1868 passed from time into eternity, are filled by others, and untold millions of property has been accumulated in place of that destroyed, and the Trunk Factory of Joseph Liebler, at No. 104 Wood street, where the best quality of trunks and valises of every style and description are manufactured, continues to do a thriving business. Every person should have of Liebler's trunks.

New Year's Dinner.

Although to-day is usually admitted to be a holiday, yet it is not as generally observed as Christmas and our National Anniversary, consequently there will be a number of places of business open during the day, and many persons will want to take dinner in town. In view of this fact, Mr. Holtz-heimer, proprieter of the Continental Saavenue, has made the most ample prepa-rations for the accommodation of all who rations for the accommodation of an who may favor his establishment with a call, His tables will be supplied with the cholcest game, fowl, fish, etc., to be obtained in the market, and it will be served in the most approved style and in a manner

Sewing Machines.

The rivalry between sewing machine companies has worked incalculable good to the people of this generation, and it will be felt and appreciated for several generations to come. Its effects have been, the different machines brought in actual competition with each other, brought to high state of perfection, and the prices reduced until a sewing machine is within the reach of every family. Among the sewing machines now offered to the public, we know of no better one than the "Singer." It is admired by all who have used Straw & Morton, corner of Penn and Sixth, (formerly St. Clair) streets, are agents for the "Singer" sewing machine in this city.

W. W. Moorhead, No. 81 Yarket street, knowing the demand which spring up for articles in his line of the holidays, determined not to his competitors and took measures to anp ply himself before the rush would comice. His establishment now, from cel mence. His establishment now, from cellar to garret, is filled with articles fancy, useful and ornamental in endless profusion, any of which would make a beautiful and appropriate Christmas or New Year's gift to a friend. Purchasers can have no difficulty in making a selection, unless, indeed, they become bewildered with the rich and magnificent display which will be afforded them by a visit to the place. be afforded them by a visit to the place.

Can it be possible that over Five Million Bottles of PLANTATION BITTERS have been sold during the past year? It is almost in-credible; nevertheless it is absolutely true, and is the mest convincing proof of their wonderful medical and health-restoring qualities. Every family should be supplied with these Bitters, at whatever cost or trouble it may be to obtain them. Be careful that you get the genuine, and that you are not imposed upon by a spurious article.
