Found Dead.—The body of a little girl, apparently ten or twelve years of age, was found on the bank of the Allegheny river, near the Brilliant Oil Works, at Negley's Run, yesterday. Coroner Clawson will hold an inquest upon it to-day.

Fine Parlor Chandeliers for gas and oil, of all the latest styles, will be found at wholesale and retail at the warerooms of Weldon & Kelly, corner of Wood street and Virgin alley. The trade, as well as retail parties, supplied at most reasonable prices.

Ferocious Dog.—Michael Pender, charged on oath of H. A. Jones, before the Mayor, with keeping a ferocious dog, was arrested yesterday and taken to the Mayor's office, where the case was compromised by the defendant paying the costs and agreeing to kill the dog.

Needs Attention.—The sidewalk on Ohio street, Eighth ward, Allegheny, between the Troy Hill road and Church alley, needs some repairs and attention from the Street Commissioner. Citizens in the locality would be very grateful for any little attention bestowed upon the thoroughfare.

Slapped His Mouth.—Adam Adler alleges that Robt. James slapped him in the mouth, yesterday morning, during an argument in which Robert was getting worsted. The accused was arrested and compromised the case by paying the costs of prosecution and giving promises of more correct and gentlemanly deportment in future.

Disorderly Conduct.—Polk Harkins was arrested yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct on oath of Walter Kirkpatrick, before Mayor Brush. The prosecutor is one of the lamplighters, and it appears that while he was engaged in cleaning the lamps in the vicinity of the Point, Polk interfered with him. Polk was locked up for a hearing.

Disorderly House.—Susan Jones made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging Mollie Burns and Andrew Allison, with keeping a disorderly house on Second avenue above Try street. The accused were arrested and taken to the Mayor's office. They agreed to vacate the premises, and upon paying costs were discharged.

Aggravated Assault.—Jno. Roberts and Christopher Dillingbaugh are teamsters. Roberts alleges that Dillingbaugh drove into him yesterday morning, on Ohio street, Allegheny, by which he was crushed against the side of the wagon and quite severely injured. Dillingbaugh was arrested upon a warrant issued by Alderman Mullen, and after a hearing gave bail for trial.

Obituary.—Miss Tillie C. Fleeson, daughter of the late R. C. Fleeson, formerly one of the Dispatch proprietors, died on Tuesday afternoon. She was an estimable Christian lady, beloved and respected by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. The funeral services will take place this morning at ten o'clock from the Central Presbyterian Church, Rev. T. Y. Orrs', corner of Lacock and Anderson streets.

Admitted to the Bar.—On motion of Joseph M. Gazzam, Esq., Mr. William H. Lowe, of Steubenville, Ohio, was admitted to practice law in the various Courts of Allegheny county. Mr. Lowe is a graduate of Kenyon College, read law with the late R. S. Moody, of Onio, and was admitted to the bar of that State in September last. He has permanently located himself in this city, where his high attainments will rapidly secure him place in the profession.

The Concent To-morrow.—The sale of tickets for the grand concert of our amateur singers, under the direction of Prof. Tetedoux, is now opened at Messrs. H. Kleber & Co.'s and C. C. Mellor's stores. English pieces form this year the main feature of the programme; and the selections, as they will be interpreted, cannot fail to be enthusiastically received. We anticipate for ourselves and promise to the audience a musical entertainment of a high order.

Larceny by Bailee.—James Bryant of Mansfield, made information before the Mayor yesterday, charging John Gourley with larceny by bailee. He alleges that Gourley leased a house from him, and that he left in his (Gourley's) possession a cooking stove, worth $30, and that during his absence Gourley moved out of the house and sold the stove. The accused was arrested, and in default of bail for his appearance at Court was committed to jail.

Chase's Improved Dollar Microscope.—This neat little microscope is admirably adapted to detect counterfeit, spurious and altered notes, and also for viewing seeds, plants, insects. By placing the instrument directly over any small object, it will reveal every part with great distinctness. This microscope is of as high power, it is said, as we can go for practical business purposes; what we gain in power, we lose in field. Henry Miner, Fifth avenue, has it for sale.

Fatal Accident—Coroner's Inquest.—A distressing accident occurred at Reese, Graff & Dull's Rolling Mill, in the Twelfth ward, about two o'clock yesterday, resulting in the death of August Brocker, an employe in the establishment. Brocker, it appears, went to the sheet sheers to oil the pinion, and while thus engaged his "hand feathers" became entangled in the gearing, and he was drawn between a pair of cog wheels and crushed to death. Coroner Clawson was notified and held an inquest on the body yesterday evening, the jury returning a verdict of accidental death. The deceased was about thirty-five years of age, and leaves a widow and three children. He resided on Troy Hill, Allegheny.

Alleged Coal Stealing.—Mr. Robert Cambpell, of the firm of Campbell, Robson & Co., proprietors of a coal yard and coke works, near lock No. 1, Monongahela river, appeared before Alderman McMasters yesterday and lodged information against Mrs. Meyer for larceny. The prosecutor states that he looses every night large quantities of coal, which are stolen by different patics, and that he has been compelled to keep one and two watchmen at the works at night, without, however, completely stopping depredations on his property. The accused, he alleges, was detected in the act of stealing from the yards, and was arrested by the watchman on duty at the time. Mrs. Meyer, after a hearing, gave bail for trial.

THE COURTS.

United States District Court—Judge McCandless.

WEDNESDAY, February 3.—In the case of the habeas corpus issued on the petition of John Carpenter upon Gen. R. H. K. Whitely, commandant of the Allegheny Arsenal, the respondent answered the writ and produced Hamilton Carpenter in court, setting forth that he was held as a deserter. The court held that the return was decisive, as the party was in charge of a military tribunal. The Court therefore directed Carpenter to be remanded to the custody of the commandant of the Allegheny Arsenal, and that the writ be dismissed at the cost of the relator, John Carpenter.

The bankruptcy case reported on trial yesterday is not yet concluded.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

TUESDAY, Feb. 3.—In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Fritz Pool and Elizabeth Pool, indicted for larceny, the jury found a verdict of not guilty.

John Neelis, indicted for larceny, plead guilty and was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment of three months in the county jail.

Robert H. Beecraft, indicted for larceny, plead guilty and was sentenced to undergo an imprisonment in the western penitentiary for thirteen months.

Daniel Grover, indicted for assault, Henry Neeland prosecutor, was placed on trial and plead not guilty. The prosecutor alleged that the accused drew a pistol upon him. The jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Frederick Nugle, indicted for malicious mischief, Elizabeth Geyer, prosecutrix, was placed on trial, and the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and directed the prosecutor to pay the costs.

Charles O'Donnell was arrested on a process for contempt of Court. It appears that O'Donnell was prosecuting witness in a case pending in the Quarter Sessions and for two terms had refused to attend Court. He was held to bail in the sum of $1,000, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Henry Hanauer, indicted for setting fire to his store to defraud underwriters, was next placed on trial, G. W. Murphy, Fire Marshal, appearing as prosecutor.

The fire out of which the prosecution originated, occurred at the store of the defendant, on Market street, about half past ten o'clock, on the night of the 24th of October. The evidence for the prosecution was all of circumstantial character. It appears that the defendant left the store about fifteen minutes before the fire was discovered. The fire originated in the cutting room of the establishment, which was at the back part of the building. The front door was barred. The case was not concluded when Court adjourned.

The Bank Robbery.

Charles Hurlick, Mrs. Hurlick, alias Mrs. Farchild, and James Morris, the parties who were arrested in Johnstown on a charge of having perpetrated a robbery in the West, an account of which we published a few days since, passed through this city in charge of officers Rittenhouse and Lopert yesterday. The trunk referred to was found, but the money, consisting of $7,000 in greenbacks and $9,000 in bonds, has not yet been recovered.

The robbery was committed at the bank of D. Gardner, at Champagne, Illinois, on Saturday night or Sunday, January 16th or 17th. After banking hours on Saturday night, the safe was locked and the bank closed, and was not again opened until Monday morning. At that time the safe was found locked, but on opening it the money was found to have been stolen. Suspicion at once rested on a man named Thomas Hurlick, brother of Charles Hurlick. Thomas, we are informed, had been at one time cashier of the bank, but was dismissed on the first of January. He was still about the bank a great deal, but had, in the meantime, started a bank on his own account—a faro bank. He was up stairs in the bank building on Saturday evening, and is supposed to have committed the robbery then. It is said he had free access to the bank at all times, day and night, and knew where every key was kept. His subsequent movements increased the suspicions against him, and when his brother and the woman started East in company with Morris, and Thomas prepared to follow them, it was supposed that the entire party were connected with the robbery. The two men and the woman were followed by officers Rittenhouse and Lopert, with what result we have already stated. Thomas Hurlick secluded arrest for a while, but we are informed he is now a prisoner.

We call special attention to advertisement in another column of Marshall & Co.'s Elixir, an invaluable remedy for Headache, Dyspepsia and Costiveness. Numerous testimonials from persons who have used the medicine show that for those diseases it has no equal, giving instant relief to the afflicted.

A trial will convince all of its virtues.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Association—Special meeting—Moorhead's Petroleum Bill.

A special meeting of the Pittsburgh Petroleum Association was held at the rooms of the Association, No. 4 Dalzell's building, corner of Duquesne Way and Irwin street, yesterday (Wednesday), at ten o'clock, A. M.

The meeting was called to order by the President, Mr. Hutchinson, who stated the object to be the consideration of a bill offered in the House of Representatives by Mr. Moorhead, entitled "a bill to provide for the better security of life and property from the dangers of coal oil, crude petroleum and their products, and for other purposes."

The Secretary then read the bill, after which its provisions were ably discussed.

A letter from General Moorhead explanatory of the bill, was read by the President.

Mr Long thought the association should give some expression of their views in regard to the bill, which he said was a method to carry out the views of General Moorhead relative to petroleum, which he held would bear a tax, and he now took this means of imposing a tax upon the manufacturers and refiners.

Major Frew said the bill was simply a big job to make money for a few inspectors; that it had been sprung upon the trade at this time with the hope of running it through Congress under the excitement and clamor for the protection of life against the dangers of petroleum. The bill, he said, was defective and failed to meet the object expressed in its title. The whole thing bears on its face the evidence of fraud. The bill proposed by General Moorhead will accomplish nothing except to make money for a few inspectors and speculators.

Mr. Long stated that for the information of the trade he would submit the following figures: The tax on exported oil during the past year he said under the bill proposed by Gen. Moorhead would amount to $375,000 on refined, and $578,000 on crude oil, amounting to $950,000, which would go into the hands of inspectors.

Mr. Long moved that a Committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of this meeting on the subject of Gen. Moorhead's bill. The motion was adopted, and the Chair appointed Messrs. Long, Frew and Warden.

The Chair stated that the matter of railroad freights was a very important one, and as the Chair was instructed to appoint a Railroad Committee he announced the following named gentlemen as comprising the Committee: Messrs. Forsythe, Lockhart, Long, Waring and Logan.

The following gentlemen were appointed on the Committee to prepare a standard barrel for the trade; Messrs. Davis, McKee and Stockdale.

On motion, Messrs. Stewart and Goe, of the Columbia Oil Company, were elected members of the Association.

On motion of Maj. Frew, Mr. Stewart was added to the Committee on Railroad Freights, and the President, Mr. Hutchinson, constitued Chairman ex-officio.

On motion, the Association adjourned to meet at three o'clock P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Association met at three o'clock, pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President, Mr. Hutchinson.

The Secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting, and they were approved.

The Committee appointed at the morning session to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the Association relative to the bill offered in the House of Representatives, through its Chairman, Mr. Long, submitted the following:

WHEREAS, A bill has been presented in the House of Representatives by Hon. J. K. Moorhead, of this district, ostensibly to provide measures for protecting the public from dangers arising from the use of unsafe qualities of petroleum, but really being an extensive scheme for the aggrandizement of a large horde of hungry office hunters; and

WHEREAS, The bill has been recently concocted by certain parties seeking their own advantage, and has been presented by our member without the knowledge of this Association, representing as it does the principal oil refining district in the United States, and worthy at least of consultation before a bill of such magnitude should be completed. And having carefully examined the provisions of this bill, therefore

Resolved, That the Association decidedly disapprove the course of our representative in this matter. 1st. In reviving the scheme for taxing Petroleum, and surrounding the trade with embarassments and disabilities from which Congress have so recently relieved it. 2d. The preparing and pressing the passage of any bill affecting so intimately the business of his constituents, without consulting the trade interest.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this Association the bill will utterly fail in effecting the object desired, as the adulteration of refined oils rarely takes place until it is found in the hands of the retailers.

Resolved, That the inspection of crude oils is totally unnecessary, and of no advantage to the public whatever, simply placing a heavy burden on a legitimate mining business that a million of dollars or more may be divided amongst a certain class of office-holders.

Resolved, That the bill is an abortion, that it provides for the manufacture and sale of low grade, dangerous oils at a trifling increase of the tax; whereas, its sale below a safe standard should be prohibited.

Resolved, That we recommend the renewal by Congress of the law prohibiting the sale of refined petroleum below the usual fire test of 110 degrees Fahrenheit, with suitable penalties; also the appointment of a detective by the Treasury Department, who shall visit all parts of the country, after the manner of the bank investigation, who shall examine refined petroleum, wherever offered for sale, and prosecute all who offend the foregoing law.

Resolved, That it is wholly unnecessary to subject oil intended for export to the expense of inspection, when said oil is compelled to conform to the laws and regulations of foreign countries.

Resolved, That the oil trade stands ready, as it has always stood, to second any honest efforts of our representatives to stop the sale of explosive oils.

Resolved, That in our judgment the trouble is not with the manufacturer, but with dishonest dealers, who mix explosive substances with our oils after purchasing from us.

Resolved, That in our judgment the majority of accidents arising from the use of carbon oil are not caused by the inferiority of the oil, but carelessness on the part of those using them, and that the recent casualty referred to in Congress would have been occasioned by any other oils or spirits.

The report of the Committee was received.

On motion, the preamble and resolutions were taken up seriatim and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Long, the President and Secretary were authorized to communicate with Gen. Moorhead by telegraph and request the postponement of the bill in Congress for the present.

On motion of Mr. Frew, the Committee appointed on Railroad Freights were authorized to proceed to Washington, D. C., and oppose the passage of Mr. Moorhead's bill if necessary.

Mr. Waring moved that a Committee be appointed to prepare a bill to be presented to Congress as a substitute for Mr. Moorhead's bill, and also to attend to the bill before the State Legislature for the appointment of an inspector.

The motion was adopted and Messrs. Davis, Burke, Montzheimer, Metzgar and Edgerton were appointed.

The Association then adjourned.

Suicide in Shaler Township—Inquisition—The Verdict.

The body of Catharine Reamer, a young girl, was found hanging to a tree in the woods near Bennett's station, Shaler township, Tuesday morning. Justice Elsesser, of that township, held an inquest on the body Tuesday afternoon, and it appears from the testimony adduced that the deceased was a stranger in that locality, and was first seen in the neighborhood the day after Christmas. On that day she called at one or two houses and asked for work. Among other places, she called at the house of Mr. De Haven, and he, out of charity, permitted her to stay in his family. She remained there until the 8th of January, showing, in the meantime, a very weak mind indeed. At the time mentioned, the family learned that Mr. Hieber desired a girl to do kitchen work. Accordingly Miss Jennie De Haven went with Catharine a part of the way to Mr. Hieber's, and showed her the house, when she left her. It appears that Catharine did not go to the place mentioned at all, and nothing further was seen of her until she was found yesterday, as stated. Samuel Campbell discovered the body as he was going to his work. She was hanging from the limb of a tree, suspended by a small shawl. Mr. Campbell summoned other men, and they sent for Justice Elsesser, leaving the body, meanwhile, hanging as it had been found. It was evident it had been hanging there for several days, and the probability is that the girl, instead of going to the house she had started for, went directly to the woods and committed the fatal act.

The jury found that the girl came to her death by suicide, and the following is the verdict as recorded by the justice:

"An inquisition indented and taken at Shaler township, Allegheny county, the second day of February, A. D. 1869, before me, J. S. Elesser, a Justice of the Peace, in and for said county, and acting in the absence of the Coroner of the county aforesaid, upon the view of the body of Catharine Reamer, then and there lying dead, upon the oaths of William Mulholland, Michael Brannon, J. C. Hieber, William Collins, George Allison and William Allison, good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, who, being sworn to inquire, on the part of the Commonwealth, when, where, how and after what manner the said Catharine Reamer came to her death, do say, upon their oaths, that the said Catharine Reamer, not having the fear of God before her eyes, but being seduced and moved by the devil, at Shaler township aforesaid, in a certain woods in said township standing, and being, then and there alone, with a certain woolen shawl, of the value of six cents, which she did then and there hold in her hands, and one end then and there put about her neck, and the other end thereof tied about a limb of a tree, herself then and there, with the shawl aforesaid, voluntarily and feloniously and of her malice aforethought, hanged and suffocated. And so the jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths, say that the said Catharine Reamer then and there, in manner and form aforesaid, as a felon of herself, feloniously, voluntarily, and of her malice aforethought, herself killed, strangled and murdered. Against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania."

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—Notwithstanding the unpleasant weather last evening a large and select audience assembled at the Opera House, attracted there, of course, by the charming Worrell Sisters Sophie, Irene and Jennie, and their excellent troupe. The programme consisted of "The Foundling," a charming little farce, and "The Field of the Cloth of Gold," a burlesque, full of fun and frolic, and redundant with local witticisms. The piece proved highly interesting to the vast audience, and was rendered in a manner entirely satisfactory to all present. The dancing of the Worrell Sisters was highly applauded, and Miss Jennie was called out the third time by the delighted audience. The same programme is announced for to-night.

AMERICAN THEATRE.—A large and appreciative audience filled this house last evening. Mr. Smythe's endeavors to render the American a first-class theatre are meeting with full success. The "Punch and Judy" is one of the funniest things imaginable, and is received with great applause. Betty Rigle is the most beautiful and charming of dancers, and is admired of all admirers. All the attractions of the place are excellent.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—The entertainment at the Old Theatre last night was one of the best variety exhibitions ever presented in this city, and the public, we are pleased to observe, evinced their appreciation of its excellence by a very liberal patronage. The attractions here are uniformly excellent. The Coutellers continue to arouse the wonder and elicit the warmest applause of the audience. Do not fail to attend.

MASONIC HALL.—To-night the young "Zouaves" will give the first of a series of entertainments at Masonic Hall, consisting of military, musical, school-readings, tableaux, etc. The troupe is composed of orphan boys from five to fourteen years of age, sons of soldiers whose lives were sacrificed in the late rebellion. These little fellows, of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home in New York, have adopted this method of securing means to defray the expenses of educating themselves, and they appeal to all to aid them in their enterprise. Their exhibitions are highly spoken of by the entire press of the eastern cities, where they have given entertainments, and we are confident they will be liberally patronized in this city.

MRS. SIDDONS.—This eminent English actress will read at the Academy of Music, from Shakespeare, Tennyson and Scott, on Monday and Tuesday evenings next, under the auspices of the Mercantile Library Association. The high reputation made and sustained in the old and new continents by this lady should secure for her a large and fashionable audience. Reserved seats will be sold at Lafayette Hall on Friday evening next.

No One Should be Without One.—The Weed Sewing Machine is now one of the most popular machines before the public. The agents in this city, Messrs. Long & Harvison, No. 112 Grant street, are selling them on such easy terms that no one should be without one. The Weed is always ready for work, and accomplishes any kind of sewing in perfect style. Remember that the agency is at No. 112 Grant street.

Delightful Re-union.

Comparatively few of our business firms have tried the experiment of enjoying a re-union with those in their employ, and of being the means of imparting a vast amount of pleasure at very little sacrifice. It is gratifying to record the praiseworthy conduct of the house of Joseph Horne & Co., Market street, in this city, who have for several years past given an elegant supper on the evening of the First of February to their employes. The occasion is always one of interest and pleasure. The members of the firm and clerical force mingle together in one common brotherhood, and give themselves up to the delights of reunion and social festivities of an elevated cast.

Monday evening the annual reunion took place at Hubley's spacious rooms on Fourth Avenue, at which a company of sixty or seventy congregated. Supper was gotten up in the best style, just such as would be expected at this establishment, comprising the delicacies of the season, ice-creams, jellies, pyramids of grapes and oranges, tastefully ornamented. Besides the members of the firm, Messrs. Horn, Shea, Johnson, and Burchfield, and the clerical force of the house, numbering about fifty, there were several invited guests, among whom were Rev. Dr. L. F. Morgan, A. Bradley, W. Vankirk, C. Clark, Jr., of the Tradesmen's Bank, R. S. Smith, of Union Bank, Dr. Coffey, W. H. Kincaid, Col. Collard and J. G. Collingwood. Several ladies also graced the table, Mrs. Shea, Mrs. Vankirk, Mrs. Coffey, Mrs. Scully, Miss Galway and Miss Horne. After spending an hour or two at the table discussing the dainty things before them, and in social converse, the company separated at an early hour.

Fine Cigars—Choice Tobacco.

The well earned reputation of the popular and extensive tobacco store of Mr. John Megraw, No. 45 Hand street, is sufficient evidence of the superior inducements which it offers the trade. The stock carried by the house is always large and judiciously assorted, and such as to attract the patronage of those who buy to sell again as well as the retail purchaser. The home manufactured cigars of the firm are conceded to be equal to some of the finest imported articles and superior to most of the domestic in use. The house annually sells an immense stock of general tobacco goods, and the trade directed towards it daily grows larger in proportions. We advise our readers to try the fragrant cigars, the tempting smoking and chewing tobacco, the carefully prepared snuffs, and to examine the fine assortment of meerschaum pipes, tubes, etc., all of which are offered at exceedingly reasonable prices to either wholesale or retail patrons.

Many Years ago the writer of this notice and an invalid physician, while visiting the Island of St. Croix for their health, experienced and witnessed many surprising and beneficial effects of the rum there produced upon many of the invalids who were, like ourselves, seeking health, and upon inquiry and investigation, obtained a full history of its medicinal virtues. He was delighted and surprised, and determined to make it the basis of a Tonic and Restorative Medicine. The result of his labors was a glorious success for himself and suffering humanity. The celebrated PLANTATION BITTERS was thus made known to the world. Being an article of real merit, founded on new principles, and relying wholly upon the vegetable kingdom for its medicinal effects, it worked a rapid revolution in the treatment of physical debility.
