He adthat the item was not necessary. He ad-ded that the clerk of the House had manded that the clerk of the House had been aged the funds for repairs very economi-cally and very honestly. The motion was agreed to. Mr. PHELPS moved to strike out the item of $29,150 for newspapers and sta tionary for meinters at $125 each. Without acting on the amendment, the Committee arose and the House at tive o'clock took recess till half past seven o'clock

EVENING SESSION.

Mr. INGERSOLL made an argument Mr. INCERSOID made an argument in favor of paper currency, regarding the resumption of specie payment at present an impossibility. He also as-sailed the National Bank system as unfair for the West and South, saying if it is to be continued it should be equalized and the West and South have their fair share of circulation, which he claimed could be attained under his bill providing for a free banking system. Mr. CULLOM defended the position of the Republican party in connection with reconstruction, and supported the Con-stitutional amendment reported by Mr. Boutwell. Mr. KERR spoke against Mr. Bout-well's amendment, which he contended was unworthy of this age and would be an eternal disgrace to the country. Mr. NIBLACK spoke on the subject of the revenue of the Government.

Instead of receiving that amount the clerk handed yere injuries. He is now lying at Mercy Hospital in this city, and the physician in attendance has but slight hopes of his recovery. We could not ascertain his him thirty cents, causing an argument to ensue in regard to the denomination of the bill presented, the customer claim-ing it as two dollars, and the clerk as The Spirit of the Fair, a neat and handsomely printed little journal, pub-lished by the managers of the Charity Fair, has been laid on our table. It is Stouly maintaining that was but one. Of course as it had been thrown into the drawer along with others, the question could not be positively decided either way. The customer, thoroughly heated full of choice reading matter, original-and selected, and reflects much credit to by the discussioln, finally left the store in high dudgeon, marched straight to an in high dudgeon, marched straight to an up town Alderman's office, and made information against the clerk for larceny as bailee, upon which a warrant was issued. The costs in the case which will have to be baid by somebody will amount to more than the original sum in question, not taking into consideration the lost time and amovance attending the case. Thus far it has been of a rather poor quality, but, from present indications none befor will be had this winter and acting, perhaps, on the principle that "half a loaf is better than none," the dealers have concluded to take the best they can get "The Isaac Frost and John Brown, for surety of the peace. Fisher states that he is employed at a livery stable in the Ninth ward, Frost and Brown being also em-ployed at the same establishment. Yesterday they had, some little misunder-standing, when Frost, according to the allegations, become wonderfully excited allegations, become wonderfully excited and was exceedingly profane in his threats against Fisher, who had incurred his displeasure. I tracket also, by some unfortunate act, had aroused the ire of Brown, who selzed upon an iron bolt and threatoned, to demolish his oppo-nent, a threat which might have been carried into execution had not the in-tended victim, with remarkable presence of mud, bolted from the vicinity. It is supposed by a number of people of the present day that "John Brown's body lies mouldering in the tomb," but the energetic action said to have been per-formed by Mr. Brown, in the present case, is rather damaging to this popular theory. This question, however, was not to take the best they can get. The season, however, may yet terminate more favorably for them. Monongahela Valley Railroad.
