been developed since the trial that Hagcerty was the tool of others, and his conduct in the prison during two years and six months he was confined there, has been very exemplary, and gave evidence of a more correct deportment for the future.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT. Public Institutions - The Magistrates-

Whisky License-Police Court-Railroad To the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Oyer and Terminer, General Jail De-livery and Quarter Sessons of the Peace for the County of Allegheny; December Sessions, 1868: In accordance with the custom of Grand Juries previous to their final adjournment, the Grand Inquest respectfully submit their presentment relating to such matters as seem to them to affect the public welfare.

PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS. And among these we regard the public institutions in the county as deserving a prominent position. Several of them have been visited by the Inquest during their session-the Work House, House of Refuge, Insane Asylum at Dixmont, the County Home and the County Jail.

With regard to the Work House, we have visited and examined that portion of it now under contract, and we find that the Directors have displayed great taste and excellent judgment in the selection of a location. A copious and excellent spring of pure water, situated on an elevation in the rear of the building, is of sufficient ca-pacity to supply the institution with fresh and wholesome water for all necessary purposes, and, in a sanitary point of view, worth more perhaps than the price of the ground. The foundation of the building is of large, solid stone, and is skilfully and substantially built. The arrangement and substantially built. The arrangement and location of the cells, and the general ventilation of the building meets with our decided approval. We congratulate the Prison Board on their selection of the gentlemen comprising the Board of Directors, who, together with the Superintendent, have diligently and faithfully performed their details and december the their of the their duties, and deserve the thanks of the people. And in consideration of the pres-sing wants of such an institution in our midst, we would earnessly recommend the early completion of the building.

We visited the House of Refuge and found the institution in good working order. The discipline of the boys and girls is remarkably good. The buildings are all clean and neat, particularly the sleeping rooms. We are not prepared to speak of the productive capacity of the House, but from a superficial view of the immates and workshops, we believe it is carefully and economically managed. Dixmont Hospital for the insane was visited by the inquest, and we are prepared to speak in high terms of its general manage-ment. The rooms, wards and halls are scrapulously neat and clean, and the venti-lation perfect. The inmates are well cared for and enjoy all the liberties and privili-ges of which their unhappy condition will permit. The institution is an honor and a credit to our part of the State.

On our visit to the County Home we found it in a very prosperous condition. The unfortunate recipients of the charity of the county are all neat and clean and they all seem perfectly satisfied with their treatment, showing conclusively that the institution is well and properly managed.

The County Jail at the time of our visit treatment and the institution of the result of the state was found to be in a very crowded condi-tion, too much so indeed for the comfort

THE LICENSE LAWS. We have neticed during our deliberations the frequent violations of the license laws, and also the excessive number of persons licence for the sale of spirituous, malt and vinous liquors to be examined under coath, at the time of filing the petitions, as to whether the applicant has all the accommodations required by law, and that the present eating house system be abolished. OUR MAGISTRATES.

There is another matter that has come under our observation during our session, and that is the great amount of litigation created by magistrates, who entertain and send to Court cases that have no founda-tion, either in law or fact, and thereby entail easts on the unhappy suitors, who are frequently unable to pay them, and they are in many cases paid by the county, and many such parties, not being able to procure ball, are sent to jail to answer charges which, when inquired into, are found to be ground-less. The office of Alderman or Justice of the Peace in the olden time was filled by men of the best standing in the county, and the offices soon were considered posts of honor and trust; but they are now, with some few exceptions, filled by men whose sole desire is to make money, and whose ignorance is only equalled by their dishonesty. To remedy this, if it would not conflict with one of the provisions of the Constitution of the Commonwealth, we would suggest that persons learned in the law, and of character and experience, be elected trinnially and have a juriediction the eame as that now exercised by our present Al-dermen, and be paid a liberal salary, and have, say four, located at four principal points in the city of Pittsburgh and two in points in the city of Pittscurgn and two in the city of Alleghenv, with power to appoint clerks, whose duty it would be to keep a record of all cases the before such officer and make a monthly return of all costs collected to the county, and pay over the same to the county. And that in the boroughs and townships the number of Justices he reduced to one for each borough. Justices be reduced to one for each borough or township, and that the compensation of such fusices shall be the same as that now provided by law, and that the present sys-tem be abolished.

POLACE COURT. The subject of a Police Court having been suggested to us for consideration, we, after deliberation upon the subject, are of opinion that such court could not be established unless a grand and traverse jury are con-nected therewith, and the effect of this would be to transfer the costs of the Court of Quarter Sessions from the county to the of Quarter sessions from the county to the city, thereby entailing on the city onerous to tration without adequate return. That is establishment of a Police Court, such as contemplated, is not demanded by public court, and a contemplated is not demanded by public court. new essity, as the Courts already established can transact all business brought before the, m, and the Judges of the Court of Quar-ter Sessions have, by law, the power to sum mon grand and traverse juries when-ever, in their opinion, the business of the Court may require. NULSANCES We would recommend further that the authori ties of the city and county be requested to repress the nuisances created by railroad cars by stopping on the crossings of the pa blic streets, to the great inconvenience of our citizens.

COMPLIMENTARY. In closing our labors we must express our thanks to J. B. Flack. Esq., and his efficient assist ant, John G. McConnell, Esq., for the careful and attentive manner that they have attended to the wants of the Grand Jury and the interests of the county, and we congretulate the people of the county on their selection of so able and efficient

The Lane Murder Case.

Lewis Lane, who has been twice tried and convicted of the murder of his wife, Henrietta Lane, by means of poison, has not yet been executed, and, it appears, will not be if his counsel can prevent it. He was certainly fortunate in having such counsel assigned him, as he could not have employed men who would have labored more faithfully to save his life had he possessed the wealth of Rothchilds. Maj. Geo. W. Murphy, his principal Deputy, generally accompanies him here, but we miss him at this term, the increase of business being such that Gen. -Gov. McClurg, of Missouri in his inaugnral message; says he will appoint none but loyal and strictly honest men to office, and that if his appointees should at any time give place to disloyalty, he will exercise the power vested in him to effect their re-moval. He favors an amendment to the Registration law, which will enable the Executive to remove registrars for any proper cause, and recommends that the militial laws be altered, and that the militial of the State shall be under the sole control of the Governor. He opposes any proposition looking to the enfranchisement of rebels in exchange for negro suffrage, and says rebels ought not to be restored to the ballot so long as the right of suffrage is denied to the negro. He recommends that the constitutional amendment striking the word "white" from the Constitution, defeated ast November, should be again submitted to the people at the next general election. He says the State institutions should be removed from the control of the people of Boone and Galloway counties, on account of the rebellious tendency of these people.
