RIVER NEWS. The weather continues close and cloudy with occasional showers of rain, and the river is again rising steadily with six feet four inches in the channel by the Monongahela marks. We should not be surprised to see the weather turn suddenly cold again, and last evening the wind appeared to be veering around to the west. The New York, from Nashville, is the only transient arrival, we have to report. The Armenia, from New Orleans, and Maggie Hays, from St. Louis, are among the first boats due.

The Grey Eagle did not get off for Parkersburg on Monday, Capt. Brennan having found it necessary to lay over-until Saturday to make some repairs. The Julia No. 2 departed for Zanesville with a good passenger trip, and a light freight list.

The Kate Putnam, Capt. Geo. W. Reed, is filling up steadily for Nashville, as is also the Sallie Capt. T. S. Calhoun, for Cincinnati and Louisville. These are both first rate boats. The Glendale Capt. Hare, and the

The Glencale Capt. Hare, and the Wild Duck, Capt, Arnawalt, are both announced for St. Louis, forthwith. Capt. Thomas Rogers, late of the Selma, is here on a visit to his family. Some of the tow boats were making preparations for a trip yesterday, in expectation of a rise.
