

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

From the sunny groves of the Southern land, A bird bath down to the Northern sky...

—John Surratt is in Brazil. —Boston is on a slight again. —Old Sol Smith is acting in New York...

—A little boy named Graham was flying his kite from the roof of a house in Mulberry street, New York, on Sunday...

—A negro danced a jig in a Memphis bar-room with such vigor as to jar a pistol off a shelf behind the bar and explode it...

—During a concert in the Boston Music Hall, recently, when the organist was "exhibiting the full power of the instrument," a lady was enthusiastically conversing with her neighbor about her household arrangements...

—Mrs. John Drew, at her theatre in Philadelphia, has brought out Yate's drama of Tame Cats. This is what the Philadelphia Bulletin says on the subject:

—An attempted forgery of letters of credit to the amount of $100,000 has been stopped in San Francisco by means of the Atlantic cable.

—A curious lawsuit is on the tapis in England. A Liverpool merchant, suddenly called to New York on urgent business, took a cab to the steamer...

throat, diminishes vitality, blunts the intellect, and destroys the finer sensibilities. —Yankee Robinson, a dreary actor of the old school of American comedy...

—The Worrell sisters are in Chicago, and have not been as well received as they might have been. One of the newspapers speaks of some parts of their Field of the Cloth of Gold as "coarse and simply disgusting."

—Dr. John Hubbard, an eminent physician of Hallowell, Maine, and twice Governor of Maine died in his chair on Saturday last. During his first term as Governor, he signed the first prohibitory liquor law enacted in that State.

—Students of geography look upon Corea as a mere excrement on the side of China, and yet within the past two years and eleven months the inhabitants of that wretched island murdered three thousand Christians, merely because they were Christians.

—A Brevet Major-General A. Baird, of Pennsylvania, Inspector-General of this Department, was at the International Hotel in New York, on Sunday, with his family, consisting of his wife and son. The General and wife roomed upon the third floor, while the son occupied a room on the fourth floor.

—The Schomacker Piano combines all the latest valuable improvements known in the construction of any piano instrument in the United States. It is simple in construction, and has always been awarded the highest premium exhibitions.

—The East River bridge will certainly be one of the greatest achievements of mechanical science, and the largest of its kind (except one) in the world. From the plans as already settled upon, we derive the information that the two main cables are to be suspended from towers 203 feet above high water...

—The statement sent to some of the newspapers relative to the foreign debt of the Dominican Republic is an error. The entire indebtedness of the republic on January 1, 1869, including the paper currency now in circulation, did not exceed $500,000.

DESTRUCTION OF THE INTERNATIONAL HOTEL AT ST. PAUL, MINN.—Hurried Escape of the Inmates. (From the St. Paul Press, Feb. 1.) At about 5:30 o'clock, yesterday morning the International Hotel was discovered to be on fire, and in a little over an hour was in ruins with nearly all its contents.

Of the losses of the different guests of the hotel it is impossible to make a full estimate, but they amount in the aggregate to many thousands of dollars. Added to these is the value of the building, furniture, and the stock of the different parties occupying the lower floor, and the amount of losses by the burning of other buildings, and the damage done by removal, and the sum total will exceed $200,000.

HOUSEKEEPER will use any other after ours seeing it. COLLINS & WRIGHT, 129 Second Avenue, Pittsburgh.
