Meet To-Night.—The Allegheny Councils will hold a stated meeting this evening, at seven o'clock, for the purpose of electing city officers for the ensuing year.

Committed .- Ruth Ann Murray was yes terday committed to jail on an information for surety of the place preferred against her by Sarah Mitchell before Alderman Lindsay.

G. A. R .- There will be a Convention of the Posts of the Grand Army of the Repub-lic on the Allegheny side of the river, held at the League Rooms on Leacock street, evening.

The young people of the First Cumber-land Presbyterian Church, will hold a Prayer Meeting in the Sabbath School room at half past seven o'clock this evening. You are especially and cordially invited to be present.

Break Down. - A two horse wagon broke down on Federal street, near the corner of down on rederal street, near the corner of Ohio street, Allegheny, yesterday after-noon, about three o'clock. The accident caused some irregularity in the running of the street cars for an hour or two.

Personal, Our genial and worthy young friend, Mr. A. P. McClure, formerly of this city, paid us a visit yesterday. He represents the widely known Philadelphia dry goods house of Bush, Bunn & Co., and his many friends will be pleased to learn of his good health and prosperity.

A Good Suggestion.—A writer in the Chronicle suggests the passage of an ordinance, by the Councils of both cities, requiring all railroad trains to come to a stop before crossing any leading thoroughfare in the city limits, and also requiring all street cars to stop before crossing any steam railroad track.

Arm Broken.—Yesterday morning about eight o'clock a little son of Mayor Drum, aged about ten years, while riding a horse to water fell to the ground and broke his arm a few inches above the wrist. The ac cident occurred near the Mayor's residence on Observatory Hill, in the rear of Alle gheny. Dr. James Herron attended the ir juries of the little sufferer.

Twenty-Second Ward, Pitttburgh,—The first official meeting of the Board of School Directors for Twenty-Second ward was or-ganized on the 16th inst. An election was held for the different offices, with the fol-lowing result: President, Springer Harbaugh; Secretary, E. K. Bruce; Collector and Treasurer, William Irwin; Member Delegated to the Central Board, Lewis J.

Union Skating Park .- The Union Skating Park, Allegheny, is covered with fine ice, and is now open to the public. The managers have spared no pains or ex-pense in perfecting arrangements for the accommodation of the public, and everything is now complete. For the lovers

Death of a Brave Officer, Capt. David McClain, late of the 61st Penna. Volun-teers, died on the 26th ultimo, of congesof the brain at Austin, Texas, where he was stationed, belonging to the regular army. Efforts will be made to bring his his body home to Ptttsburgh for interment. He was a brave young soldier, a good officer and a genial gentleman, whose death will be regretted in this city.

Velocipedes.—The Pittsburgh Gymnastic Association have secured several veloci-pedes of the latest and most approved pat-terns, and will have them on exhibition at the Gymnasium on Thursday evening. The record of the weather from the 14th This novel method of locomotion is coming of December to the 12th of January: Nine-into general use in many of the eastern and teen variable and cloudy, nine rain, three western cities, and in time will, doubtless, be adopted here, and the Gymnasium will be an excellent place to learn to "navigate"

Proposed New Steamer.—At a recent meeting of the Columbia Hook and Ladder Company of Allegheny, a Committee of twelve, with Mr. Joseph Christy as Chairman, was appointed to solicit subscriptions from the citizens for the purchase of a new steam fire engine. The object is one which certainly appeals strongly to the sympathy of every citizen and property holder, and we hope the Company will be successful in their efforts.

Services at the Academy.—We understand that the religious services at the Academy of Music, on Sunday evening, under the auspices of the American Unitarian Association, were well attended, and the audience thoroughly interested. Rev. Mr. Lovering delivered a discourse in the morning on "Liberal Christianity;" his subject in the evening was "Every Man has his Work." He will preach on Sunday evening next at the same place.

safe Deposit Company.—At the meeting of the Board to elect officers, held yesterday, Wm. Phillips was elected President, Henry Lloyd Vice-President and S. F. Von Bonnhorst Secretary and Treasurer. The organization is as follows: President, Wm. Phillips; Vice President, Henry Lloyd; District President, Presiden rectors, William Rea, James I. Bennett, Byron H. Painter, George Black; Wm. M. Lyon, Joseph S. Morrow, C. G. Hussey; Secretary and Treasurer, S. F. VonBonn-

Committed for a Further Hearing.—Yes-terday morning, John Barnes, who is charged with attempting to rob the mail at the Union Depot, the circumstances of which we published, had a hearing before a United States Commissioner who committed him to jail for a further hearing. The prisoner is also suspected of stealing a couple of mail boxes from one of the trains on the Holidaysburgh Branch of the Pennsylvania railroad, a few days ago.

Produce Price Current.-The well known and responsible produce commission mer-chants, No. 257 Liberty street, publish their chants, No. 257 Liberty street, publish their price current for this date on the fifth page of to-day's paper. This house is one of the oldest and most reliable of our business firms and monopolizes a vast share of the patronage directed towards the city, having the confidence of consignees and shippers of produce throughout the country. We speak knowingly when we commend them in high terms to our readers as eminently worthy of patronage.

Serious Fail.—Yesterday morning Mr. Mertz, jeweler, employed at H. Richardson & Co's establishment corner Fifth avenue and Market streets, while walking along the pavement in front of the store, slipped and fell upon the icy pavement, slipped and fell upon the icy pavement, fracturing the cap of the knee and sustaining other severe injuries. Improvement in Railroad Cars. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company are about introducing an improvement in passenger coaches, which, if it proves successful, will add materially to the comfort, convenience and safety of railroad travel.

The improvement is in the arrangement for heating the cars, and consists of stoves or furnaces, two to a car, hung under the floor on either side, from which pipes or heaters extend along the floor at the sides of the car, covered with registers through of the car, covered with registers through which the heated air passes.

The advantage claimed for this system is that the heat coming in at the bottom makes the car more comfortable, and that the temperature can be more easily regulated, and that the furnaces being attached to the outside of the car, in case of accident, they are readily detached and conflagration is prevented. Twenty-four of these cars are in course of construction at the Company's shops in Altoona, and are intended for ny's shops in Altoona, and are intended for through trains between this city and Phila-delphia. The first of the number having been completed was run from Altoona to this city on a trial trip on Saturday, and is said to have been very satisfactory.

An Intruder. Yesterday morning about ten o'clock a lady occupying a residence on Western, near Irwin, avenue, having occasion to go up stairs was much startled to find a young man secreted behind one of the bed room doors. We will endeavor to discharge the duties of city printer to the best of our ability during the year, and trust to merit the favors of our friends in the future as we have endeavored to deserve them in the past.

Amusements,

OPERA House .- Mr. and Mrs. Leffing. well made their first appearance on the stage in this city at the Opera House last eyening, and were greeted by a large and fashionable audience. Byron's burlesque of "Cindrella" was presented with the Leffingwell as Clorinda, and Mrs. M. W. Leffingwell as Bundine, and no actors ever made a more decided success than did the Leffingwell last night. The entertainment concluded with "Too much for good Nature," which was highly appreciated by the andience.

THEATRE. — The Gregory combination troupe commenced their third week at the Theater last night, and as usual the house was crowded to its utmost capacity. Little Bennie Gregory, the charming young com-medienne, of course receives a full proportion of the applause. The Can Can by Wille, Gertrude and Leon Cavender was good and highly appreciated by the audience. This is positively the last week of the Gregory's, and the amusement going public should improve the opportunity of eeing them.

MUSEUM.—Major Burnell's Museum cos-inues to be the greatest attraction in the city for ladies and children particularly. It is open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. daily. ORPHANS, FAIR.—The interest manifested in the Orphans' Fair, in progress in the basement of the Cathedral, appears to be on the increase. The attendance is fally as Cathedral band is in attendance every night and enlivens the occasion with excel- ing it.

lent music. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—A large and select ACADEMY OF MUSIC A. Tag and select audience assembled at the Academy of Music last night to hear Mr. John B. Gough deliver his lecture on "Habit." The lecture is not his best, but was well de-livered and was fully satisfactory to his hearers. The Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Mercantile Library Association have been eminently successful, and peculiarly fortunate in the selection of lecturers this season, and we have no doubt the remaining lectures of the course will be as well received as those which have been delivered.

Fatal Result.

Coroner Clawson yesterday held an inmest on the remains of Mary Burke, the little girl who fell over the bill above the Sligo Mill, a distance of thirty feet, on Friday evening last, striking her head and receiving injuries which resulted in her death the following evening. She remained insensible from the time of receiving the in-juries until her death. Dr. J. H. Roberts, the attending physician testified that death was caused by congestion of the brain. Mary Joice, who was with the deceased at the time of the accident, stated that she saw a lump of coal fall upon Mary Burke's head, immediately after which she fell over the hill. The deceased was about thirteen years of age. The jury, after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict of accidental

Charity Fair.

The ladies of Mansfield will boid a Charity Fair during the present week in Mansfield. Among the prizes to be contested for is a gold headed cane, to be awarded to the most popular gentleman of Stenbenville. Pittsburgh and Mansfield, the contestants being Messrs. John D. McGowan, of the Panhandle Road, Robert Grier, Cashler National Trust Company, and Mansfield Brown, of Mensfield. Here is a field for competition—Steubenville and the Pan-handle, Pittsburgh and the Trust Company, nancie, Furshingh and the Erust Company, and Mansfield and its popular home competitor. May the best man win, but where so much good material is offered it is hard to say who is entitled to the cane.

The Bil-Posting Business. The bill-rosting business seems to be environed with many diffigulties, at least if the career of one of its most prominent folning, proprietor of the Opera House, made information before Alderman McMasters against James for malicious mischief. Mr. Canning states for some time past the bills of the Opera House have been torn down in service the Delives James to be the offender. A warrant for his arrest was issuad. A warrant for his arrest was issued.

NEW YORK CITY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.1 New York, January 18 .- At a meeting of the Board of Health to-day, it was stated that fifteen cases of typhus fever have occurred in East Thirteenth street, between lst avenue and avenue A, including six deaths. The houses have been disinfected. Seven cases of small pox occurred in one house on West 31st street, including two deaths. These premises have also been disinfected. The carcases of dead horses, which have been lying in Greggs' stable on 23d street since the fire of some weeks ago, are at last being removed.

Two workmen, named John Shea and Amos Carter, were builed alive this evening in an excavation in Dominick street, and although dug out quickly the latter sustained fatal injuries. Shea was slightly bruised. In the Court of Common Pleas to-day

Judge Brady modified his injunction by striking out the words "restraining the Merchants Union Express Company from doing business." Subsequently Judge Sutherland issued an order removing the case to the Supreme Court and staying pro-ceedings in the Common Pleas.

Wm. G. Fargo, President of the American Merchants Union Company, publishes a card stating the case of McVicker against that company to be malicious and the con-tents of the complaint in regard to the solvency of the company to be libellous. He says proceedings for libel will be immediately commenced against the authors of the statements. Mr. Fargo says the actual cash assets of the new company are over five millions of dollars, without any indebted ness, and the business is large and profita-ble. He also says these proceedings have been instituted for speculative purposes by parties hostile to the new company, and cautions stockholders against being misled by their devices.

The western express train on the New Jersey Central Railroad this morning ran off the track, near Bound Brook, from a misplaced switch, while running thirty miles an hour. It is stated that no persons were injured.
