Office of Privisure Gazette, Monday, February 8, 1869.

The general markets are moderately active, though devoid of any new or important characteristics worthy of special notice. Flour appears to be a drug nearly all over the country, the demand being confined mainly to supplying the immediate wants of consumers. We hear it stated that consignments are being made from the west to all points, where there is an probability of working it off, and when the cities are found full, shipments are made to villages and connery towns. Within a short time, a consignment was received at Connells, ville (Pennsylvania.) and another at Greensbrug (Pa.) which places, here tofor; when they wanted any Flour, bought it here. This is no doubt the OFFICE OF PITTESURGE GAZETTE, bought it here. This is no doubt the bought it here. This is no doubt the Receipts at Sub-Treasury, $801,908; first time that ever Flour was sent from payments, $1,029,372, balance, $85,652,524. Wisconsin to either of these places to be sold on commission, and it shows that holders in the west are anxious to reduce their stocks. APPLE BUTTER-5 to 85 cents.

Seventeen boat disasters occurred, and six prominent steamboatmen died. -A Louisville paper says: We understand that the rumors that capitalists would take the canal of the hands of the government has opened the eyes of Sen ators, and there is a light possibility of the canal appropriation being made.

-A colored gentleman, named Frank Norman, who has a lively sense of his own rights, has brought suit for $10,000 damages against the Carrie Brooks, because he was not permitted to sit down at the table and eat with white people on that steamer. -On the trip before the last of the

Alice Dean, coming up, she had about 100 tons to discharge at Louisville, and several of her deck crew jumped the boat at that place. One of them was arrested afterward for vagrancy in that city, and, on being taken before the City Court, reported that he had been put ashore by the Alice Dean. Thereupon the Court entered a fine against the boat of $100 for having but ashore a pauper at that place. The fine was afterward an-nulled in order to give the boat a hear-ing in the matter, and the case is set fora hearing to day. The Louisville offi-cials proposed to dismiss the case, if the boat would pay the costs, which amount to $10, but Captain Shunk refused to
