CITY AND SUBURBAN.

False Alarm.—A false alarm of fire was sounded from box 13, Allegheny Fire Alarm Telegraph, corner of Western avenue and Bidwell street, at an early hour on Saturday morning.

Iron For Pittsburgh.—The Wheeling Intelligencer announces the shipment of bar iron to this city to a party who imagined that they could do better by purchasing in that market than at home.

Will Meet To-morrow.—The Pittsburgh Councils will meet to-morrow at two o'clock, for the purpose of electing four Guardians of the Poor. The Select Council will not meet to-day as announced by the President on the last day of meeting.

Ground Hog Day.—To-morrow will be ground hog day. If the weather-wise porcine seer be shadow cast by the sun, there will be, according to superstitious ideas on the subject, a snap of cold weather during the succeeding six weeks.

Most Popular Alderman.—The following is the vote on the magnificent chair to be awarded the most popular Alderman, at the Union Charity Club table at the Charity Fair: McMasters, 45; Butler, 50; Moreland, 25; Ammon, 75; Neeper, 20; Albritz, 15; Morrow, 20.

Freight Train Wrecked.—A freight train on the Panhandle Railroad jumped the track on Saturday morning in the vicinity of Walker's Mills and was badly wrecked, several of the cars being almost demolished. The McDonald accomodation train was delayed about an hour and a half by the accident.

Disorderly.—James Killian and John Williams were arrested on Saturday evening and fined ten dollars and costs for engaging in a fight on Ohio street, Allegheny. The distubance occurred in front of a beer saloon, from which they had just emerged. This fact throws some light on the cause of the row.

Trunk Found.—A Saratoga trunk was found yesterday morning in a wagon in Cherry alley. The trunk appears to be new, and bears no marks of having been used, nor is there any evidence that it had been broken open. It was unlocked and empty when found. It was taken to the watch-house, where it still remains.

Purchased for a Tower.—The large derrick formerly occupying a place in the rear of the Good Will Hose Company's house, Sixth ward, Allegheny, has been purchased by the Ellsworth Hose Company of the Third ward, who intend converting it into a hose tower, and removed it to their house for that purpose on Saturday afternoon.

Bold Larceny.—Saturday morning, at an early hour, some bold thief broke through one of the large show windows of O. Hartung & Co.'s shoe store, on Federal street, Allegheny, and stole two pairs of boots and a pair of fancy shoes, with which he made off before three policemen, who happened to be in the vicinity, could lay hands upon him.

Death of a Minister.—Rev. William Cooper, the able and zealous pastor of the Tarentum Methodist Episcopal Church, and an honored member of the Pittsburgh M. E. Conference, departed this life on Friday last, at his parsonage. He labored with much fervor in the moral vineyard, and has gone to reap the rich reward of a well spent religious life. His funeral will take place to-morrow from the residence of Mr. James Clark, Tarentum.

Supposed Incendiary Arrested.—A telegraphic dispatch was received Saturday evening, by Messrs. McAboy & Ward, two of the proprietors of the Pittsburgh Glass Works, which were destroyed by fire Monday last, from Bridgeport, Belmont county, Ohio, stating that a man had been arrested in that city who confessed to setting fire to the building. The name of the man was not given. An officer will probably be sent for him this morning.

The Weather.—Yesterday was one of the coldest days of the season. On Saturday morning before daylight the air was oppressively warm and so heavy that steamboats plying the river half a mile away were distinctly heard puffing, and the wheels of cars rolling over tracks was heard distinctly in all parts of the city. It is said that on Thursday night thunder and lightning visited the city. Verily, we are having a brief season of weather and variations.

A Doughty Daniel.—Catharine Bradley alleges that Daniel Dougherty came into the domicil occupied by herself and her husband, or rather her husband and herself, on Friday evening, and threatened the male part of the establishment with a severe castigation, for some fancied offence, but was prevented from carrying his threat into execution by the hasty exit of the intended victim. Alderman Donaldson had the pugilistic individual arrested on Saturday, but after a hearing, the case was compromised, the defendant paying the costs.

Collided.—Saturday evening, about six o'clock, one of the cars of the Manchester Passenger Railway collided with a one-horse wagon opposite the Grant House, Federal street, Allegheny, upsetting the vehicle and pitching out the driver, an elderly man named Simpson, under the horse. He was picked up and conveyed into the Grant House, where it was discovered that beyond a few slight bruises he was uninjured. The collision is said to have been unavoidable, as the car was going down a steep grade and could not be checked up in time to prevent it.

Mysterious Case—A Body Found in a Snow Drift—Supposed Foul Play.

Saturday afternoon a telegraphic dispatch was received by Coroner Clawson, stating that the body of an unknown girl had been found in a snow drift, near Tarentum, and requesting him to proceed thither and hold an inquest. Upon the receipt of the message, the Coroner telegraphed to Justice W. B. Evans of Tarentum, instructing him to conduct the inquest. The body, it seems, was found in a field near Hite's station, about two miles this side of Tarentum, and when first discovered the supposition was that the girl had been frozen to death, but a subsequent examination created a strong suspicion of foul play. The body was found lying face downward, and appeared as though it had been there for several days, as it had slightly decomposed. It looked to be the body of a girl about sixteen years of age. Across one temple there was a severe cut or bruise, which had apparently been made by a blow from some blunt instrument. A number of persons in the vicinity visited and examined the remains, none of whom, however, could identify them.

A gentleman called at the Mayor's office during Saturday afternoon, and stated that a young girl had left her home in Tarentum ten days ago to visit a friend, but had never reached her destination and had not been heard of since. It is supposed that this fact may unravel the case which at present is enveloped in mystery, and awaits the investigation of a coroner's jury.

Quarter Sessions—Judges Mellon and Stowe.

SATURDAY, January 30.—In addition to the disposition of several cases of surety and abandonment, and the transaction of other unimportant business, the following sentences were passed:

J. F. Roup, charged with abandonment, was ordered to pay his wife four dollars per week until further orders of the Court. He was also directed to enter bail in the sum of $300 for the faithful performances of the order.

Frank Gallagher, convicted of a misdemeanor under the livery stable act, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

James White, Daniel Mernan, Patrick Dolan and Patrick Ward, convicted of malicious mischief, were each sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs.

The case of Wm. Burns, charged with desertion, came up for a hearing. The defendant alleged that he was not liable for the support of the complainant, as he had a divorce from an Indiana Court. The case is still under advisement.

The recognizances in the cases of Bernard Charlesworth, indicted for assault and battery at the June sessions, were remitted upon the payment of costs.

William Happham, an insane man, was committed to Dixmont Asylum by the Court.

Adam Hoffmeister, charged with surety, on oath of his wife, was required to enter in recognizance for his future good behavior, and to pay the costs.

The sentence of Jeremiah Hawley, Michael Ryan, and others convicted of felonious assault and battery, was postponed until next Saturday.

Pittsburgh Teacher's Institute.

The Pittsburgh Teacher's Institute held a regular monthly meeting Saturday morning at ten o'clock, in the chapel of the Central High School, corner of Sixth avenue and Wood street. The attendance was unusually large and the exercises quite interesting and instructive. The Allegheny Quartette Club was in attendance and added considerably to the interest of the occasion by their enlivening songs.

Prof. L. H. Eaton occupied the chair.

After opening the Institute with prayer, Rev. W. W. Young delivered an able and eloquent address on the teachers's work and responsibility. The speaker occupied about forty minutes in developing his theme, and was listened to throughout with marked attention.

Mr. Young's address was followed by a discussion of the topic, "Should the classics be taught in our higher public schools and academies," Prof. Crumb arguing the question from an affirmative standpoint and displaying considerable acquaintence with the subject.

At the conclusion of Prof. Crumb's remarks the Institute adjourned until the last Saturday in February, when Prof. Burtt will discuss the negative side of the topic.

THE MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Change of Administration—Mayor Blackmore's Police Parade—Presentations to Retiring Officials, New Officers, &c.

In all republican forms of government, where the will of the people is sovereign, periodical changes occur in all elective offices, and the office of Chief Magistrate of this large and thriving city is no exception to the rule. The people, by their ballots at the October election, decided to make a change and place a new man at the head of our municipal affairs for the next three years, and selected Jared M. Brush for the position. Mr. Brush having been declared duly elected received the oath of office and will enter upon the discharge of his official duties this morning.

The retiring official, Mayor Blackmore, who has labored hard during his administration, and endeavored to the best of his ability to discharge the onerous duties of the office, and has given special attention to the perfection of the police force, takes with him in his retirement to private life the respect and best wishes of all with whom his official position brough him in contact. Feeling that his efforts to create an efficient police force had been in a great measure successful, a graid parade of the police force was projected by him, and carried into effect on Saturday. The entire force, with one exception, reported at Wilkin's Hall at one o'clock, and at two formed in line on Fourth street, under command of the Mayor, preceded by Fred. Weis' Great Western Band, of twenty-four pieces, which, by the way, is one of the best bands in the State, marched through the principal streets of the city.

The display was very fine, and the men marched with the precision and accuracy of old soldiers. In consequence of the unfavorrble condition of the streets, the entire route of procession was not marched over, but all along the line as the procession passed the sidewalks were crowed with spectators.

Upon returning to Wilkin's Hall, Jno. C. McCarthy, Esq., at the request of the Mayor, addressed the men, and on behalf of his Honor, thanked them for the faithful manner in which they had discharged their duties. They were then dismissed and the men reported to the Captain of the watch for duty.

PRESENTATIONS.

The friends of Mayor Blackmore, Capt. M. W. Lewis and Mr. Joseph Snowden, the late Mayors' clerk, on the old police force, desiring to give to these gentlemen some token of their friendship, and in commemoration of the pleasant relations which had existed between them in their official duties, which terminated yesterday, assembled Saturday evening in the Mayor's private office, when each of the gentlemen above named, received a handsome present.

There were a number of the friends of the parties present, and at eight o'clock the meeting was organized by calling Ex-Mayor W. C. McCarthy to the chair, and appointing Alex. McIlwaine, John A. Strain, Alfred Kerr and John C. McCarthy, Esqs., Vice Presidents, and John McClaren, John A. Floyd, and the Reporters of the Press as Secretaries.

Alexander McIlwaine, in an elaborate address, presented Mayor Blackmore with an elegant gold watch and chain. The articles were purchased from J. R. Reed & Co., jewelers, 78 Fifth avenue, at a cost of three hundred and fifty dollars.

On the case was the following inscription: "Presented to Mayor Blackmore by his friends, January 30th, 1869."

John C. McCarthy, Esq., responded on behalf of the Mayor in a neat and appropriate speech.

R. B. Parkinson, Esq., on behalf of the friends of Captain Marquis W. Lewis, presented him with a fine gold watch and chain. Mr. Parkinson's remarks were highly complimentary to Captain Lewis, and exceedingly gratifying to his many friends. The watch and chain were purchased at Wm. Wilson's, Fourth avenue.

Captain Lewis in reply thanked his friends for this additional manifestation of their kindly feelings toward him.

Mr. Snowden was made the recipient of a beautiful gold headed cane, bearing the following inscription: "Presented to Joseph Snowden, Esq., by his friends as a token for his services as a public officer."

Officer McCury made the presentation speech, and Mr. Snowden responded briefly, thanking his friends for the gift.

The meeting then adjourned and the participants returned to their homes well pleased with the manner in which they spent the evening.

NEW OFFICERS.

This morning ex-Mayor Blackmore will vacate the office and Mayor Brush will take possession, and consequent upon this change there will be many others. Old faces, with which we have become familiar, and for the possesses of which we entertain the kindest feelings for the many courtesies received at their hands, will be replaced by new ones, which in time will be as familiar and their possessors as agreeable we hope as their predecessors. Messrs. M'Cready and Moon are the on'y men on the old force in the front office who have been retained. They are both excellent officers, faithful and fearless in the performance of their duties, and courteous to all in their business transactions. Chief of Police Butler, although new in that position, is by no means a stranger, having officiated as Alderman in this city for several years, a position he filled with credit to himself and to the general satisfaction of his constituents, is an old acquaintance, and we know him to be genial, courteous and gentlemanly in all his business transactions. While regretting the loss of the old friends, we hope to find in their successors men worthy to fill their positions. We can ask no more.

The Young Zouaves.

The Young Zouaves, a company of children, the orphans of Union soldiers, have made their appearance in our city, and last Saturday evening gave a delightful entertainment at the Soldiers' League Hall, 127 Lacock street, Allegheny, which was witnessed by a crowded house, composed of soldiers and citizens. These boys claim to be the best drilled company in the Union, and their performances would certainly lead one to believe so. The proceeds of their entertainments are to be devoted to the maintenance of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home in New York. A free entertainment will be given this evening at the Soldiers' League Hall, when all soldiers are invited to be present.

Fine Queensware.

Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors of the Keystone Pottery, are manufacturing daily, at their establishment, articles of queensware of every variety and style, which are said to be equal in every respect to the finest imported stock. The prices at which the goods are sold will also compare favorably with those of any similar establishment. We would advise those of our readers in need of articles in this line to call at the warehouse, No. 359 Liberty street, and examine the stock.

A Paid Fire Department.

The Commission appointed by City Councils to investigate the workings of the fire department in the different cities in the United States, and devise means for the better regulation of the Fire Department of this city, having submitted a report to Councils, in which they recommend the adoption of a paid department, the question arising among those interested is, Will the city purchase from the volunteer companies the apparatus of each? Not knowing what view the Committee take of this question, as it was not included in the very able report submitted by them, we are not prepared to give an opinion, but for the benefit of our readers, we append a statement of what the apparatus now in use in the city will cost. The figures are as follows:

DUQUESNE	Engine	$4,500
	2 Horses	700
	3 Sets Harness	150	$5,870
	1 Wagon	520
EAGLE	Engine	4,000
	3 Horses	1,000
	Hose Carriage	600
	Wagon	500
	Harness	120	$6,420
VIGILANT	Engine	5,000
	3 Horses	1,000
	Hose Carriage	700
	Wagon	400
	Harness	100	$7,200
RELIEF	Engine	3,500
	3 Horses	600
	Hose Carriage	600
	Harness	100	$4,700
ALLEGHENY	Engine	3,000
	2 Hose Carriages	1,650
	2 Horses	900
	2 Sets Harness	180
	1 Wagen	250	$5,880
NIAGARA	Engine	4,500
	Hose Carriage	800
	3 Sets Harness	150
	3 Horses	800	$6,250
INDEPENDENCE	Engine	4,900
	2 Hose Carriages	700
	3 Horses	1,650
	3 sets Harness	100	$7,750
NEPTUNE	Engine	3,300
	Hose Carriage	800
	3 Horses	1,000
	3 Sets Harness	100	$4,900
Grand total			$47,970

The change cannot be made during the present year, as the appropriations have been made, appropriating $35,000 to Fire Engines and Hose, and, according to the report of the Commission, it will require $58,000 to run a paid department such as it is proposed to establish.

There is another matter not considered in the report, which might be so managed as to cover the expenses that would be incurred in purchasing the apparatus and leave a handsome balance in favor of the city. The engines houses now occupied by the different companies belong to the city, and as they are all located on principal thoroughfares, where property is valuable, they might be disposed of and other property purchased and suitable buildings erected for at least one-half of what could be realized from the sale of the present property.

Heavy Robbery.

Ex-Chief of Police John Irwin received a dispatch, Saturday, from a Mr. Bisbury, Depot Marshal at Indianapolis, stating that a robbery had been committed by Charles Hurlick, his wife and a man whose name was unknown. The dispatch does not state where the robbery was perpetrated, but says that the parties named stole $9,000 in Government bonds and 7,000 in national currency, that they purchased tickets at Crestline for New York via Philadelphia, and further that they had a large trunk which it was presumed contained the money. The chief, accompanied by officer Herron, immediately repaired to the depot and on investigation found that the trunk spoken of had passed through on the train which had just gone out, but that there were no such persons as those described in the dispatch on the train. The next train was about ready to start and there was no time to look through it. A description of the parties was given to the Conductor, and he was directed to have the parties arrested if found on the train. The Conductor telegraphed from Brinton Station that the parties described in the telegram were aboard his train, and he was telegraphed to have them arrested at Altoona and held until an officer could arrive for them. Bisbing was telegraphed to and replied that he would take the first train east with the necessary papers for the arrest of the parties, and requested that they be held until his arrival. The trunk, it appears, went on to Harrisburg, where it was stopped and returned to Altoona. The parties arrested were searched and had in their possession but one hundred and eighty dollars. Officer Bisbing will probably arrive here this morning.

The Union Skating Park.

The magnificent Union Skating Park in Allegheny, on the line of the Manchester Passenger Railway, was flooded with pure, crystal water on Saturday night, and will be found to-day converted into a solid mirror of as pretty ice as skates ever glided over. This winter we have had but little sport on ice, and doubtless thousands will embrace the present splendid condition of the Union Skating Park, to enjoy themselves in the exhiliarating exercise. The very best order is preserved and the Park offers superior advantages to new beginners as well as the skilled in the art. A magnificent velocipede is exhibited each evening by a finished velocipedestrian, and forms a conspicuous attraction. Let no one fail to take advantage of the present splendid ice, as it is not improbable that it may be the last of the season. We believe it is the intention of the energetic managers of the Park to hold a grand skating carnival some time soon, of which we will duly advise our readers, as a good time will be afforded those who may attend.

What They Will Do.

Dr. Ross' Remedies are purely vegetable preparations, and are doing more good to the people than any other medicines ever offered to the public. They are sold at one dollar per bottle, and generally one or two bottles have the desired effect. We make a specialty of the following diseases, and warrant a cure in every case: Acute or Chronic Rheumatism, Catarrh, we have cured hundreds of cases, some of long standing; Dyspepsis, we believe we have the best remedy for this disease ever compounded. For diseases of the Throat and Lungs our Tar Compound is doing wonders. Dr. Ross' Remedies are manufactured and for sale wholesale and retail, at Nos. 26 and 28 Sixth street, (late St. Clair.)

Grand Vocal Concert.

On Friday evening next, at the Academy, will be held, under the auspices of our talented fellow-townsman, Professor C. Tetedoux, a grand vocal concert, in which a number of our most conspicuous amateur performers will participate. The programme embraces the names of Mrs. Chas. C. Mellor, Misses Maggie M'Candless, Mary Dihm, Annie E. Houston, Kate Northam, Julia Card and Clara Evans, and Messrs. Paul Zimmerman, W. B. Edwards, E. E. and C. C. Rinehart —home talent enough to warrant us in predicting that the concert will be highly successful and brilliant.

HENRY W. OLIVER, JR., Treasurer.

PITTSBURGH, January 28th, 1869.

We, the undersigned, appointed a Committee to examine the account of H. W. Oliver, Esq., Treasurer of the Eleventh Ward Grant and Colfax Club, hereby certify that they have examined the same, and find it to be correct.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The celebrated Worrell Sisters, who now occupy the attention of the theatrcal world, and are unsurpassed in their line of burlesques, will appear for the first time in Pittsburgh in the English version of Offenbach's new opera of the Grand Duchess of Gerolstein, with all the original scenery, music and costumes. There is rare enjoyment in reserve for those who attend.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—M'lle Augusta holds sway at the "Old Drury," and with M'lle Coutellier and brother the awfully daring acrobats, and the grand olio, forms a combination which nightly fills the auditorium to repletion.

SMYTHE'S AMERICAN.—At this theatre, Penn street, Miss Betty Rigel, the dansеuse who gained such high place in the ballet of the Black Crook, at New York, will appear for the first time to-night. "Punch and Judy," a sensational farce brought from London will be put on the stage in good style.

CHARITY FAIR.—The grand Charity Fair for the benefit of the poor and sick, was largely attended on Saturday night. The booths have all been much improved in decorations and no other place in the city presents more attractions. The Fair will close on Saturday night.

Works of Art.

In Boyd & Murray's window, on Wood street, there is now on exhibition the most superb specimen of graphite drawing we have ever seen, and we believe that, without exaggeration, it is the finest ever produced. Mr. Trevor McClurg is, we believe, unrivaled in this department of art. No New York artist that we know of can approach him in style or finish, few in ability. Mr. McClurg has discovered several valuable novelties in quality of graphite used and in the manner of using it, which, added to his genius as an artist, place him, we think, in the position we claim for him. The specimen in the window of the Messrs. Boyd & Murray is a life-size portrait of Mr. McClurg's eminent friend and fellow-artist, the late Emanuel Leatze. In Mr. Gillespie's windows we notice two large portraits in oil, the one of John Harper, Esq., painted by Lawman, and the other of Jacob Painter, Esq., painted by Hicks, of New York. Looking at the two side by side, we honestly think that of our home artist is the finest, although the reputation of his New York rival is far greater.
