Another Victim.

Mr. Samuel Scantlin, a farmer residing in Illinois, having come to this city on business, was victimized by one of the many sharpers infesting this locality.

Scantlin was standing in front of the Monongahela House yesterday morning, when he was approached by an elderly looking man, who engaged him in conversation for a few moments, and then remarking that he had sundry small bills to pay, and nothing but "gold coin" which would be of no use to him, proposed to exchange with Mr. Scantlin, and produce what appeared to be two twenty dollar gold coins, received in exchange from the Illinois farmer forty dollars in greenbacks, and immediately disappeared.

Mr. Scantlin, thinking he had made a bargain, repaired to a broker to realize the proceeds of his trade, when he learned that he had paid forty dollars for two bogus coins worth about five cents each. He at once repaired to the Mayor's office and secured the services of an officer to catch the swindler, but he has not yet found him.

A Game of Poker.

A landlady in the First ward, Allegheny, whose name we do not positively ascertain, was not Mrs. Jane Smith, notwithstanding two of her boarders playing checkers, and not heeding the dinner bell, yesterday, in a playful mood took up a poker and made a strike, not at the players, but at the board, intending to upset it and thus interrupt the game. Unfortunately, she missed the board, and the poker struck her arm being somewhat defective, she was injured, and the game was interrupted.

The injured party, not at all relishing this little game of poker, threatened to furnish the public with an account of the police of the peace made their appearance and after some skirmishing and strategic maneuverings secured the youth and conveyed him to the lock-up. In the evening Mayor Drum imposed upon him a fine of ten dollars and costs, which he could not pay. He is now in jail.

Keystone Skating Club.

The Keystone Skating Club was organized in November, 1898, and at present numbers ten from among the best skaters in the State. The members have adopted as their skating costume a jacket and pair of dark oak trimmed with a deep border of mixed white and grey worsted, which makes a very neat and dignified appearance. Mr. Matthew McDonald is President of the club, and has the reputation of being an exceedingly graceful and accomplished skater. We understand that the membership of the club is limited to twelve. It is the design, we believe, to keep the organization alive during the summer by securing a room and practicing with pacer skates. The members are all young and enthusiastic lovers of the beautiful art, and seem determined to bring themselves up to the highest standard of excellence in its practice.

A Bank Broken—Successful Raid on a "Faro Bank"—The Proprietors in Custody—A Well Managed Affair.

A decisive and highly successful raid on one of the most notorious gambling houses in the vicinity was made yesterday afternoon by the Allegheny police.

It is supposed that the configuration was the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been previously in the vicinity of the place, and the proprietors, together with the greater part of the apparatus of the establishment, were in operation at the time, but not in full force, only six men were employed.

Destructive Fire—Glass Works Destroyed—Estimated Loss $10,000.

This morning about one o'clock a fire broke out in the glass works of Messrs. Adams & Powell, located at Soho, and in less than an hour the building was in flames.

The fire originated in the space between the office and packing room, and spread with such rapidity as to defy all efforts to extinguish it. The works were in operation at the time, but not in full force, only six men were employed.

Immortality of the Soul.

There is not a false religion but has for its foundation the immortality of the soul; and so far as the professed Christian Church have incorporated it into their system as an article of faith, it has led them into many hurtful errors, prominent among which is that of endless misery—a doctrine which not only dishonors God, but outrages all instincts implanted in the human mind.

I have long since been convinced that public discussions, when conducted in a courteous and Christian manner, are productive of good, as it enlightens the ignorant and brings out a class that seldom attend public worship. Truth has nothing to fear from investigation; it will stand the test of any crucible, shining brighter when brought in contact with error.

The clerical gentleman who manifested so much zeal at the close of our meeting on last Lord's day evening, called this morning and informed me, as there was no definite arrangement entered into the evening previous, he had dismissed me from his mind, and declined to enter into a discussion of the question. I shall be happy to meet any minister, acknowledged reputation, and discuss the question with him, with the assurance that on my part the same shall be conducted in a courteous and Christian manner.

Continental Dining Rooms. The Continental Dining Rooms, formerly next door to the Postoffice, continues to be the favorite restaurant in the city. This is owing, perhaps, to the fact that Mr. Reichelmer, the gentlemanly proprietor, superintends the establishment in person, and consequently the wants of his patrons are always promptly attended to. He has a corps of gentlemanly and competent assistants, who receive and fill the orders of customers with promptness and accuracy. The dining rooms are always kept in perfect order, and anything you call for, if it is to be obtained in the city, will be served in the best and most satisfactory style. His oysters are the best in the city. It is only necessary to try them to be fully convinced of the fact.
