

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

ON THE SEASHORE. BY M. A. V. I stand on the shore of the murmuring sea...

EPHEMERIS. -Detroit has a velocipede school. -John H. Surratt is now in Brazil.

-North Carolina has a normal school for negroes. -A Cincinnati doctor offers a reward for a live mad dog.

-Twenty-six snow storms in what Alaska had in 1868. -In Brigham Young's murder are shot and not hung.

-Baltimore possesses at least one homeopathic horse doctor. -Thirty-one thousand is the present population of Kansas City.

-Mrs. Cary Stanton is said to be quite a gentlemanly looking person. -New Orleans has harvested a very heavy crop of Rebel Generals.

A Spanish Insurrection.

The second day of the new year was a terrible season in Malaga, the 'pearl of the Mediterranean.' According to Republican estimates, more than one thousand were killed and wounded on the side of the citizens...

-Some Pacific slope speculators purpose building a huge ice house on the summit of the Nevadas, and supplying from thence per Pacific railroad the demand for the article in Sacramento and San Francisco.

-Some terrible curiosity hunters, whom we should call vandals, if the respectable vandals had done anything to merit such vile abuse, have stolen several of the ivory keys from Martha Washington's harpsichord at Mount Vernon.

-Mrs. Mary Kyle Dallas has engaged to write for five years exclusively for the New York Ledger, for which she receives $4,000 a year. Mrs. Dallas, we believe, has written quite a quantity, but what her chief works are we are not aware.

-A lecturer says that he assisted in the post mortem examination of a man who died of drunkenness, and from the cavities of whose brain a table-spoonful of alcohol was collected, which burned rapidly when touched by a lighted match.

-Chicago claims to have had a colored woman aged 120 years, who died last year. It is also claimed that this is the only colored woman in the country who ever attained so great an age without claiming to be the nurse of Washington.
