THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

Court met at the usual hour yesterday morning, Judge Mellon on the bench.

NOT GUILTY.

The jury in the case of the Commonwealth vs. Baptiste Dotte, Bernard Hoffman, Peter Grant and Henry Kramer, indicted for riot, the facts of which have been previously published, returned a verdict of not guilty and directed that the defendants pay the costs.

VERDICT OF GUILTY.

In the case of Commonwealth vs. Geo. Forsythe, indicted for indecent assault, reported yesterday, the jury found a verdict of guilty of assault. The Court sentenced the prisoner to pay a fine of five dollars and costs of prosecution.

NOLLE PROSEQUI.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Joseph Lofink, Jr., indicted for selling liquor on Sunday, a nolle prosequi was entered, and the accused discharged upon payment of costs.

CONVICTED.

David Hobaugh, arraigned upon two indictments for assault and battery, his wife and daughter being the prosecuting witnesses, was tried and the jury returned verdicts of guilty in both cases. The prisoner was sentenced to pay a fine of one dollar and the costs of prosecution in each case.

ACQUITTED.

L. Wolf, indicted for illegal liquor selling, Wm. Shore prosecutor, was tried and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty, directing that the prosecutor pay the costs.

AGGRAVATED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

William Norris was arraigned on an indictment for aggravated assault and battery, James Ford prosecutor, and plead not guilty. It appears that the parties worked together in Wood's Iron Mill, and that they got into a fight, during which the prosecutor was knocked down. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty, and the costs were divided between the parties.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

In the case of Riley Jackson, indicted for felonious assault and battery, Alfred Cooper prosecutor, reported yesterday, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty of the felony charged in the indictment, but guilty of unlawful cutting. The prisoner was remanded for sentence.

The time for which the jurors in attendance were summoned having expired, they were discharged with the thanks of the Court. A new panel will be presented on Monday.

—Internal revenue receipts are increasing, and for this month will reach twelve million dollars. The receipts for customs will also be very heavy.

—Smith's paper mill, in Seymour, Conn., was burnt on Monday night. A man named Amasa Trowbridge perished in the flames. Loss, $40,000; insured for $14,000.

—The Democratic members of the Maine Legislature last night in caucus nominated, as their candidate for United States Senator, Hon. A. P. Gould, of Thomaston.

—Gen. Stoneman, in his testimony before the Congressional Reconstruction Committee acknowledged that he was a candidate for the position of Supreme Judge of Virginia.

—A bore of six feet in depth through the Hell-gate rocks, thirty-five feet below the surface of the water, in New York harbor, has been successfully accomplished by Shelbourn's apparatus.

—Facts are stated throwing discredit on the story Andrew Reed, the western merchant, who alleges that he was chloroformed and robbed of five thousand dollars at Earl's hotel, New York.

—A meeting of the prominent merchants of Boston has been held, and a committee appointed to take the necessary steps to memorialize Congress for a renewal of the Reciprocity Treaty with Canada.

—Andrew Reed, a dry goods merchant from the West, was chloroformed and robbed, while asleep in his room, at Earl's House, in New York, on Tuesday night. Loss five thousand dollars. No arrests.

—The use of the Wisconsin Assembly Chamber has been tendered on Monday evening, and successive evenings, for a discussion of the political issues of the day by the rival candidates for United States Senatorship.

—The funded debt of the city of Philadelphia is nearly thirty-seven million dollars. The receipts from taxes last year amounted to nine and a quarter millions, and there were expended nearly eight millions.

—The Hampshire woolen mills, owned by Little and Stanton, at Huntington, Mass., were totally destroyed by fire Thursday night, together with a large lot of manufactured goods. Several adjoining buildings were also destroyed. Loss $75,000.

—The Board of Trade, of Toronto, held a special meeting Wednesday night to consider the Huron and Ontario Ship Canal scheme. Resolutions were passed condemning the scheme and advocating the enlargement of the Welland Canal.

—In Monroe, Green county, Wisconsin, Angelina Shroyer shot and killed Patrick Crotty, who seduced her two years ago, refused to maintain their child, and was insulting her when she fired at him. She is now in jail, but the people sympathize with her.

—A boiler in George Wood's brush handle shop, at Elizabethport, N. J., exploded yesterday morning. The boiler was thrown into Winans & Bros. tin shop, two hundred feet distant, killing Benjamin H. Winans, the proprietor, and John Regan, of Berger, N. J., a boatman, and seriously wounding Stanley Miller and four others.

—The Railroad Committee of the New York State Senate yesterday asked for instructions relative to the refusal of an Erie director to answer certain questions as to the disposition made of a large amount of additional stock, which he claimed was beyond the scope of the investigation ordered by the Senate. By a vote of fourteen against thirteen the Senate tabled the whole subject.

—A London paper states that Minister Johnson responded to a query from the Emigration Society respecting the naturalization of British subjects in America, as follows: "You will have no difficulty whatever if you become citizens of America and return to your own country, on being called upon to do any act here on the ground that you owe any allegiance to the Government of England. Whenever you return here you will be clothed with the protection of America, as much as if you had been born in America. We consider you in point of law a citizen born with us, entitled to all our rights, and that we are under obligations to protect you the same as we would those born on our soil."

Upon the latest railway disaster in this vicinity, the New York Tribune remarks as follows:

"The "Pan-Handle" Railroad approaches Pittsburgh from the West by sharp curves and embankments on the very brink of the river. After storms or freshets, its trains are always liable to great danger here from the sliding away or washing away of the track. No one can know this better than the officers of the road, and they have had warnings enough of the gravest nature, to make their neglect to have the track so thoroughly watched at such seasons that an accident like that of yesterday would be impossible, an act of apparently inexcusable criminality."

☞—Another terrible murder has been committed in Philadelphia. Thursday night two men, Joseph Donahue and James Dempsey got into a quarrel and after a desperate struggle Donahue drew a pocket knife and cut Dempsey's throat from ear to ear, causing death in a few moments. Donahue was promptly arrested and confessed his crime, but insists the act was done under great provocation and in self-defense.

THE MACHINE, CALLED MAN,

Is a very complicated and delicate one, and is more liable to get out of order, and much more difficult to repair, than any combination of wheels, and cranks, and levers, made by the hands of man. As a rule, it is tinkered too much, and badly tinkered at that. It is often calomelized, narcotized, depleted, and otherwise maltreated, when all that it really needs is a wholesome tonic and re-torative like HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, to put it in proper trim and keep it so. The stomach is shamefully maltreated. In the first place, the food which its juices are intended to dissolve, is too frequently thrown into it hastily, and in a half masticated condition, in which state the gastric acid cannot properly act upon it. The result is dyspepsia. Then comes the doctor, and finding the digestive organs weak and the bowels inert, he proceeds to weaken and paralyze still more with drastic purgatives. These failing—as they always do—to produce a salutary change, he tells the invalid that medical science can do no more for him. This, with all due deference, is a mistake,—one of those mistakes which Talleyrand said were tantamount to crimes. What the dyspeptic needs is invigoration, to strengthen the stomach with HOSTETTER'S BITTERS, and the stomach will strengthen every other part of the human machine, and make it, in common parlance, as good as new. Upon the state of the digestion depends, in a measure, the condition of the whole system. Now, the Bitters are the most admirable tonic known. They consist of the finest vegetable invigorants and restoratives, combined with an unadulterated stimulant. The dyspeptic needs nothing else to effect a cure, except a light, nutritious diet, and a fair amount of exercise. Even in the absence of these last mentioned accessories, the tonic and alterative properties of the preparation will work wonders, enabling the dyspeptic to digest inferior fare with comparative ease, and to maintain a good habit of body, in spite of the drawbacks of a sedentary occupation

THE SOUND OF THE LUNGS.

One of the most accurate ways of determining whether the lungs are in a healthy or diseased condition, is by means of listening to the respiration. To those experienced in this practice it becomes as plain an index to the state of the lungs, and is as well known to the operator as are the voices of his most intimate acquaintances. The belief that long standing coughs, and diseases of the lungs upon which they are dependent, are incurable, are fast becoming obsolete. One great advantage to be gained from this advance in medical knowledge is the earlier application of those who become afflicted with these diseases to some one competent to afford relief. The error which had taken hold of the public mind in regard to the curability of consumption, or rather non-curability, is fast becoming obliterated, and it is well that it should be so, not that persons should lose that salutary fear which would make them apply for a timely remedy, but that all might be induced to use remedies while there is any hope. It is the delay in these cases that fills us with apprehension and alarm, for if every one would make timely application of DR. KEYSER'S LUNG CURE in the beginning of a cold or cough, few cases would go so far as to become irremediable.

Sold at the Doctor's great Medicine Store, No. 140 Wood street. WILL SHORTLY REMOVE TO HIS NEW STORE, NO. 16 LIBERTY STREET, SECOND DOOR FROM ST. CLAIR.

DR. KEYSER'S RESIDENT OFFICE FOR LUNG EXAMINATIONS AND THE TREATMENT OF OBSTINATE CHRONIC DISEASES, No. 130 PENN STREET, PITTSBURGH, PA. Office Hours from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M., and from 7 to 8 at night.
