PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, MONDAY, February 15, 1869. The general markets continue quiet, and rather dull though there is, nevertheless, a fair volume of business in the aggregate. We can report a steady demand for most of the leading commodities, but as there is an almost entire absence of a speculative feeling, we have but few round lot operations to report.

Provisions have eased up a little in the western markets, but, as yet, it has made no impression here. Grain and Flour dull and declining, with sales of 1,900 bales at 291/20 for middling uplands. Flour; receipts, 4,628 bbls and 1,267 bags; dull and declining, with sales of 5,800 bbls and unchanged and the same is true of t and unchanged and the same is true of many other articles, less prominent.

APPLES—Dull but unchanged; regular sales in store at $3 to $5 per bbl as to quality.

APPLE BUTTER 75 to 85c.

APPLE BUTTER—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and no change in prices; sales of prime to choice Roll at RIVER NEWS.

River continues to swell steadily, with ten feet six inches of water in the channel last evening. The weather has again turned cold, and last night the wind was from the west, with indications of snow. The following tow-boats were getting ready yesterday, but will hardly be ready to leave before Wednesday: Grand Lake, Lake Erie No. 4, Panther, Ajax, Antelope and Magara.

The Julia No. 2, from Zanesville, is the only arrival we have to report. She returns again to day at noon.

The Bayard, Capt. Geo. D. Moore, is the regular packet for Parkersburg today, leaving promptly at noon.
The Kate Putnam, Capt. G. W. Reed. leaves for Nashville this afternoon. will take all freight that may offer for Cincinnati, Louisville and intermediate points. The Putnam is in tip top condition for business.

The Wauanita, Capt. Thomas Shuman The wauanita Capt. Thomas Shuman, is following up rapidly and will be the first out for New Orleans.

The Lorena, Capt. Samuel Shuman, will be the next boat out for St. Louis. She is one of the best boats in the trade. Capt. James Vandergrift still retains charge of the office.

The following boats were in port last heavily insured at the time of her de-parture, is denied by Captain H. G. Carson, one of her owners. He says her in surance has not been changed since July last, and then she was only insured for $16,000, and the failure of one company, that was reduced to $6,000, which was all that was on her at the time of her destruction. -The Cincinnati and St. Louis Express Line has been recognized for the ensuing season. The line will comprise the following steamers: Campion, Capt. W. C. Grubb; Melnotte, Capt. Jas. Keniston; Kate Robinson, Capt. J. Alex. Frazier; Anna, Capt. O. P. Shi kle; Shamrock, Capt. Geo. W. Cullum; and Abeoda, Capt. Hiram J. Vinton.

-Asbury Reno, long and favorably known on the river as an engineer, died at his residence in Rocnester, Pa., on Friday evening. His last steamboating was on the Robt. Moore, with Capt. Wash. Kerr. The deceased was a very vorthy man, and leaves a wife and three children.

-The Board of Supervising Inspectors, at their recent session in Washington, decided to continue in force the present rules for the government of pilots, for the reason that the pilots of Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis differed widely as to the changes petitioned for. -The body of Daniel Lord, of Dun kirk, New York, a victim of the Mail Line disasters on the Ohio, was found floating in the river at Vevay, Indiana on the 9th inst. -The Mary Alice with 14, and the Alps with 15 empty barges in tow, passed Cincinnati on Sunday, from New Orleans, to Pittsburgh.

-Capt. John Noss, formerly of the Importer, will introduce the West Wind in the Cincinnati and Madison trade on Wednesday next. -Hard bread and pepper-sauce-the hot meal system—has been introduced on the Nashville and Cairo packets. -The Henry Adkins arrived at Leav enworth, from St. Louis, on Tuesday, the earliest arrival in ten years. -- Com. Hughes has sold his one-fourth interest in the Nashville, for $2,000, at twelve months, without interest. -Capt. B. F. Egan has bought a onefourth interest in the Alpha, at the rate of $6,000 for the whole boat. —Seven thousand dollars was refused for the Argonaut, at Cairo last week. $8,000 was the price asked.

-The Millie Stevens, recently burned in Red river, is insured for $4,000 in the Enterprise, of Cincinnati. _The R. C. Gray and Leonidas, were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pitts-burgh, on Monday.

-The Great Republic was launched from the ways at Mound city on Saturday.

The Henry Ames arrived at N. O., from St. Louis, on Friday.
