

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Progressing.—The work of removing the scaffolding around the new Cathedral tower is progressing slowly. It was interrupted by the late snow storms.

The annual examination of the School of Design for Women took place at the rooms, corner Sixth avenue and Wood street, on Saturday, 23d inst., at 10 o'clock.

Beat Him.—John Tuth, employed as hostler at Hare's Hotel, alleges that the steward of the house, John Coffin, attacked and beat him severely on Monday evening, for no apparent cause whatever. Alderman Donaldson issued a warrant for the arrest of the accused.

Assault and Battery.—Sebastian Wenzel made information before Justice Helgeson, East Birmingham, yesterday, charging a shop with assault and battery. It is alleged that the defendant attacked and beat the son of complainant with a broomstick. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Bank Election.—At the annual meeting of Stockholders in the Allegheny Savings Bank, Federal Reserve, held on Tuesday yesterday afternoon, the following Board of Directors was chosen for the ensuing year: J. L. Graham, J. T. Stockdale, A. Moore, W. S. Evans, John Benn, S. H. Geyer.

surety.—Aldridge Phillips alleges that William Scott threatened to beat his brains out with a spade, and that he should carry the threat into execution inasmuch as he made before Justice Helgeson, East Birmingham, against Scott for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Scott.

Disorderly Conduct.—Mary Ertzman made information before Justice Helgeson, East Birmingham, yesterday, charging Arthur Noble, her son-in-law, with disorderly conduct. She alleges that Noble came to her house and behaved in a very disorderly manner. A warrant was issued for his arrest.

Information Wanted.—A resident of the Third ward, Allegheny, named Joe Green, while laboring under a fit of mental aberration, wandered away from his home on Henlock street, and has since not been heard from. Any information of his whereabouts left at the Allegheny office will confer a great favor upon his friends, who are apprehensive that he has met with some accident.

Manchester Passenger Railway.—The annual meeting of the Manchester Passenger Railway Company was held Monday afternoon at which the following gentlemen were elected to serve as Directors for the ensuing term: Messrs. Dr. S. H. Gilmore, Chas. Speer, Andrew Achley, C. M. Siebert, W. J. Kounitz. At a subsequent meeting of the Board, Capt. W. J. Kounitz was re-elected President, and Mr. C. M. Siebert Secretary and Treasurer.

Stock Sales.—The following were the Stock Sales on Tuesday evening, January 19th, second floor of Commercial Sales Rooms, 106 Smithfield street, by A. McMillan, Auctioneer: Exchange National Bank, $70 25; Second National Bank, 69 25; Allegheny National Bank, 63 25; Third National Bank, 127 50; Second National Bank, 127 50; National Insurance Co. of Allegheny, 37 75.

Through the energy and perseverance of one of our former citizens, we are enabled to inform those of our readers who intend to make Tennessee their future home, that the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company will carry them at half rates, after the following letter will show:

Dear Sir: Yours of the 4th inst. to Mr. Pink, General Superintendent, is referred to me. We are now having blank orders printed which you can give or send to actual settlers, after filling up properly and countersigning them. These orders here, will entitle each adult and every two persons between four and twelve years of age to a round-trip ticket to Nashville and return. Very respectfully,

W. H. KIRK, G. T. A. The same arrangement is extended to the completed work of the Nashville and North-western road shortly.

The Market Committee of City Councils held a meeting last evening and organized by electing Mr. McEwen, of the Eleventh ward, chairman. After the discussion of various matters, Messrs. John Wrigley and John Messner were elected Market Commissioners for the ensuing year, and Mr. Douglas continued. It is expected that the Market Committee will be organized by the Superintendent. A resolution was passed declaring the office of Clerk of Markets as under and subordinate to the Superintendent. This, it is intended, will prevent any conflict of authority in the future, or at least until a proper ordinance is introduced.

The Councils during the duties of the market officials. It was resolved that an ordinance be reported to Councils providing for the licensing and government of the annual army of basket carriers who infest our market houses, some of them picking up papers and anything else they can put their hands on. It is expected that the Committee will put in a claim for an appropriation of about two thousand dollars to meet the expenses of the current year, that sum being the minimum amount judged necessary for requirements.

A Mixed Case.—A few days since Thomas Sheridan purchased a watch from Pat Finden for twenty dollars, paying him for the same and taking it away. Subsequently Sheridan became dissatisfied with his bargain, on account of the watch not being what it had been represented, and he returned the watch to Finden, who took it back, but it appears, did not return the twenty dollars, which had been paid to him by Finden. Yesterday Sheridan made information before the Mayor, charging Pat with larceny. Patrick was arrested and brought before his Honor, when he stated his case, saying that he had spent the money before Sheridan returned the watch, and consequently could not refund it. He admitted the facts charged against him and proposed to compromise the case by refunding the money. Having but ten dollars, he gave that to Sheridan and gave security for the payment of the other ten, and the case was dismissed.

The Rivalry Again.—It seems as if the rivalry between the Messrs. Thackeray and Trimble, bill posters, will never cease until one or the other of them be exterminated. Monday afternoon they had another encounter on St. Clair street, when Thackeray, according to reports, attacked and beat Trimble with a pistol and belabored him over the head and on other parts of his body to a rather unpleasant and uncomfortable extent. Thackeray was arrested by one of Alderman Donaldson's police and gave bail for a hearing on a charge of assault and battery, preferred against him by Trimble.

Cross Suits.—Phillip Matts made information yesterday morning before Alderman Taylor, against Elizabeth Heil, for assault and battery, alleging that she kicked and struck him in an unprovoked manner. Elizabeth was arrested and after a hearing discharged. She then in turn instituted proceedings against Matts for assault and battery, and in a hearing was discharged.

St. Valentine's Day.—St. Valentine's day is rapidly approaching, and the Postoffice will be flooded with the peculiar missives born on that day. The best selection of sentimental and comic Valentines will be found at the popular florists and book dealers at Col. J. Egan, Sixth avenue, near Smithfield street. His prices are very reasonable. A full line of all the new monthly magazines and periodicals, and the latest publications and standard literary works, will also be found at this popular depot.

Amusements.

New Opera House.—Laffingwell, the greatest caricaturist the age has produced, appeared last night for the second time at the Opera House, and was greeted by a very large and appreciative audience. To say that he is clever, does not fully express the genius and peculiar talent of the actor; to say that he is truly magnificent, approaches the truth much closer; and yet to praise him as an exorbitantly funny, graceful, funny, massive and yet genteel person, classical features, which even Booth might envy, a voice singularly capable of imitating, and wonderful powers of facial expression and contortion, Laffingwell is destined to rank pre-eminent in the dramatic world. He appeared in a piece, "Too Much for Good Nature," Laffingwell developed his eccentric style of acting in his fullest degree, and he was most effectively supported by the first-class stock company which now graces the boards of the Opera House. In these two cases the caricaturist is immense, and not to cast him in a supporting part would be to do him an injustice. He is a comedian in the true sense of the word, and his performance will be presented to night, and those of our readers who are not present at the box office, for if they attend they will certainly make a wide step out of the range of what they imagine constitutes propriety.

THEATRE.—The wonderful success of the Gregory Combination troupe at the old Theatre is not only an evidence of the genuine merit of their entertainments, but is proof positive that Pittsburghers appreciate talent and liberally patronize all amusements of a useful character. The Gregory troupe played to full houses for over two weeks, and they are becoming more and more popular every day. An entire change of the troupe was made, and the new company, headed by the first-class comedienne, Miss Kate O'Neill, and Miss Lizzie Hardy were well past, and contributed no little to the extravagant burlesque of "The Merry Widow." The Gregory troupe is a well-organized and well-trained company, and their performance will be presented to night, and those of our readers who are not present at the box office, for if they attend they will certainly make a wide step out of the range of what they imagine constitutes propriety.

THEATRE.—The wonderful success of the Gregory Combination troupe at the old Theatre is not only an evidence of the genuine merit of their entertainments, but is proof positive that Pittsburghers appreciate talent and liberally patronize all amusements of a useful character. The Gregory troupe played to full houses for over two weeks, and they are becoming more and more popular every day. An entire change of the troupe was made, and the new company, headed by the first-class comedienne, Miss Kate O'Neill, and Miss Lizzie Hardy were well past, and contributed no little to the extravagant burlesque of "The Merry Widow." The Gregory troupe is a well-organized and well-trained company, and their performance will be presented to night, and those of our readers who are not present at the box office, for if they attend they will certainly make a wide step out of the range of what they imagine constitutes propriety.
